WELCOME

St. Stanislaus is reaching out in service to our diverse neighborhood peoples. Please be generous in your support of the many good works of our Parish. St. Stanislaus depends upon the regular support of its membership and the generosity of those who visit here. Please look upon your financial gift or sacrifice as a way of giving praise to God along with the many from earlier generations who have worshiped and prayed here for 130 years.

Introibo ad altar Dei

I will go to the altar of God, to the God of my youth. (Ps.43:4)

These very words have been sung through the ages by psalmists and recited by altar boys during the ‘prayers at the foot of the altar’ (Tridentine Liturgy). Now this same psalm will be uttered by all pilgrims entering the Shrine Church of St. Stanislaus as they begin their spiritual journey to God with Jesus, Mary, and our very own patron.

The God of my youth was with Stanislaus as he nurtured the faith of the recently baptized Polish kingdom as well as when he was martyred at the direction of King Boleslaus the Bountiful in 1079. The God of my youth with the multitude of immigrants who came to this country and established churches under the patronage of St. Stanislaus, Bishop and Martyr. The God of my youth was there in 1873 when this very family of worship was organized under his patronage. And now, the God of my youth is here on the next most important day in the history of our parish, the designation of it as the Shrine Church of St. Stanislaus, Bishop and Martyr.

The God of my youth was there too when Margie, Clara and Zosia decided to become His brides. These three are but a sample of the many who dedicated their lives to His service as Sisters of the Holy Family of Nazareth. This weekend the God of my youth must be beaming with pride as His brides are honored with the parish’s ‘Four Eagle Award.’ We especially ask Him to bless Sr. Kathleen, Sr. Marietta and Sr. Jane Frances as they work in His vineyard on Forman or wherever their hands and hearts will be needed. These brides have nurtured the faith of so many of our children! Now we honor them for their dedication to the ideals of our ancestors – the same as those of Stanislaus. May all pilgrims coming to this shrine be inspired by their example as they are by that of St. Stanislaus.

THANK YOU

WORTHY OF PILGRIMAGE

“Father, is this a big deal or something?” So asked one of our grade school students this past week as the class talked about the wonderful celebrations designating our beautiful church as an official shrine. Like so many of our parishioners, our young people share in the pride and excitement of this wonderful weekend — and at the same time they are curious about what this means for them and for the larger community.

David Krakowski, our parish Director of Liturgy and Music, has been diligent in writing in the bulletin about the various meanings of a shrine. Watching David work so tirelessly these past weeks, along with the choirs and other liturgical ministers, has been a blessing and a challenge to the energy levels of all of us! David loves everything he does, and he pours every ounce of his tremendous energy and creativity into his work for our parish community. In a sense, David is a kind of pilgrim guide for the rest of us.

Having been a pilgrim guide myself, leading others in holy journeys through Europe and the Holy Land, I know that the pilgrim guide has a tricky job. On the one hand, he needs to make sure that the pilgrims are well cared for, that all of the arrangements are made so seamlessly that the pilgrims hardly notice how smoothly things are going. At the same time, the guide has to make sure that the pilgrims are challenged by the spiritual rigors of the journey itself. A pilgrimage is not just tourism — it is a metaphor for the journey of the soul as it comes closer to the God who brought it into being, and sustains it in love. When people come here, their first impression is of the beauty and awe of the place. They are struck with the seeming perfection and balance of everything in its place. The liturgies themselves, so powerfully moving, seem to happen so effortlessly and naturally that one is seldom aware of how much work lay in the background and preparation. This is at it should be. One should not think about the place, one should be drawn into the space and allow it to work its effects.

A pilgrimage is not just tourism — it is a metaphor for the journey of the soul as it comes closer to the God who brought it into being, and sustains it in love.

And what challenging effects! Just as pilgrims to the holy places around the world have to set aside their usual expectations and be open to the Spirit, so too do visitors to our special sanctuary. But every encounter with God, while beginning in comfort and solace, must also be a bit unnerving. It has to get us off center, put us out of the ordinary, so that we can see what truly matters. A pilgrim knows this by choosing to be on a journey that is strenuous, one that promises something mysterious and perhaps even life-changing.

Many thousands of people have come to our beautiful church since its restoration almost six years ago, but most have come as visitors or tourists. Even still, dozens of busses come every year! Now they will have an added dimension to their visit. They will enter a sacred space designated by the larger Church as a place “worthy of pilgrimage.” Fr. Michael

PRZYKAZANIE NOWE

I rzekł Zasiadający na tronie: “oto czynię wszystko nowe”.

