St. Stanislaus depends upon the regular support of its membership and the generosity of those who visit here. Please look upon your financial gift or sacrifice as a way of giving praise to God along with the many from earlier generations who have worshiped and prayed here for 130 years.

Corpus Christi

Maybe most of the churches in and around town put away the fine china and silverware for the summer after the feast of Pentecost. Well not us – our ‘unofficial’ ending of festival time comes two weeks later with the procession through the neighborhood praising the new and everlasting covenant God made with all of us in the offering of His Body and Blood. This year, as always, rain or shine, we’ll celebrate with a panache that has come to be known (in fashionable circles) as ‘le style Stanislaus.’ God deserves no less from those of us who have been given so much much!

Altar I will highlight God’s activity in the history of our ancestors with a triptych featuring the three most important patrons of Poland’s ecclesiastic history: Our Lady of Częstochowa flanked by St. Adalbert and St. Stanislaus. For the past thousand plus years the Polish nation has been guided by these paragons of fidelity to God’s Word.

Altar II will take us into another direction, focusing on the face of the suffering Christ, the lamb joined to humanities’ suffering, violence, illness, loneliness. The suffering of all those can contribute to the outpouring of redemptive grace flowing from the wounds of Christ if those sufferings are shared with Him and mingled with His Blood. It is His invitation to us – to become one with Him in His suffering that we may become one in His glory.

Altar III is for dreamers, wanderers, explorers and anyone of quixotic temperament. Here we’ll find the Lady of the Americas, her arms stretched outward, inviting the dreams of all to be directed to her Son through the intercession of His loving mother.

Altar IV brings us back into the tent God pitched in our neighborhood, the Shrine. The colors of the rainbow will capture your eyes and the covenant they represent remind us of God’s covenant with humanity. Here in His dwelling the pilgrim is welcomed to unload his burdens and share a divine meal – the perfect visit with the perfect host. And so we celebrate the feast of Corpus Christi.

A Foretaste of Heaven

“For as often as you eat this bread and drink the cup, you proclaim the Lord’s death until he comes.”
1 Corinthians 11:25

Everything we are about as Catholic Christians necessarily has to do with the Eucharist. We are baptized so that we may partake in this great mystery of faith — the Body and Blood of the risen Lord Jesus Christ. We are initiated into the Christian community so that we may taste the goodness of the Lord and truly enjoy a foretaste of heaven.

The culmination of every Easter Vigil, and the Confirmation Mass we celebrated with this year’s eighth grade when we had three baptisms, is bringing the newly baptized and confirmed to the Table of the Lord — the Holy Eucharist. It is what the Second Vatican Council (1963-65) deemed, the source and summit of our faith. It is the family meal of the People of God who are born again of water and the Holy Spirit. We do it in obedience to Jesus, who at the Last Supper said, “Do this in memory of me.” We hear this at every Mass.

And we do it until the Lord Jesus returns! The above Scripture passage, from today’s second reading, is the basis of our third eucharistic acclamation: “When we eat this bread and drink this cup we proclaim your death, Lord Jesus, until you come in glory!” This celebration of the Lord Jesus’ death and resurrection we celebrate, renewing the eternal covenant God made with us through the Lamb of God, Jesus Christ.

At every Mass we follow the Liturgy of the Word at which the bread and wine are placed upon the Holy Table for sacrifice — the once and for all sacrifice of Jesus Christ on Calvary is made present to us at the Eucharist in an unbloody manner (Jesus in not nailed up on the cross again!). He is present to us sacramentally, as we obey his word to Do this in memory of me. The climax of the Mass, then, is when those who are baptized, members of the Body of Christ, receive their risen Lord, his Body and Blood, soul and divinity, under forms of bread and wine. What we consume is no longer bread and wine. Rather, by the power of the Holy Spirit, who is invoked during the Eucharistic Prayer by the priest, we believe that the elements are transformed, changed (transubstantiated) into the risen Body and Blood of Christ.

