SIXTH SUNDAY OF Easter

MAY 17, 2020

Jesus said, "If you love me
you will keep my commandments."
John 14:15

A TIME OF TRANSITION, INSTABILITY, AND HOPE

Today's readings describe that period when the apostles are getting used to acting on their own. Acts describes the spreading of the word to Samaria, curing the sick, and their reception of the Holy Spirit. First Peter reminds us that our response to evil must be to do good and to speak of our hope with gentleness and reverence. The psalm is joyous with praise for God and a reminder of God's saving of those held captive in Egypt long, long ago. John talks not only about the Father and Jesus but also another Advocate, who will remain even when Jesus leaves. The readings also contain the promise of continued love and comfort. The readings today reflect a time of transition, instability, and hope, much like we are experiencing in these days of the pandemic.

WHEN YOU ARE MALIGNED

Each of the readings describes a time of transition and uncertainty. In Acts, the apostles are learning how to respond to those seeking to share in the joy of healing the sick and casting out unclean spirits. In First Peter, the new Christian community is reminded that they will be maligned. Their response to such suffering is shaped by Jesus' example of gentleness and reverence. The Gospel offers Jesus' words of consolation to those who are being left behind. All those who had lost Jesus once through crucifixion must prepare to lose him again. But this time they are promised that they will not be abandoned. They are left with the promise that Jesus' new commandments are the continuing guide to a life that, through death and resurrection, unites those who believe in Jesus, the Father, and the Spirit.

KEEP MY COMMANDMENTS

If keeping Jesus' commandments is the key to loving him, being loved by the Father, and accompanied by the Spirit, then what choice do we have but to keep his commandments? It seems simple, but unlike the commandments carried down the mountain by Moses, Jesus did not leave us with ten statements of conduct to guide our actions. Jesus left us with a much more complicated commandment, to love our neighbor as ourselves. This commandment requires that we first love ourselves as Jesus loved us. We must see in ourselves what Jesus saw in each one of us. Jesus saw that we too are made in the image and likeness of God and that we carry with us the fragility of our humanity. We must see that same Godliness and humanity in every person we encounter. It is not just ourselves we see in the face of our family, friends, acquaintances, and strangers. It is the face of God. We should act accordingly, especially during this pandemic.

SEXTO DOMINGO DE Pascua

17 DE MAYO DE 2020

Jesús dijo: "Si me aman, cumplirán mis mandamientos".

Juan 14:15

UN TIEMPO DE TRANSICIÓN, INESTABILIDAD Y ESPERANZA

Las lecturas de hoy describen ese período en el que los apóstoles se están acostumbrando a actuar por su cuenta. Hechos describe la difusión de la palabra a Samaria, curando a los enfermos, y su recepción del Espíritu Santo. Primero Pedro nos recuerda que nuestra respuesta al mal debe ser hacer el bien y hablar de nuestra esperanza con dulzura y reverencia. El salmo es gozoso con alabanza a Dios y un recordatorio de la salvación de Dios de los que están cautivos en Egipto hace mucho, mucho tiempo. Juan habla no sólo del Padre y de Jesús, sino también de otro Abogado, que permanecerá aun cuando Jesús se vaya. Las lecturas también contienen la promesa de amor y consuelo continuos. Las lecturas de hoy reflejan un tiempo de transición, inestabilidad y esperanza, al igual que estamos experimentando en estos días de la pandemia.

CUANDO SE TE CALUMNIA

Cada una de las lecturas describen un tiempo de transición e incertidumbre. En los Hechos, los apóstoles están aprendiendo cómo responder a quienes buscan compartir la alegría de sanar a los enfermos y exorcizar espíritus impuros. En la primera carta de Pedro, la nueva comunidad cristiana se le recuerda que ellos serán calumniados. Su respuesta a ese sufrimiento está formada en el ejemplo de Jesús de su gentileza y reverencia. Los evangelios ofrecen las palabras de consuelo de Jesús a quienes están quedándose atrás. A todos quienes han perdido a Jesús ya en la crucifixión deben pre-pararse para perderlo una vez más. Pero esta vez a ellos se les promete que no serán abandonados. Ellos se quedan con la promesa que los nuevos mandamientos de Jesús son una continua guía a una vida que, por medio de la muerte y resurrección, une a quienes creen en Jesús, en el Padre y en el Espíritu.

GUARDA MIS MANDAMIENTOS

Si guardar los mandamientos de Jesús es la clave para amarlo, ser amado por el Padre y acompañado por el Espíritu, entonces ¿qué elección tenemos para guardar sus mandamientos? Parece simple, pero a diferencia de los mandamientos con que Moisés bajó de la montaña, Jesús no nos dejó con diez normas de conducta que guíen nuestras acciones. Jesús nos dejó con un mandamiento mu-cho más complicado, amar a nuestros enemigos como a nosotros mismos. Este mandamiento requiere que nosotros primero nos amemos como Jesús nos amó. Nosotros debemos ver en nosotros mismos lo que Jesús vio en cada uno de nosotros. Jesús vio que también nosotros estamos hechos a imagen y semejanza de Dios y que llevamos con nosotros la fragilidad de nuestra humanidad. Nosotros debemos ver la misma devoción y humanidad en cada persona que encontramos en nuestro camino. No es solo que nosotros mismos veamos en el rostro de nuestra familia, amigos, conocidos y extraños. Es el rostro de Dios. Debemos comportarnos a la altura, especialmente durante esta pandemia.