Słowa te, to zapowiedź czegoś, co Apostoł Jan w swoim widzeniu już oglądał: I ujrzałem niebo nowe i ziemię nową. Gdy czytamy te słowa, przychodzi na myśl pierwsza strona Biblii, hymn o Bogu-Stworzycielu. Jak refren powtarza się tam: I widział Bóg, że to było dobre, by za szóstym razem wzmocnić tę treść: Było bardzo dobre. Obserwując rzeczywistość miewamy wątpliwości, czy stworzony przez Boga świat jest aż tak dobry, skoro jest na nim tyle zła fizycznego i moralnego. Wtedy właśnie rodzi się pragnienie czegoś nowego, innego, doskonałego. Czekamy, by Stwórca powiedział i wykonał: Oto czynię wszystko nowe. Jest to odwieczne pragnienie ludzi wszystkich czasów. Jednak wielu nie tylko biernie oczekuje, ale stara się uczynić wszystko, by zbudować świat lepszy, bezpieczniejszy, piękniejszy, a życie uczynić łatwiejszym, opanować choroby, złagodzić starość, a śmierć uczynić bezbolesną. Zbiorowym trudem ludzie dokonali wiele. Przeszliśmy się bać wielu chorób, potrafimy przewidzieć burze i huragany, panować nad piorunami. Nie dzieli nas przestrzeń - mamy samochody, samoloty, telefony i komputery. Prawie wszystko staje się możliwe. Może więc ogarnąć nas myśl, że jesteśmy coraz bliżej zbudowania, jeśli nie nowego nieba, to przynajmniej nowej ziemi. Może więc to człowiek, a nie Bóg będzie twórcą wszystkiego nowego?

Jednak patrząc krytycznie na dokonania człowieka uświadamiamy sobie, iż w parze z osiągnięciami idą poważne straty; postęp cywilizacyjny przynosi nowe zagrożenia. Dla przykładu: leki zwyciężające chorobę zmniejszają równocześnie naturalną odporność organizmu; samochody pomagają wygodniej żyć, ale zatrują środowisko. Bywa, że nowoczesne techniki stają się środkami uśmiercania (energia atomu czy porażające możliwości współczesnej chemii). Mimo globalnego bogacenia się ludzkości, nasilają się kontrasty społeczne, wielu ludzi cierpi. Nasila się społeczna izolacja - wielkim problemem staje się samotność wśród tłumu.

Czyż więc Boże zapowiedzi o nowej ziemi i nowym niebie są fałszywe i zwodnicze? Nie! Bóg na pewno nas nie zwodzi. Lecz On obiecując także nakazuje. Droga do nowej ziemi i nowego nieba prowadzi przez nowe przykazanie: abyście się wzajemnie miłowali tak, jak Ja was umiłowalem. Nie może być mowy o nowej ziemi i nowym niebie, jeżeli zasady życia pozostaną stare, jeżeli będziemy rozmywać granice moralnych wymagań, a zło przestaniemy nazywać grzechem.

Póki nie zaczniemy jako ludzkość, jako społeczeństwo, jako sąsiedzi, jako rodziny, jako osoby starać się postępować wedle przykazania nowego, póty nie zaznamy spokoju, a wszelkie cywilizacyjne udogodnienia raczej będą obracały się przeciwko nam. Dopóty świat będzie mało humanitarny, dopóki nie przyjmujemy za podstawową normę we wszystkich ludzkich odniesieniach Jezusa z Jego Ewangelią i nowym przykazaniem.

Przykładów do naśladowania możemy znaleźć wiele, ale najlepszym są święci, spośród których niezmiennym blaskiem świeci niemal od tysiąca lat nasz patron św. Stanisław - biskup i męczennik za sprawiedliwość i wiarę.

Św. Stanisławie, wstawiaj się za nami u Boga i opiekuj się nami!

ks. Jerzy

MAY CROWNING

Last Sunday St. Stanislaus Church celebrated the traditional May devotion honoring Our Blessed Mother. Crowning our Lady were Janice Gasper and Ashley Riggs, who were newly baptized at the Confirmation Mass on April 23.

