WELCOME

St. Stanislaus is reaching out in service to our diverse neighborhood peoples. Please be generous in your support of the many good works of our Parish. St. Stanislaus depends upon the regular support of its membership and the generosity of those who visit here. Please look upon your financial gift or sacrifice as a way of giving praise to God along with the many from earlier generations who have worshiped and prayed here for 130 years.

The Knights of the Holy Sepulcher of Jerusalem

Those of you attending our festive Shrine Designation Mass probably noticed, for the first time in the history of St. Stanislaus, another group of ladies and gentlemen dressed in a rather sober, refined garb, distinguished by a large red Jerusalem Cross, sitting in the sanctuary in front of the Sacred Heart altar. These were the Knights and Ladies of the Equestrian Order of the Holy Sepulcher of Jerusalem, a religious, non-pontifical order of Knighthood.

The origins of this Order go back to the time of the first Crusade, c. 1099, when Jerusalem was re-captured from the Saracens. The Knights were expected to henceforth protect Jerusalem and, especially, the Basilica of the Holy Sepulcher. In 1291 this service ended in a purely militaristic sense within the Holy Land and from that time until 1847 the Knights were scattered throughout Europe in various priories, including in Poland. Papal intervention in the 19th century up to the present allowed for a further evolution of the Order, now under the protection of the Holy See, a sovereign power with a Cardinal as Grand Master and the Latin Patriarch of Jerusalem as Grand Prior of the Order.

The Knights and Ladies are guided by a spirit which is Roman Catholic in Faith, a generosity which directs its sights on the Holy Land and a code of conduct which is based on the knightly virtues of Christian chivalry coupled with an exemplary practice of Christian charity. Members of the Order, necessarily, Catholic, are nominated to become admitted to its august ranks, thus becoming actual Knights and Ladies.

There are so many honorable organizations within the universal Church and members of our parish are among their ranks. I hope to devote upcoming articles to those organizations within our own parish which provide various avenues for members to serve Christ and His flock.

DON'T COME TO CHURCH THIS SUMMER!

Look, let's be honest about it — during summer vacation, the last thing anyone wants to do is go to church on Sunday. The church is hot and that puts people into a surly mood. We never know what to wear. Are cut-offs and T-shirts OK in church? Even the priest wears sandals... The choir is smaller, the servers are irregular, even the lectors sound a little put out from the heat and humidity. The homilies are way too long — don't those priests know we have things to do and places to go?

The kids have all kinds of sports to play, and after all, this is the number one priority. The beach beckons, and maybe Sunday morning is better for fishing than any other day. Saturday night can be a lot of fun during the summer, and who wants to wake up early Sunday after dragging into the house in the wee hours? When school is out, it just seems natural that everything else is on hold, too.

So what if we just cancel church for the summer?

Stay home. Don't bother. Go somewhere else. Give us all a break. We can save some money by shutting the place down for a few months — and Lord knows, the summer collection sure dips enough to make a shut-down sound attractive! We'll just show up for the weddings already scheduled (and maybe not book any for next summer, just in case) and funerals, but only if the family insists. The hospitals have their own chaplains, so don't call us. Parish organizations can meet in private homes. Skip the bulletin, because there won't be anything to report anyway.

SOUND CRAZY?

Of course it does. Nobody would seriously ever consider such an inane idea as to shut down a parish church for the summer. But why is it crazy to think of the church being closed to the people for the summer, but it's accepted as normal for the people to be closed to the church during the summer?

We are still here. God is still here — God, who is worthy of our praise Winter, Spring, Summer, and Fall. The priests and staff at your parish do not stop serving the people. We are full-service all year long. Certainly people's schedules get busier during the summer. Frankly, we also enjoy an occasional day at the beach or night at the movies. But as grateful as we are for those who continue to come to Mass so faithfully, it is a bit disheartening when we look out at the congregation and see the extra empty spaces. And, too, the parish checkbook suffers, even though our bills stay constant.

This is not why our ancestors fought for independence so long ago, and why so many have died to defend our freedoms since then. Freedom is not only freedom from, it is also freedom for — for the praise and worship of our God who loves us and is faithful to us, even in spite of our unfaithfulness.

If you know someone who needs a gentle reminder about their summer obligation, take some extra bulletins and pass them on. And have a great Fourth of July!

Fr. Michael

POKÓJ DAJĘ WAM...

“Pokój przez rozbrojenie, pokój przez międzynarodowe trybunały, pokój przez układy - wszystko to iluzje... Wojna może zniknąć wtedy, jeżeli się człowiek wyzwoli i przemieni... słuchając nakazów z góry, a nie z dołu”. Słowa te zapisał na długo przed drugą wojną światową niemiecki myśliciel F. Forster.

Pokój - to jedno z najbardziej upragnionych dążeń współczesnego świata. Każdy jednak zabiega o niego w inny sposób. Problem utrzymania względnego pokoju w świecie pochłania miliardy dolarów wydawanych zarówno na konferencje o pokoju jak i na wypełnianie arsenałów coraz to nowocześniejszą bronią.

Czy jednak nie jest to wszystko kosztowną iluzją i przysłowiowym “poprawianiem poduszki ciężko choremu człowiekowi”? Czyż tak trudno zrozumieć starożytnego mędrca Syracha, który wyraźnie mówi, że “miłujący niebezpieczeństwo w nim zginie” (Syr 3,26).

Dawcą prawdziwego pokoju jest i tylko być może Chrystus. Nie znaczy to, że przynosi On go w postaci gwiazdkowego prezentu. Pokój ogólnoludzki jest “wypadkową” pokoju serc milionów ludzi. Ale też zakłócenie stosunków z Bogiem i pogwałcenie Jego praw prowadzi do nienawiści, łatwo przedzającej się wojnę. Według Ewangelii słowo pokój oznacza Boży dar wypełniający ludzkie serce, usuwający z niego wszelkie rozdarcie.

