WELCOME

St. Stanislaus is reaching out in service to our diverse neighborhood peoples. Please be generous in your support of the many good works of our Parish. St. Stanislaus depends upon the regular support of its membership and the generosity of those who visit here. Please look upon your financial gift or sacrifice as a way of giving praise to God along with the many from earlier generations who have worshiped and prayed here for 130 years.

The Lord will give light to the eyes of all who serve Him!

The liturgical calendar provides us with a number of milestone feasts which help us adjust to our own life calendars. Gaudete and Laetare Sundays are two such feasts, both letting us know that we have arrived at the mid-point of the seasons of Advent and Lent, respectively. This past week we celebrated another feast that, to a degree, fits this same category, the Feast of the Presentation. This feast finds us at the point of mid-winter!!! With the excessive snow and cold we've had this season, to know, really, that the season is at least half behind us, is at least some consolation.

You can already notice the days getting a little longer, light greeting you earlier each morning and saying 'good bye' later each evening. When Simeon saw Jesus in the temple on the day of His Presentation he saw a great light, the 'light for the revelation to the Gentiles' (Luke2:32). He and the prophetess Anna both shared in this wonderful experience, a kind of freedom which they waited for all their lives, the freedom which this new Light would give to them.

Every time you walk into this church you see 'light' in the form of candlelight. The sanctuary light (in our St. Stanislaus tradition, sanctuary lights), votive lights scattered throughout at the various shrines, and, occasionally, the light of the paschal candle. About this times each year it has shrunk down to the point where we must remove some of the decorative and ritual wax applications to allow it to burn evenly. This is due to the 100 or so funerals we have at St. Stanislaus each year coupled with the less frequent baptisms and occasional prayer services which incorporate that most important symbol of Christ. On the Feast of the Presentation we ordered a new candle to lead us through the upcoming year. The light from that candle will again be 'created' on Holy Saturday at sundown. That light representing Jesus will be the light for the eyes of all who will serve Him. Now, half way through winter, the promise of that light will carry us through to Easter.

HAPP'NIN' IN DA 'HOOD

OK, so I'm not as hip as I think I am. Besides, middle aged guys shouldn't try to sound hip-hop, even if they did grow up in the city. But there sure is plenty happening in our neighborhood, plenty of great stuff to be proud of!

Since the beginning of this parish over 130 years ago, the relationship between the church and the neighborhood around it has been very close indeed. When one flourishes, the other does. And when one struggles, so does the other. We can see many examples of urban parish communities that neglected or abandoned their neighborhoods, and most of these churches are either closed or have become home other religious denominations. Keeping a neighborhood intact is not easy, but it can be done. And we are living proof of that!

One of the ideas about urban revitalization is that a neighborhood has to "bottom out" before it can rebound. This means that its property has to become practically worthless before someone will come and improve it. But the people of Slavic Village, especially those around Saint Stanislaus, have proven themselves remarkable resilient. Or, may the word "stubborn" is more like it! But we have not let our neighborhood go to ruin, nor will we.

Instead, many of us have committed ourselves to the future of our community by staying put and keeping our hopes alive. This is not a bad neighborhood with just a few good spots — it is a good, solid neighborhood with a few blights. They are easy to spot, and not impossible to eradicate. Political and business leaders around the city and county are beginning to discover just how strong this neighborhood really is, and they are amazed at how well we all work together in spite of our differences.

Keeping a neighborhood intact is not easy, but it can be done. And we are living proof of that!

Sometimes it takes an outsider to recognize the good we have all around us. I am an outsider myself, having lived in many cities before returning to Slavic Village over four years ago. Seeing the neighborhood then and now, I can point to so many ways in which it is a better place to live. A large part of this is due to the efforts by the Pulaski Franciscan Community Development Corporation, the not-for-profit organization established by parishioners and neighbors to be active in bringing new life to our community. It could not have begun without the generous patronage of benefactors who committed resources to get us started. The excellent work done by Marilyn Mosinski, a life-long parishioner and Executive Director of the PFCDC, keeps this legacy growing stronger and more vibrant month after month.