ST. STANISLAUS POLISH FESTIVAL NEWS! Only 37 days until the cooking crew starts up the ovens and gets cooking for the festival. The following is the cooking schedule for the summer months. We would love to have you come down and pinch some pierogis with the group. Cooking Dates are as follows:

June 11th, June 17th & 18th, July 9th. Start time each day is 10:00am. So schedule a day off and find out the secret ingredients that go into our homemade pierogis.

Don't forget the Polish Festival dates are October 1st, 2nd and 3rd. If you have any questions about the festival please don't hesitate to contact our co-chairpersons Joe Calamante at 216-271-0832 or Marilyn Mosinski at 216-641-9932.

2005 MASS BOOK OPEN MAY 13

Those who wish to reserve Masses for wedding anniversaries and anniversaries of deaths in 2005 can do so starting Thursday, May 13. Mass intentions for 2005 will be accepted in person at the rectory, from 9:30 AM until 4:30 PM. Because of the time necessary to produce our weekly bulletin which must be completed by Wednesday every week, we ask that you come to the office with your Mass intentions on Thursday and Fridays only. You may also mail your Mass intentions or drop them into the collection basket along with the customary stipend and your requested dates. Please do not phone as we cannot accept phone reservations. We will make every effort to reserve the dates you choose, but if your requested date is not available, we will accommodate your request with the closest date possible. The amount of dated Masses may be limited per person, so that others may have an opportunity to reserve dates also. If you have many Mass intentions, we can list them as "undated Mass intentions" to be offered by visiting priests during concelebrated Masses!

RCIA REUNION PICNIC

On May 10th at 6:30pm, the RCIA team will be hosting the annual reunion Mass and picnic for all past participants, team and teachers of the RCIA program. The Mass and picnic will be held in the convectory chapel and picnic, weather permitting, will be in the convectory yard. We hope you can all join us. Chicken, pizza and refreshments will be provided, please bring a side dish or dessert to share. If you have any questions, or to confirm that you and your family will be attending, please contact Diane Bulanda at 440-439-7323 or the rectory at 216-341-9091.

GIVE YOUR CHILD A GIFT THAT WILL LAST FOREVER

A good education is necessary to succeed in today's competitive world.

Elementary school is where children develop the discipline and learning skills that will serve them throughout the rest of their lives. It is for that reason the staff and teachers of St. Stanislaus School dedicate themselves to provide your child the best education possible.

St. Stanislaus Elementary School is now accepting registrations for the 2004-2005 school year for those students that will be coming back to our school for the next term and new students grades K-5. We have an excellent school providing an opportunity for Christian formation and basic education. You must register to guarantee a place for your child. If your child is not presently in our school and is entering above the first grade, you must have an interview with our principal and bring a copy of the latest report card before you can register. Please call the school, 883-3307, or the rectory office, 341-9091, if you have any questions regarding registration and tuition costs.

PARISH PASTORAL COUNCIL COMMISSION REPORTS
TUESDAY, APRIL 20, 2004

Community Life. The Education Commission will sponsor the donut Sunday in April.

Education Commission. The Good Shepherd program for preschool religion is ready to begin; Fr. Michael is considering a site for the program. A brainstorming session took place for the Respect Life Program in October; many topics are on the table for consideration.

Evangelization. Sample welcome packets have been sent out to a committee for feedback. Fr. Michael pointed out a form had been created at one time to coordinate with our database; this form might be useful in finalizing the welcome packet. The bereavement program will be held on a monthly basis the last Wednesday of each month.

Finance. Fr. Michael reported the PFC will establish two committees--a development committee which would oversee a systematic approach for fund raising in the parish and a maintenance and property committee which would oversee the entire campus. Budgeting for the next fiscal year is in progress. Next year will be the last year the parish can maintain current services without an increase in revenue; the next PPC will need to address possible cuts.

Parish Organizations. The Dads' Club Night at the Races is April 24; tickets are available from members for this event. The Golden Agers had their regular meeting. The PTU met the same night as PPC due to spring break.

Worship. The commission discussed Holy Week activities. Planning for the shrine mass on May 8 continues.

Report from the Pastor. Regarding the rectory, the plumbing and electrical work is ready for inspection. Plastering is next; 30 days will be needed to cure any plasterwork. Wood for the stairs is cut and ready for a coat of varnish. We are half way to our fund-raising goal. PPC members visited the rectory site after the regular meeting. Elementary school registration is beginning; the goal is to double the kindergarten numbers for next year. The school received a grant to upgrade the bathrooms on the second floor. A Notre Dame sister is working on a volunteer basis in the library for several months sorting and updating books. The parish is waiting for the Bishop to approve the statutes for the shrine; the next step is to establish a new commission to oversee the shrine. Maintenance work orders have been created for anyone needing maintenance service; forms can be obtained from the convectory for any service needed.

