MORE FRANCISCAN GRATITUDE

Since the Franciscan gathering at Saint Stanislaus a few weeks ago, some wonderful expressions of gratitude continue to come our way. Here we share some of these messages addressed to Fr. Michael and to the whole parish community.

Dear Mike,

Thank you for all you did for all of us last week. I truly believe that the All Province Assembly will stand out as an historic moment in our history. Your parishioners are fantastic. The parish is a special place filled with life and the Spirit.

Thanks again,
Andy Brophy, OFM
Greenwood, Mississippi

Dear Mike,

It is said that gratitude is the fairest blossom which springs from the soul. If that is so, I give this blossom to you and to those parishioners whose kind and thoughtful generosity have made our recent stay in Cleveland so comfortable and complete. Nothing, it seems, was forgotten.

I for one never imagined a welcome could be so warm and encompassing. It touched our hearts...deeply. You all have truly overextended yourselves to facilitate this gathering. There was nothing to want. We were free to deal with this tragedy as individuals and a fraternity — unhindered by such logistics as food and shelter. Many of us came to find answers to questions, peace in chaos, love instead of anger. Thank you for your support, for helping us as you have, through this healing process.

Gratitude is one of the least articulate of the emotions, especially when it is deep. How true! The heart speaks but words come with difficulty.

It is our turn — my turn — to express what you have so generously shown. Know that you and your parishioners will always have a place in my prayers. A thankful heart enjoys blessings twice — when they are received and when they are remembered.

God bless you and the people of St. Stan's parish.

Fraternally,
Jerry Tokarz, OFM
Franklin, Wisconsin

My Dear Michael:

It was a fantastic experience. And you have made it all possible — even running yourself ragged for us. It was because you love the Lord and your brothers so much. May he bless and reward you a hundredfold.

I thank you from the bottom of my heart for all the goodness and kindness toward us. There is light and splendor coming out of the darkness. Your people are simply terrific!

Love,
Bronislaus Jaskulski, OFM
Cedar Lake, Indiana

POSŁUSZEŃSTWO W WIERZE

To wołanie Greków z dzisiejszej Ewangelii ciągle odbija się echem po dziś dzień; we współczesnym świecie, nie zawsze do końca uświadomione, rozlega się nawet mocniej niż niegdyś. Świat bowiem potrzebuje Jezusa, chyba bardziej niż kiedykolwiek przedtem. Co dziwne jednak współcześni zauważają, że świat potrzebuje nie tyle rozważań o Nim, ale świadectwa; nie słów lecz Ewangelii czynów i życia. Ciekawą rzecz zauważył już św. Bernard stwierdzając, że znacznie prędzej można pojąć i zobaczyć Chrystusa idąc Jego śladami, niż czytając o Nim uczone księgi.

Dzisiejsza liturgia słowa ukazuje jak ujrzeć Jezusa, na jakiej drodze Go spotkać, którędy iść, aby kroczyć Jego śladem. “Kto miłuje swoje życie, traci je, a kto nienawidzi swego życia, zachowuje je na życie wieczne” (J 12, 25) oraz “On nauczył się posłuszeństwa przez to, co wycierpiał” (Hbr 5,8).

Posłuszeństwo Ojcu - to wyrażenie streszcza całą postawę Jezusa. To słowo jest dziś niepopularne; zachowanie go sprawia wiele trudności. Dzieci nie słuchają rodziców, nauczyciele nie mają autorytetu, małżonkowie chcą wzajemnie licytować się w ważności (“nie będę służącym, niewolnicą, mnie się też coś od życia należy!”); nauka papieża i Kościoła jest lekceważona (“księża nie znają życia, muszą tak mówić, ale życie jest inne”). Przykłady można by mnożyć i rozszerzać na różne dziedziny życia. To jest jednak tylko ludzki sposób myślenia. “Kto miłuje swe życie, traci je” - mówi Chrystus. Konsekwencją pychy człowieka, uporu jest przegrana - “utrata życia”. Wszyscy doświadczamy skutków pychy, skutków grzechu pierwszych ludzi; kusiciel obiecywał tak wiele: “będziecie jak bogowie”, “będziecie mądrzy, niezależni, sami będziecie znać dobro i zło. Z jakim skutkiem? “Zobaczyli, że są nadzy”, są prochem, który wraca do ziemi. W imię swej autonomii człowiek jest nieposłuszny Bogu, odrzuca Jego prawo, czasami walczy z Nim. Nie ma innej drogi zbawienia jak posłuszeństwo Bogu, poddanie się Jego woli.

Przed nami Wielki Tydzień i wstrząsający obraz męki Jezusa. Jednak nie lubowanie się w krwawiących ranach, nie łyż współczucia stanowią istotę tych dni. Istota zawiera się w cytowanym już wyżej zdaniu: “Jezus nauczył się posłuszeństwa przez to, co wycierpiał”. Bóg nie jest krwawym despotą, nie potrzebuje krwi, ale żąda posłuszeństwa.

“Oto idę, aby pełnić wolę Twoją” (Hbr 10,9) - to dewiza przyjścia Jezusa na ziemię. Najdoskonalsze zgadzanie się z wolą Ojca to przyczyna i skutek zbawienia. Chrystus jest posłuszny aż do śmierci. “Traci” swe życie, nie stara się za wszelką cenę je zachować. Oddaje je w ręce Ojca, dlatego “zachowuje” je na wieki dla siebie i dla innych. Jest tym ziarnem pszenicznym, które umiera, by przynieść plon stokrotny.

