If you haven't donated as of yet, please consider how important your gift is to this parish and pray over how you can participate.

Sacred Silence

It's not a new concept. Ever since human beings worshiped, it has been a part of the ritual action, the deliberate absence of deliberate sound allowing the mind to advance a spiritual dialogue with what was believed to be the Supreme Being. From the moment of humanity's insight of the great mystery which formed and sustained their universe, awe and respect produced ritual response to that phenomenon.

That ritual, that formal format of worship which acknowledged that which was, is and always will be greater than anything we can imagine involved sacred silence, a period of human time dedicated to a personal communication with the divine.

Each of us has experienced that phenomenon. Each of us has prayed privately, spoken to God, communicated with the Creator and the Lover of all. Those who grew up experiencing the Tridentine liturgy are especially acquainted with the activity of prolonged silence and prayer, even meditation and contemplation, during worship services and certain spiritual exercises of earlier times. With the introduction of the vernacular into the Mass in the middle of the last century the Council Fathers once again reiterated the importance of observing 'a reverent silence' (Cf. Sacrosanctum Concilium).

The most recent document of instruction, the General Instruction of the Roman Missal, once more has declared the same: "Sacred silence also, as part of the celebration, is to be observed at the designated times. Its purpose, however, depends on the time it occurs in each part of the celebration. Thus within the Act of Penitence and again after the invitation to pray, all recollect themselves; but at the conclusion of a reading or the homily, all meditate briefly on what they have heard; then after Communion, they pray to God in their hearts."

The 'seconds' we dedicate to sacred silence become our sharing in the timelessness of the divinity we behold, the mystery we own.

THANK YOU FOR YOUR GENEROSITY

"If Christ has not been raised, your faith is futile and you are still in your sins. Then those also who have died in Christ have perished." 1 Corinthians 15:17-18

During our Sunday Mass we profess in the Nicene Creed, We believe . . . On the third day (Jesus Christ) rose again in fulfillment of the Scriptures. And further on, We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

At every Mass, during the Eucharistic Prayer after the Institution Narrative (consecration) the priest declares, Let us proclaim the mystery of faith. And the congregation responds with one of the following acclamations, all professing faith in the resurrection of the Lord Jesus Christ: Christ has died, Christ is risen, Christ will come again. Or: Dying you destroyed our death; rising you restored our life; Lord Jesus, come in glory. Or, again: Lord, by your cross and resurrection, you have set us free; you are the Savior of the world.

I would like to share something rather personal in today's Scripture reflection. Today marks the fourth anniversary of my Mom's death. Loretta Clare Campbell Studwell died what I consider a holy death. She was surrounded by people who loved her and by those whom she loved. She was surrounded by prayer, surrounded by love. My Mom suffered from a liver disease, and the final stage was pretty hard. The last week she requested Tylenol, and for Mom to request any medication meant she was in pain! Later during the week she required a morphine derivative, and within just a few days she was on full-strength morphine because of the pain her disease caused her.

The week preceding her death was difficult. She had a beautiful opportunity to say "Good-bye" to several relatives and friends. We prayed with her and anointed her — lovingly, tenderly and sadly.

About 4:00 a.m. or so on Monday, 14 February 2000, Mom's breathing significantly changed and she went into a coma. She would remain in a coma until she expired the following day, about 11:00 a.m. I stayed with her and the night before she died was a very holy time for me. I prayed Scripture and the Rosary. I prayed the Apostles' Creed. I commended her to the Lord and asked her to greet Dad and the twins she lost through miscarriage. I asked her to pray for me when she would meet the Lord and I asked her to greet the Lord and all those in heaven for me. As I gazed on her I sensed the presence of angels with us waiting to gather my Mom to the Lord.

I have a good friend, a spiritual friend, in Pittsburgh whose name is Susan. About 11:00 p.m. on Monday I thought I would like to call Susan up and invite her to accompany me. But she had to work the following day and I didn't want to disturb her. About 3:00 a.m. I received a phone call — it was from Susan! She told me she had awakened and my Mom and I were on her mind; would I like her to accompany me? Sure! She came over, and upon entering Mom's room at the nursing home said, "I sense the presence of angels here!"

