Why is it important to be with others rather than just living your faith on your own according to Dr. Sri? Do you agree with him? Why or why not?

Do you have people in your life who are the ‘iron’?

Do you make time to be with others who share your faith? Why/Why Not?

Who are your ‘running partners’? If you don’t’ have them, what can you do to find them?

Do you truly love your neighbor? Where in your life can you make a personal change to love or be patient like Jesus?

Why is it important to help the poor according to Dr. Sri?

What important statement does Dr. Sri make about the secular world?

What is the battle for your mind?