Ktoś powiedział, że “prawdziwy pokój rodzi się w domu”. Jest rzeczą niezaprzeczną, że prawdziwy pokój rodzi się w sercu i w duszy człowieka. Przecież nie jest aż tak trudno spotkać człowieka promieniującego pokojem. Znający go pragną go spotykać, z nim rozmawiać, by odzyskać równowagę ducha. Tacy właśnie ludzie są apostołami Bożego pokoju. Rozważając dzisiejszą Ewangelię zauważymy, iż Mistrz z Nazaretu przekazywanie pokoju uzależnia nie tylko od postawy apostołów niosących ten dar, ale i od człowieka, któremu jest on ofiarowany. W rzeczywistości, choć to przykre, nie każdy czeka na pokój, nie każdemu na nim zależy. Ten dar przyjmuje jedynie człowiek godny pokoju. Wielu bowiem ludzi nie jest zainteresowanych tą wartością i z tym musimy się liczyć w naszym życiu.

Warto również zwrócić uwagę na wymagania jakie Jezus stawia apostołom pokoju. Wysła swoich uczniów z misją pokoju bez pieniędzy i bez sandałów, bezbronnych - jak owce między wilki. Chrystus doskonale wie, że gdzie pojawią się pieniądze, dary, drogie prezenty, tam pojawią się wkrótce waśnie, kłótnie, zazdrości. Pieniądz nie niesie ze sobą pokoju, najczęściej przynosi ze sobą niebezpieczeństwo konfliktu. Ci, którzy niosą pieniądze nie są zwiastunami prawdziwego pokoju. Czyż wielokrotnie życie, zarówno światowe, jak i rodzinne, nie potwierdziło tej tragicznej prawdy?

Warto przenieść dzisiejsze ewangeliczne uwagi w nasze życie. Zanim zaczniemy rozprawiać o losach pokoju na świecie, rozpocznijmy od tego, co jest w zasięgu naszych możliwości - od wprowadzenia pokoju w swoje własne serce; wbrew pozorom nie jest to najłatwiejsze zadanie. Dopiero stamtąd, z serca przepelnionego Bożym pokojem, jego promienie będą ogarniać dom, rodzinę, rozszerzą się na ulice, zakład pracy, miasto i kraj.

Każdy drobny czyn pokojowy, każdy “mikropokój” jest wkładem w pokój całego świata.

Our master pierogi chef Joe Calamante with his protégé, college student John Heyink, on the last day of pierogi pinching. Donna Ciborowski, advisor and volunteer, looks on with approval. Nearly 3,000 pierogi were made that day. Watch the bulletin for future cooking dates. Don't miss out on the fun!

W. sobotę 8 maja o g. 17.00 miała miejsce uroczystość odpustowa w najstarszej parafii polonijnej pw. Św. Stanisława BM w. Cleveland w stanie Ohio. W czasie uroczystości został odczytany dekret miejscowego biskupa diecezjalnego Anthony Pilla, na mocy którego kościół ten został ogłoszony diecezjalnym sanktuarium. Dekret odczytał biskup pomocniczy Edward Pevec. Na zaproszenie ks. Biskupa Ordynariusza, który przebywa aktualnie z wizytą "ad lumina", miałem okazję przewodniczenia tej uroczystości. W homilii powiedziałem, że dekret ten jest uznaniem wiary naszych emigrantów i Polonii którzy na tym miejscu modlili się i za przyczyną św. Stanisława otrzymywali łaski. Parafia pw. Św. Stanisława BM istnieje od r. 1873, natomiast obecny kościół został wybudowany w latach 1886 -1891. Duszpasterstwo prowadzi tutaj Ojcowie Franciszkanie z prowincji amerykańskiej mającej swoją siedzibę w Milwaukee. Aktualnie proboszczem jest O Michał Surufka OFM, a za duszpasterstwo polskie odpowiada ks. Mgr Jerzy Kusy z diecezji zamojsko-lubaczowskiej. Natomiast poprzedniego dnia 7 maja wieczorem, podczas specjalnego -bankietu - został wręczony parafialny medal czterech orłów, mających również związek ze św. St Stanisławem, Siostrą Nazaretankom, które pracują w tej parafii od r. 1907.

Z sanktuarium św. Stanisława BM dla Radia Watykańskiego mówił bp Ryszard Karpiński.

PS. W sanktuarium znajduje się relikwiarz św. Stanisława, przywieziony tutaj przez kard. Karola Wojtyłę w r. 1969.

MISSION SPECIAL COLLECTION
NEXT WEEKEND

At all the Masses next weekend, we are pleased to welcome visiting priests from the Apostles of Jesus, a missionary order founded in 1968 for the purpose of the New Evangelization of Africa. The Catholic Church in Africa shows its vibrancy in its remarkable rate of growth. But the many challenges facing the growing church include seminary education leadership training, and social and economic concerns.

Each year, every parish is asked to welcome missionaries who will make a special appeal for support. Our own parish community has financial challenges of our own. But we need to always remember the needs of the larger Church. Our own American Church was once missionary territory. Please be generous to these missionaries who appeal to our generosity of spirit!

For information contact MaryAnn at 412-931-4778 extension 2173 or Judy at extension 2171.

GOOD YARN NEEDED. The St. Vincent de Paul Society of St. Columbkill Parish Warm-up America Group needs orlon or acrylic yarn for crocheting or knitting afghans for the needy.
