WELCOME

St. Stanislaus is reaching out in service to our diverse neighborhood peoples. Please be generous in your support of the many good works of our Parish. St. Stanislaus depends upon the regular support of its membership and the generosity of those who visit here. Please look upon your financial gift or sacrifice as a way of giving praise to God along with the many from earlier generations who have worshiped and prayed here for 130 years.

The Knights of Columbus

The recent liturgical and historical activities at our Shrine Church have brought many new faces into our little corner of the world, especially during the past May 8th celebration. Among those guests were a group of Catholic gentlemen, members of the Knights of Columbus.

Their organization is the largest fraternal of Catholic men in the world with more than 1.6 million members. Founded in the United States in 1882, it has always had as an objective the uniting of Catholic laymen for religious and charitable work. Even though its name includes the term "Knight," the organization has never laid claim to being an Order of Knighthood. The name developed based on the aspirations of its founder, Fr. Michael McGivney, as he saw its members representing chivalrous ideals. Their core principles – charity, unity, fraternity and patriotism – are evidenced in the varying degrees of participation within the organization, those in the fourth degree wearing the distinctive garb with plumed hat and sword. One of those finely dressed knights was Bill Gale, father to our of our altar server Eddy.

Many other Knights of Columbus are among those who have not chosen to proceed to that final level as did Mr. Gale. Many of our parishioners who are members of this group contribute much of their time to fulfilling the noble ideals which their organization strives to uphold.

The Catholic Church is blessed with so many people who make God's work on earth easier. They are a group of men dedicated to the Church's growth and good works by supporting religious outreach, promoting vocations and providing financial support for seminarians and postulants. These gentlemen are but some of the stars that light the sky in God's tent in our midst and we pray that God bless them always as they work in his vineyard.

THANK YOU FOR YOUR GENEROSITY

Clothed with Jesus!

"In Christ Jesus you are all children of God through faith. As many of you as were baptized into Christ have clothed yourselves with Christ."

Galatians 3:26-27

At the Sacrament of Baptism, we give the newly baptized a white garment. Why? Well, it does represent purity, since we believe that at baptism original sin is removed (all sin for young people and adults who are baptized!) and the person is made a new creation, is born again of water and the Holy Spirit.

There is another reason, and that is the one St. Paul gives us today from the Letter to the Galatians. We put on the Lord Jesus Christ! We take on an entirely new identity. The old one is gone and no longer exists. When an infant is baptized, the deacon or priest address the newly baptized and the parents and godparents — exhorting and admonishing them to keep the tunic clean until the coming of the Lord!

God graciously gives us a whole new dignity, greater than the biblical Adam and Eve had before the Fall. We are incorporated into Jesus Christ himself! (That is why only the baptized may receive the Sacraments of the Church; the sacraments are meant to serve the community of the baptized).

Now, the fruit of this is unity. For Christ cannot be divided, nor can the Holy Spirit who is lavishly poured forth upon us, nor the Father — for God is one. Regrettably we sin, and so unity is harmed. But the unity that is fractured by our sin can be restored — if we repent, turn to the Lord, seek reconciliation through the Sacrament of Confession and forgiveness of others. Hence, the Eucharist is the food for those who are on this wonderful journey. It is for the baptized. The Eucharist is one (one bread, one cup — from last week's Corpus Christi Mass) because Jesus Christ is one.

Perhaps this gives us some pause as we consider how we welcome newcomers to our church. Remember, we are a shrine church now. And the Church of Christ Jesus, if it is true to its name, always seeks to add new members. Not just to the parish rosters! But to Jesus himself! Our welcome of strangers in our temple is an indication of our devotion to the Lord himself. How often have we been strangers in a strange place? And when someone offered us hospitality, didn't we feel relieved and accepted — and safe!?

Is there someone in the pew with you whom you do not know? You can quietly introduce yourself to that person without disturbing the reverence of the church. Does the person know how to read the Missalette? Maybe he/she is unfamiliar with the Mass — you can gently help that person follow along. If the person is not Catholic and asks about going to Holy Communion, you can discreetly show the page of instructions for Catholics and non-Catholics. And if there aren't enough Misallettes, you can share yours with that person!

Unity in the Lord is not a lofty ideal nor an abstract concept. It is our call, and basically, who we are! Fostering unity need not be particularly dramatic — just simple outreaches as mentioned above. And the welcome we give one another — who have clothed (ourselves) with Christ — is a powerful witness to any new person that Jesus Christ lives here!

We demonstrate that God indeed has made us his children.

Peace, Fr. Joachim C. Studwell, OFM

POWOLANIE DO WOLNOŚCI

Wy tedy, bracia, powołani zostaliście do wolności. Tylko nie bierzcie tej wolności jako zachęty do holdowania ciała (Ga 5,13).

Dzisiejszy tekst drugiego czytania tylko potwierdza prawdę, że Bóg obdarował człowieka wielkim darem wolności.