As members of the Body of Christ, the Church, in order to be in communion with Jesus Christ, we must be in communion with one another. And we must be in communion with our bishop and with the Bishop of Rome, Pope John Paul II in order to properly receive the Holy Mysteries. Christ cannot be separated from himself! And the Holy Eucharist is not a private devotion; it is the family meal of the communion of saints, the Church. Its fulfillment is in the glory of heaven. Yet, the Eucharist is where and how being Church is most fully made real here on earth. Heaven and earth are joined at Mass.

Therefore, we must be properly disposed to celebrate and to receive — including the priest! No one must presume to receive the Holy Eucharist; we must approach this great mystery with awe (bowing before reception) and a contrite heart (Lord, I am not worthy...). We approach the altar as brothers and sisters together, however imperfectly reconciled, to receive a foretaste of heaven.

Peace, Fr. Joachim C. Studwell, OFM

MISTYCYZM BOŻEGO CIAŁA

To Przymierze powtarza się i odnawia nieustannie w każdej Mszy św. Wdziażnym znakiem tego Przymierza jest Eucharystyczny Chleb, do którego czerz przyznajemy się dzisiaj w bardzo spektakularny sposób — wychodzimy z Nim na ulice. Przy okazji tej uroczystości warto zapaść siebie: czym obecnie jest dla mnie Msza św.: Bezudzianą formalnością; “przeżyciem estetycznym”; “przedstawieniem” mniej lub bardziej interesującym; okazją do spotkań, obserwacji, płoteć; czy nadal niepodarowalnym spotkaniem z Chrystusem Eucharystycznym?

We Mszy św. dokonuje się pojednania ludzkości i świata z Ojcem w niebie przez Boga-Człowieka, Chrystusa. Grzech pierworodny człowieka i grzechy uczynkowe są pogardą na Boże zaproszenie do przyjścia miłości. Człowiek gardząc Bogiem skoncentrował się na sobie. Sam chciał stać się bogiem. Spowodował w ten sposób cierpienie i śmierć.

Uobecnieniem tego wciąż trwającego Przymierza i zapowiedzią końcowego zmartwychwstania i uwielbienia jest każda Msza św. W Niej i poprzez Nią Chrystus uwieńczył na zawsze i dla wszystkich Boże Przymierze z ludźmi i światem. Niemożliwym bowiem było nieustanne i krawawe umieranie na krzyżu, stało się natomiast możliwe w formie sakramentalnej, którą sam Chrystus dla nas ustanowił. Dzięki temu każdy osobiście i wszyscy razem możemy ofiarować Bogu Ojcu tę samą Oфиarę i z Nim się łączyć. Chleb i wino ofiarowane we Mszy św. symbolizują powrót całego stworzenia do Stwórcy. Ofiarujemy to wszystko w imieniu własnym i ludzkości. Za krótkie są jednak nasze ramiona aby objąć nimi wszystko i wszystkich. Za słabe są nasze usta by być drugim Chrystusem, by zamienić chleb w Jego Ciało, a wino w Jego Krew. Dlatego przekazujemy te dary Chrystusowi, by w naszym imieniu złożył tę przedziwną ofiarę Ojcu. Czyni On to zapożyczając sobie dłoni i ust kapłanów. Wówczas dzieje się coś niezwykłego. Martwa materia jest niewymownego zaszczytu, staje się ubóstwiona, staje się Ciałem i Krwią Chrystusa, uczestniczy w chwale Zmartwychwstania...

W momencie Komunii św. łączymy się nie tylko z Ciałem i Krwią Chrystusa, ale i z ludzkością-Ciałem Mistycznym. Każdy z nas staje się nowym pośrednikiem. To wszystko staje się poprzez nasz świadomy udział we Mszy św. Jakie zaszczypy czekają więc w życiu przyszłym?

SAINT STANISLAUS SCHOOL TO OPEN NEW KINDERGARTEN CENTER

Next year will see a wonderful new innovation in kindergarten education at Saint Stanislaus! The third floor “band room” in the Social Center will be renovated to become a new “Kindergarten Center,” which will be able to accommodate more students and keep them in one building for meals and gym. If enrollment is large enough, it will be team taught with two teachers sharing the duties. Tell your friends with young children all about the new things happening at “Saints!”
