WELCOME

St. Stanislaus is reaching out in service to our diverse neighborhood peoples. Please be generous in your support of the many good works of our Parish. St. Stanislaus depends upon the regular support of its membership and the generosity of those who visit here. Please look upon your financial gift or sacrifice as a way of giving praise to God along with the many from earlier generations who have worshiped and prayed here for 129 years.

Te Deum Laudamus

The liturgical year is quickly coming to its conclusion with the celebration of the feast of Christ the King next Sunday. We at St. Stanislaus are especially blessed to have on that same day our annual Eucharistic Day, a celebration of God the Father's gift of His Son, Jesus, in the form of the Blessed Sacrament, through which the Holy Spirit proceeds for our nourishment. The highpoint of this feast is the Vesper service and procession which will take place at 4:00PM, an event which we encourage all to attend. Our church easily accommodates 800 adults, so to leave enough room for the guests from other parishes, we ask you to decide amongst yourselves who may forgo a coveted pew seat.

This year the hymn to be sung during the procession will be an English/Polish translation of the ancient Latin paean, Te Deum Laudamus. I have spent some time working on the English adaptation/translation which I finally completed on All Souls Day at Paris' Notre Dame during my vacation. The original hymn was written not as a metered hymn, but in prose. Laudam Deo that someone in Poland decided to set that prose to meter and embellish it with a most wonderful, driving melody which will now grace the English version for our grand procession of praise, worship and thanksgiving.

Our liturgical year began last year on Saturday night, November 30, the beginning of Advent. That evening, at a special Beaujolais party, Fr. Willie gave me a wonderful birthday gift making me feel officially welcomed into the family of St. Stanislaus. One week later he was welcomed into a new life at the eternal banquet. That was the beginning of our year here at St. Stanislaus. And, through it all, after it all, in spite of it all, we still sing Te Deum Laudamus! Ciebie Boga wysławiamy, God Almighty we now praise You! We are forever blessed and forever loved. May our humble attempt to glorify God at the end of the liturgical year enrich our spirits, comfort our pain, and help us to grow in faith.

David Krakowski

“For by a single sacrifice (Christ) has perfected for all time those who are being sanctified.” Hebrews 10:14

As I listen to different people share their faith with me, I am both humbled by their willingness to open up to me and sometimes confused about what they actually believe.

For instance, I was speaking with a relative the other day who openly shared with me her belief in reincarnation. Without engaging her in an argument (resurrection, not reincarnation), I listened to her. She made a curious statement that I have heard from others before, namely, something about God sending us back after death so we can “get it right” because we cannot or do not “get it right” the first time.

One thing the Letter to the Hebrews is teaching us is the efficacy of the atoning death and resurrection of Jesus Christ. Hebrews portrays Jesus as the great High Priest; he is also the sacrificial victim. Unlike the repeatable sacrifices at the ancient Temple in Jerusalem, especially the annual Yom Kippur (Day of Atonement) sacrifice, Jesus’ sacrifice is the unrepeatable, perpetual and eternal sacrifice. This is the language we hear frequently during the Mass (e.g. Take this all of you and drink it, this is the cup of my blood, the blood of the new and everlasting covenant, which will be shed for you and for all . . .).

Jesus Christ died for us on the Cross and bore our sinfulness, our weaknesses, our illnesses and our death (cf. Isa. 53:4-6; 1 Pt. 3:18). His is the unrepeatable sacrifice which is re-presented for us at Mass — we celebrate liturgically the saving events of the passion, death and resurrection of the Lord Jesus (remember: unrepeatable). Having been baptized into the death of Jesus Christ (Rom. 6:3-11), we consume the fruit of that sacrifice, namely, the Body and Blood of the Risen Lord. (Baptism leads us to Eucharist).

And so, we might ask, who are those who are perfected and who are being sanctified? We who are baptized are those who are being perfected and sanctified. Hebrews looks at this as a given — by baptism we belong to the Lord, hence, we are consecrated. God’s grace perfects us, as we open to God’s grace by fulfilling his Word. Christian life is not a matter of perfunctory words and actions; rather it is a matter of integrity — what I profess with my mouth must be followed by God’s righteousness (not mine!) manifest in my life. This means obedience to the Word of God. How? Through a life of holiness as demonstrated in good works. We are consecrated to God; we are being perfected by God’s grace through our daily circumstances; therefore, we offer thanks to God daily through holy lives in action.

Our good works are understood in the Scriptures to be our response, through God’s grace, to what God has already done for us in the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ. We do NOT save ourselves! God saves us; hence, the notion above of “getting it right” the next time around is erroneous because it is not we who save ourselves. We cannot. Jesus’ single sacrifice (unrepeatable) saves us. Because of the gift of the Holy Spirit given to us in Baptism and with whom we are sealed in Confirmation, we now live in the power of Jesus’ death and resurrection.

Because of what God has done, not because of what we have done. We put our faith in God, and so by God’s grace, as we submit to God, we are transformed into God’s very holiness. This is eternal life; this is salvation. My good works, then, are my response to God’s mercy, because God is the one who gives me the wherewithal to even do good works. Everything depends upon God! What I do is to respond: Yes, Lord! Amen! Thank you, Lord! With my life!

Peace, Fr. Joachim Studwell, OFM

EUCHARYSTIA- NOWY RYT?

Od razu spieszę z odpowiedzią, że nie! Nie ma żadnej zmiany zasadniczych przepisów liturgiczno-prawnych dotyczących sprawowania Mszy św. Ktoś zapyta: po co w takim razie dokument watykański noszący tytuł: Instrukcja Generalna o sposobie sprawowania Mszy św?