Człowiek jest istotą wolną! Czy zawsze zdajemy sobie sprawę ze znaczenia tego stwierdzenia? Samo słowo odmieniane jest na całym świecie na różne sposoby i ubierane w przeróżne treści. Musimy zrozumieć, że inaczej przyjmują jego sens więźniowie, a zupełnie inaczej społeczności "owinięte w watę dobrobytu". Inny też wydźwięk ma ono dla Amerykanina, a inny dla Rosjanina. Inny dla chuligana czy mordercy, a inny dla ich ofiar.

Słowo to widnieje niemal we wszystkich konstytucjach państw, ale widniało też nad bramami obozów koncentracyjnych. Przy dźwiękach tego słowa tworzono statuty wolnościowe, ale pod ich pretekstem stosuje się tortury i morduje ludzi. W imię wolności rozchodzą się małżeństwa, wierzący odpadają od wspólnot religijnych i w wielu miejscach świata leje się krew.

Wszyscy dziś o wolności mówią, piszą, a wielu o nią walczy. Najczęściej jednak prawdziwą jej ideę gubią "po drodze". Nadużywana i źle rozumiana wolność jest samowolą, a często przeradza się w tyranie.

Na czym polega prawdziwa wolność? Od razu jasno należy sobie powiedzieć: absolutnej wolności nie ma i być nie może. Czyż bowiem może człowiek być wolny od swego ciała, duszy, od powietrza lub słońca? Czy może być wolny od Boga, sumienia lub grzechu? Czy choćby kierowca może być wolnym od znaków drogowych bez szkody dla siebie i drugich? Swoistym paradoksem jest, iż zwolennicy absolutnej wolności są najczęściej niewolnikami: namiętności, mody, opinii, kaprysów i szaleństwa.

Prawdziwa wolność - to służba Bogu, przez podporządkowanie się Jemu. Bez podporządkowania władz niższych wyższym w człowieku, interesów osobistych dobru ogólnemu i Bogu — nie może być mowy o prawdziwej wolności. Człowiek jest osobą, istotą rozumną i dlatego rozum winien włączyć nad zmysłami, a nad rozumem wola; wola zaś winna być poddana najwyższej miłości - Bogu. Innymi słowy - bez miłości nie ma prawdziwej wolności. W tym kontekście jasnym staje się znane powiedzenie św. Augustyna: "Kochaj i czyni co chcesz!" Człowiek prawdziwie kochający Boga i ludzi będzie starał się wykluczyć ze swego życia wszystko, co złe i egoistyczne.

Wolność prawdziwa — nie jest samowolą !

Wolność prawdziwa — jest odpowiedzialnością !

Wolność prawdziwa — jest przede wszystkim miłością !

Wolność prawdziwa — to pójście za duchem, a nie za ciałem! "Ciało bowiem do czego innego dąży niż duch, a duch do czego innego niż ciało, i stąd nie ma między nimi zgody... Jeśli jednak pozwolicie się prowadzić duchowi, nie znajdziecie się w niewoli Prawa" (Ga 5, 17-18).

Być wolnym - to chcieć tego, czego chce Bóg i kochać to, co Bóg miłuje. Taka "niewola miłości" jest najwspanialszą wolnością. Za taką wolnością tęskni dziś świat. Jednak taka wolność wymaga dojrzałości duchowej. Do prawdziwej wolności trzeba dorastać i ustwicznie dojrzewać.

ks. Jerzy

Thank you to all who participated in this year's Silent Carnival fund raiser.

Why are Rita Golubski and Lucille Patrick smiling? Well, they are trying to make sure that Brother Fidelis doesn't sneeze from the accumulated dust in his old digs—the sacristy. In fact, these ladies are two of our newest members of the Brother Fidelis Society, working away in their assigned domain, the sacristy. If anyone else has a free hour or so to donate regularly to the upkeep of our church, please contact David Krakowski at the convectory. (216-341-9091). The cleaning crew and decorators are always in need of extra hands throughout the entire year, not only during the holidays.

GIVE YOUR CHILD A GIFT THAT WILL LAST FOREVER

A good education is necessary to succeed in today's competitive world. Elementary school is where children develop the discipline and learning skills that will serve them throughout the rest of their lives. It is for that reason the staff and teachers of St. Stanislaus School dedicate themselves to provide your child the best education possible.

St. Stanislaus Elementary School is now accepting registrations for the 2004-2005 school year for those students that will be coming back to our school for the next term and new students grades K-5. Call 341-9091 for more information.

A reminder to parents who still owe tuition to St. Stanislaus School for the past school year. Please make your account with us paid up as soon as possible. BLESSED ARE THE PIEROGI ! And Blessed are our Pierogi Makers! The Pierogi's are finished, the total number made as of this writing is not known, but when all is said and done we estimate 8,000 — 10,000 will have been made! That's a lot of dough!

The cooking, however, is far from done. We still have to make stuffed cabbage, sauerkraut and kielbasa, cabbage and noodles, beef rollups, and more! Plenty of opportunity to help with your culinary skills. Watch the bulletin for cooking announcements, or call Joe Calamante at 216-271-0832 to let him know that you want to help.

If you prefer not to cook or would just like to volunteer in whatever capacity is needed, please consider volunteering for the cleanup crew. It may not be glamorous, but it is vital to the success of the cooking effort and the festival!