Chrześcijanin to uczeń Jezusa, to ten, który kroczy Jego śladami. Uczeń Chrystusa jest posłuszny Bogu z miłości. Stare Przymierze wzywało do zachowania przykazań pod groźbą kary. Nowe przymierze wypisane jest w naszych sercach; chrześcijanin zachowuje je z pobudek wewnętrznych.

Kończy się Wielki Post, czas kiedy więcej uwagi poświęcamy naszej pobożności. Warto zapytać siebie teraz, przed nadejściem Wielkiego Tygodnia: czy, gdy patrzymy na Jezusa i rozważamy Jego mękę, nasza pobożność jest tylko uczuciowym współczuciem i pięknym wzruszeniem czy też próbą pójscia śladami Mistrza z Nazaretu.

ACCEPTING NOMINATIONS FOR THE PASTORAL COUNCIL

Positions in the Parish Pastoral Council (PPC) will be open this spring. Won't you please consider being a part of this leadership team or nominating someone you think would do a good job? The purpose of the PPC is to promote the spiritual growth of the parish community and to plan ways for the parish to carry out the mission of the church. The PPC also acts as a consultative body to the Pastor on matters concerning the life and pastoral ministry of the parish. You are eligible to run for this council if you are a registered member of the parish for at least 2 years, attend parish liturgies on Sundays and Holy Days of obligation, be at least 18 years of age, and are willing to participate in parish activities. The PPC requires approximately two meetings per month, but no meetings in the summer! There will be a PPC committee member at the back of the church at each of the Masses this weekend. Sign up today!

SPRING CLEANUP OF THE CHURCH GROUNDS

The Crocuses are blossoming, the days are getting longer; these are all signs that Spring is around the corner. Please help us spruce up and clean up our church grounds on Saturday, April 12, beginning at 9:30AM and continuing until it's done. Of course we don't want anyone to work hungry so there will be plenty of hot steaming hotdogs for everyone. Young and old, everyone has a good time. Check with John Sklodowski 641-7624

WIELKI TYDZIEŃ I WIELKANOC

Ani obejrzelismy się, a dobiega końca okres Wielkiego Postu. Przed nami już tylko Niedziela Palmowa, Wielki Tydzień i najradośniejsze Święta Wielkanocne. Przedtem jednak pozostajemy jeszcze w duchu pokutnym. Już tylko trzy spotkania modlitewne na Gorzkich Żalach (w Niedzielę Palmową ze względu na koncert nie będzie tej modlitwy). W najbliższy piątek rekolekcyjna Droga Krzyżowa oraz w Wielki Piątek o godz. 8:30 ze świecami na zewnątrz kościoła. Porządek nabożeństw Wielkiego Tygodnia mamy podany w innym miejscu biuletynu. Warto jednak przypomnieć i zaprosić na poświęcenie pokarmów w Wielką Sobotę - od godz. 10:00 do 2:00 po południu (co godzinę), a szczególnie na Rezurekcję w poranek wielkanocny o godz. 6:30 rano lub na Mszę św. o godz. 10:00 rano. Po tym już tylko radosne rodzinne świętowanie Zmartwychwstania Pańskiego przy uroczystym śniadaniu wielkanocnym.

Saint Stanislaus

"The Pastor has fallen in the midst of his Flock; the Bridegroom lies in the embrace of his Bride; Mother-Church weeps, but she weeps tears of joy for her Son; for he who had fallen under the sword is alive and victorious!" Thus read the words of the breviary prayer for the feast of St. Stanislaus, patron of Poland and patron of our parish. In America we celebrate his feast day on April 11, a day which quite frequently falls within the season of Lent. Thus, it seems no great wonder that the annual celebration of that feast day has more-or-less fallen through the cracks. If I'm not mistaken, at last year's "special" Mass commemorating the feast, we had about 7 people in the church including the priest and the organist.

This year, the Catholic Church is celebrating a very special anniversary, the 750th anniversary of the canonization of St. Stanislaus. It was in 1079 that Stanisław Szczepanowski, Bishop of Kraków, was slain at the hands of King Boleslaus the Bountiful while celebrating Mass in the church of St. Michael the Archangel, known as Skalka due to its location on a prominent outcropping of stone overlooking the Wisla.

Years afterward, September 8, 1253 to be exact, the city of Assisi was to witness the canonization of Stanislaus by Pope Innocent IV, interrupting his return to the Vatican from the Council of Lyons.

This year, the parishioners of St. Stanislaus Church will commemorate this great event by way of a series of special activities scheduled throughout this "Stanisлавian Year." Being that Lent does not seem to be the best time to incorporate joyous events within the church, our formal celebrations will coincide with the official Polish feast of St. Stanislaus, May 8. That day will provide us with an opportunity to exhibit our parish and Polish pride in a very important way as we gather to honor our patron saint.

Perhaps we could honor Stanislaus by reflecting on his life of faith which led to his ultimate honor – canonization. He was a pastor who would not retreat in the face of adversity and difficult choices. He was a martyr who inspired many subsequent generations to remain faithful to their baptismal promises. May our reflections on his actions deepen our faith and resolve for the betterment of our parish, our city, our country, our world.

David Krakowski

GIVE THANKS AND REMEMBER

During the time right after the tragedy of December 7, and all through the Christmas season, countless people expressed their compassion with generous forms of assistance to the Saint Stanislaus parish community. Since then, the generosity has continued with gifts given in memory of loved ones. We give thanks to God for these remembrances, which are so helpful in continuing our mission to the community of faith.