Odpowiedź: dla ujednolicenia sposobu sprawowania sakramentu Eucharystii. Potrzeba owa wynikała stąd, iż w świecie katolickim powstały nieco odmienne sposoby celebracji, uczestnictwa i przeżywania tego Sakramentu. Te różnice jednak nigdy nie dotyczyły najważniejszych części Mszy św., które przecież musza być jednakowe dla całego Kościoła Powszechnego.

Różnice o których mowa, każdy z nas, Polaków przybyłych do Stanów Zjednoczonych, zauważał od razu wraz z pierwszym uczestnictwem we Mszy św. “amerykańskiej”. Do takich różnic należą na przykład: sposób udzielania i przyjmowania Komunii Św., czas klękania, powstawania czy siadania podczas Mszy św., gesty rąk przy modlitwie Ojcze nasz lub znak pokoju.

Nowe przepisy, które zaczną obowiązywać od 1 Niedzieli Adwentu czyli już od 30 listopada tego roku, zasadniczo nie wprowadzają żadnych rewolucyjnych zmian, jak również nie są one na tyle obligatoryjne, że jeśli nie zastosujemy się do nich, to: ktoś wyprosi nas z kościoła, albo nie dopuści do przyjęcia Komunii św. Nic z tych rzeczy. Warto jednak wiedzieć, co jest zalecane w Kościele Powszechnym, tym bardziej, że niektóre przepisy, w rzeczywistości wprowadzają jako obowiązujące dla całego Kościoła, zachowania znane i praktykowane w Polsce.

Obecna Instrukcja wydana została przez Stolicę Apostolską lecz prawo do własnej interpretacji niektórych przepisów ma każdy Episkopat w swym kraju.

Nowe przepisy powinny nam bardziej uzmysłwić, że sakramenty są z ustanowienia Chrystusa. Zaś nasze uczestniczenie w ich rozdzielaniu i przyjmowanie ich czyni nas wspólnotą, jednoczy ze Zbawicielem i wzajemnie ze sobą.

Myśląc o nowych przepisach liturgicznych, nie powinniśmy skupiać się wyłącznie na sposobie uczestniczenia w rytach sakramentalnych, ale nasze myślenie powinno dążyć do uświadomienia sobie wagi tych sakramentów w naszym życiu. Tak więc o wiele ważniejsze jest zwrócenie uwagi na to co przyjmujemy od tego, w jaki sposób to czynimy. Najlepiej, oczywiście, jeśli obydwie płaszczyzny będą właściwie respektowane.

Msza św. jest szczególnym sakramentem, jest największym darem jaki dał nam Bóg do dzielenia się nim; tym darem jest przecież sam Chrystus. Msza św. jest środkiem, przez który Bóg uświęca świat i każdego z nas. Na ile to uświęcenie dokonuje się podczas każdej Eucharystii zależy tylko od nas; pomoc temu uświęceniu mogą nasze zachowania i gesty podczas Mszy św., nigdy jednak one same, pozbawione treści nie są w stanie uświęcić kogokolwiek.

Tak się pięknie składa, iż w naszej parafii za tydzień, w ostatnią niedzielę roku kościelnego będziemy celebrowali Nabożeństwo Eucharystyczne czyli będzie to czas specjalnej adoracji Chrystusa w Najświętszym Sakramencie. To bardzo dobra okazja do rozważań nad Eucharystią.

W refleksji za tydzień będzie omówienie konkretnych zmian w postawach i zachowaniach podczas Mszy św.

ks. Jerzy

CATHOLIC CAMPAIGN FOR HUMAN DEVELOPMENT

For more than thirty years, the CCHD has funded some 4,000 programs across the United States. These efforts know no racial or religious boundaries. They all help people find a way out of poverty for a lifetime.

The CCHD is very active in our diocese, funding a number of programs including Slavic Village Development, providing help to revitalize the housing stock and business infrastructure of the Broadway Community. Local residents receive leadership training and participate integrally in the leadership of the organization and the revitalization of their neighborhood. This year, as in previous years, the goal is to give low-income people a hand up—not a hand out! Please give generously next weekend.

NEW PARISHIONERS ARE WELCOMED

St. Stanislaus Parish, represented by the the Evangelization Commission and the Pastoral Council welcomed new parishioners on Wednesday evening November 5. Those who came expressed their feelings and shared their thoughts on what brought them to our parish. Thank you Matt Zelinski and the rest of your commission for organizing this event.

Mr. Samuel DePalma a world renowned baritone, sang at all our Masses last weekend. Mr. DePalma graciously offered to sing for us upon visiting our church while making arrangements for an upcoming performance with The Opera Circle. Thank you very much, Mr. DePalma and we look forward to hearing you again.

OUR GIFT TO HIS HOLINESS

The celebrations centering around Pope John Paul II's 25th anniversary have officially come to an end.

However, we at St. Stanislaus aren't quite finished yet. Next week His Holiness will be presented with one last gift - from us! Our gift package includes the following: A letter from our parish offering our congratulations, a CD of the concert given in his honor on October 19 (the one with the twelve languages), one of our "We Should Glory" CDs, copies of programs celebrating the jubilee (the Polish Mass and the Art Exhibit), two photographs (by Don Pieniak) of our church, a copy of the music for "Don't Be Afraid" (by David Krakowski) and $2,000.00 which was collected as a gift for the pope at the Polish Mass of October 16 and the Concert on the 19th. Quite respectable, wouldn't you say?

ANNUAL EUCHARISTIC DAY

Parishioners are encouraged to set aside at least one half hour a family of prayer before the Blessed Sacrament in the course of the afternoon.