We prayed together, including the Litany of the Saints. Later that morning a nurse coming on the next shift stopped by and mentioned she sensed the presence of angels in the room — what a confirmation!

When Mom passed away I was out of the room, but her brother and some cousins were present. I grieved her death bitterly; I would miss her (and still do!). And yet my grief is not in vain, because I believe in Jesus' resurrection and that Mom — and Dad — will fully participate in it. Trusting in the Lord's mercy, I hope I will too! "Yes, Jesus, I believe that you died and rose again! Thank you, Jesus."

UFNOŚĆ W BOGU

Przeklęty mąż, który pokłada nadzieję w człowieku i który w ciele upatruje swą siłę, a od Pana odwraca swe serce. /.../ Błogosławiony mąż, który pokłada ufność w Panu i Pan jest jego nadzieją. ... (Jr 17,5-7).

Zawsze mój największy zachwyt i ogromny szacunek budziły w Piśmie Świętym księgi mądrościowe. Ileż głębi, ileż tajemniczej treści, jakież nieprzebyte pokłady otwartych lub zawałowanych rad życiowych. To jakby dostojny starzec, przeżywszy aktywnie swoje lata udzielał dość skąpych, ale treściwych wskazówek.

Dzisiejsze czytania są dobrym przykładem mądrych i nietrudnych do odczytania rad. Prorok Jeremiasz i psalmista głoszą pochwałę człowieka mądrego, który zaufał Bogu. Człowiek mądry w Prawie Pańskim upodobał sobie i rozmyśla nad nim dniem i nocą (Ps 1,2). Podobny jest on do drzewa zasadzonego nad strumieniem wody. Liście jego nie więdną od posuchy i zawsze przynosi owoc.

Przeciwieństwem człowieka mądrego jest ktoś nierozsądny i lekkomyślny, który nie bierze pod uwagę Prawa Bożego lecz kieruje się jedynie wygodą, doraźną korzyścią lub przyjemnością. Często najważniejszą sprawą dłań jest wzgląd ludzki: Za wszelką cenę nie narazić się ludzkiej opinii, nie przekreślić dróg kariery, nie odbiegać od przeciętności.

Człowiek nierozsądny i lekkomyślny nie zadaje sobie trudu, aby zastanowić się, czego Bóg naprawdę pragnie ode niego w danej sprawie. Na wszelki wypadek jeszcze próbuje usprawiedliwiać swoje sumienie, tłumacząc sobie, że Kościół jest zacofany, że tego czy innego przykazania już nie się zachować, tym bardziej, że "wszyscy tak robią".

Z tych właśnie powodów człowiek mądry może chwiać się w dochowaniu ufności Bogu. Komu ostatecznie zawierzyć? Bogu czy ludziom, to odwieczny dylemat człowieka.

Aby oprzeć się niejednej pokusie wygodnictwa i odrzucenia prawdziwej mądrości, trzeba spojrzeć na koniec życia. Człowiek ufający Bogu, to taki, który nigdy nie przegrywa, choć "po drodze" może wydawać się inaczej. Patrząc z ostatecznej perspektywy, w życiu człowieka mądrego wszystko, co czyni, jest udane (Ps 1,4).

Mądrość najczęściej kojarzona jest z wiekiem, życiowym doświadczeniem. Nie od rzeczy będzie więc przytoczyć w tym miejscu piękny utwór polskiej poetki Kazimiery Iłakowiczówny, który można uznać za specyficzną parafrazę Chrystusowych błogosławieństw z dzisiejszej Ewangelii:

Błogosławieństwo siwym ojców włosom ślemy, obozem zalegli po bitwie!

Błogosławieństwo - pól ojcowych kłosom,

błogosławieństwo - matczynej modlitwie,

To piękna pochwała wymagających rodziców, a taka postawa jest szczególnie ważna w czasie dyskredytowania wszelkich autorytetów, z rodzicielskimi na czele.

Jeszcze słowo Jana Pawła II, wypowiedziane trzynaście lat temu we Włocławku: "Młody człowiek pragnie odnaleźć siebie samego, dlatego szuka, czasem burzliwie, prawdziwych wartości i ceni tych ludzi, którzy ich uczą i według nich żyją".