NEW PARISH PASTORAL COUNCIL

Congratulations to the newest members of the saint Stanislaus Parish Pastoral Council. Elected for three year terms are Rebecca O'Reilly and Karen Neuman. Jim Flock, Judy Dorricott, and Kathleen Djukic have been appointed to serve one-year terms. Many thanks for the hard work done by outgoing Council members Susan Halamek, Patricia Krajewski, Mike Leahy, and Witold Sztalkoper. About 475 parishioners filled out ballots during the election held last weekend! The work of the Pastoral Council is vital is helping to shape the priorities and projects affecting the entire parish community.

CONGRATULATIONS TO ALL!

RECTORY UPDATE

The Springtime certainly brings a rush of new and creative activity in many of our lives. The restoration of our Parish House has been moving along very well indeed. Most of the plaster work has been done, and the drywall should begin next week. Last week was the first official inspection of the electrical work, which has been completed for more than a week now. All of the radiators and old steam pipes have been removed from the building, the ductwork is complete in the attic, and the hot /cold water lines are installed for the new heating and air conditioning room units. Much of the new woodwork has been stained and varnished, waiting to be installed. The plumbing in the updated and added bathrooms is complete and should also be inspected soon.

In a few weeks, we will begin to select interior colors and other finishing touches. Already the building is at the point where, when you walk in, it feels more and more like a living place and less like a place of tragedy and sadness. The rebuilding of our Parish House is symbolic of the healing of our parish community.

A little less than half of the funds have been raised for the project, and a little more than half of the work has been completed. The contractors still envision being finished some time in the Fall of this year. If you have already made your donation to the Parish House Restoration, thank you for the kind generosity that has enabled our progress so far! And if you have not yet made a contribution, please pray over how the Lord is leading you to participate in this vital parish project.

MESSAGES FROM SAINT STANISLAUS CHURCHES IN OTHER CITIES

While preparing the news releases for the celebration of our beautiful church becoming a shrine, we sent courtesy letters and invitations to other churches named after our patron. How wonderful it was to receive greetings in return! Here are excerpts from some of them.

"I extend my best wishes and congratulations to you and to all the members of the parish family on the designation of the Parish church as the 'Shrine Church of St. Stanislaus.' May the Lord Jesus richly bless you and all the members of the parish family of St. Stanislaus. May Our Lady of Czestochowa keep all of you under her protective care. May St. Stanislaus continue to intercede before the Lord for your every need and intention."

Devotedly Yours,
Bishop Edward M. Grosz
Auxiliary Bishop

"We of St. Stanislaus and St. Anthony parishes in Toledo, Ohio stand with you, appreciate your designation as a shrine to St. Stanislaus. May we simply acknowledge your enthusiasm and fine heritage. God bless you and please pray for our parishes in Toledo."

In Christ,
Fr. Gerald Knueven

"Thank you for your recent letter and very thoughtful invitation to attend the celebration at Saint Stanislaus church on May 7 and 8. It sounds like it will be a very memorable event for all the parish. I am sure you remember Fr. Mark Bartchak who has his roots at your St. Stanislaus Parish. Fr. Mark resides here at our parish. I was so pleased to see that your parish will honor the Sisters of Nazareth with your Four Eagle Award. The sisters served very faithfully here at our parish until five years ago. They are truly a remarkable group of women. Michael, best wishes and prayers are sent to you and your staff and all members of the parish as you celebrate your new status as Shrine Church of St. Stanislaus. God bless you in your service to God's people. Sto lat!"

STATEMENT OF THE DIOCESE OF CLEVELAND
REGARDING AN ORGANIZATION KNOWN AS
"FUTURE CHURCH"

"Future Church" (a.k.a. "FutureChurch") is not an organization affiliated with the Catholic Diocese of Cleveland nor does it have the support or approval of the Bishop of the Diocese. "Future Church" is an independent organization of individuals who promote an agenda that is not consistent with the teachings of the Roman Catholic Church, and who are fully responsible for the arrangement of their own programs and activities. Based on the preceding statement, it is not appropriate for the activities and meetings of "Future Church" to be held in church related institutions and/or parish facilities.
