Mrs. Prideaux's Weekly Newsletter for the Week of September 26th, 2022

Reader's Workshop: The students will understand that learning to read is hard work! They will learn ways to tackle tricky words.

Math Workshop: The students will be able to solve addition strategies through various strategies.

Writer's Workshop: The class will continue to work on sounding out words in their writing. They will also understand that writer's write what they love and know.

Religion: This week we will discuss Saint Therese the Little Flower.

Social Studies: We will continue to learn about being a good citizen.

Word Work: The students will identify CVC patterned words and CCVC patterned words.

Have a great weekend!