If you get a chance, stop on by and see her in her office in the Revere Travel Building across from the rectory. Catch on to the enthusiasm over the many new developments taking place in our neighborhood. Consider attending the PFCDC fund-raising event later this month. And keep your eye on 65th Street!

TAJEMNICA POWOŁANIA

Kiedy zamyślamy się nad znaczeniem słowa "powołanie", najczęściej niesłusznie zawężamy jego pojęcie tylko do życia zakonnego lub kapłańskiego.

Powołanie to szczególny dar, wyjątkowa charyzma, którą obdarza Bóg każdego, bez wyjątku, człowieka. Czy każdy z nas chce włożyć wystarczająco wysiłku, by odkryć ten dar i swoją szczególną misję, to już inna kwestia.

Nie ulega jednak wątpliwości, że największe emocje budzi wśród nas odkrywanie Bożego głosu wzywającego do życia konsekrowanego. Dlatego dzisiaj naszą uwagę skupmy na tego rodzaju powołaniu, tym bardziej, że sam Mistrz w dzisiejszej Ewangelii wyróżnia tę drogę.

Drogi Bożego powołania są przeróżne. Na pewno zupełnie inaczej wyznacza świat kandydatów na swoje stanowiska, a inaczej Bóg. Świat to: reklamy, współzawodnictwo, konkursy, kampanie wyborcze, pieniądze. Tu liczy się to, co jest chwytliwe, kandydat musi zaimponować...

U Boga definitywnie odpadają ludzkie kategorie myślenia. Klasykzną sytuację dla tej tezy znajdujemy w dzisiejszej Ewangelii. Przecież Chrystus mógł wybrać na swoich uczniów nie prostych rybaków, ale uczonych w Piśmie, mędrców, filozofów. Oni mieli autorytet. Za nimi poszłyby tłumy. Tacy apostołowie nie mieliby problemu z dotarciem nawet na krańce świata.

A jednak wybrał prostych rybaków. Może tylko niektórzy z nich umieli czytać i pisać. Co najdziwniejsze, jeśli zajrzemy na zarówno na karty Starego Testamentu, jak i do historii Kościoła, zauważymy, że nie ma jakiegś uniwersalnej drogi wyboru, nie ma żadnego gotowego schematu. Inaczej przecież Bóg powoływał kiedyś proroka Izajasza, inaczej Jonasza, inaczej Piotra czy Pawła, a zupełnie inaczej Augustyna, Franciszka z Asyżu, Ignacego Loyolę, inaczej Maksymiliana Kolbe, a jeszcze inaczej Faustynę czy Matkę Teresę.

W tym miejscu nie wolno także zapomnieć, że różni ludzie w różny sposób odpowiadali na głos powołania, nie zawsze z aprobatą. Jedni poszli zaraz, inni odrzucali zaproszenie.

Warto przotczyć jeden, bardzo ciekawy przykład. Kilka lat przed Rewolucją Francuską pewien młodzieniec stanął przed klasztorną furką OO. Kapucynów z prośbą o przyjęcie do zakonu. Przełożony skierował go z listem polecającym do prowincjała. Jednak rodzina i koledzy włożyli maksimum wysiłku, by ów młodzieniec odstąpił od swego zamiaru. Targany wewnętrzną walką uległ namowom, porzucił mury zakonne i udał się do Paryża, by studiować prawo. Został adwokatem i zasłynął później jako ...sławny i krwiożerczy Maksymilian Robespierre. Nie jest też tajemnicą, że o stanie duchownym myślał i Feliks Dzierżyński i Józef Stalin...

Każde ludzkie powołanie jest wielką tajemnicą, ale szczególne misterium stanowi powołanie do służby Bożej. Jego realizacja bowiem, niesie ze sobą więcej wyrzeczeń, stanowczych deklaracji, jak też bardzo odważnych i radykalnych decyzji. Trzeba nam także zauważyć, że powołanie nie jest do końca tylko osobistą sprawą kandydata. Mimo wszystko dokonuje się ono na łonie rodziny, w grupie dorastania. Nie bez znaczenia jest więc postawa otoczenia. Modlitwa w intencji dobrego powołania nigdy nie pozostaje bez echa u Boga. Droga zaś, od "usłyszenia głosu" do realizacji, jest bardzo daleka; jednak zawsze otwarta.
