WELCOME

St. Stanislaus is reaching out in service to our diverse neighborhood peoples. Please be generous in your support of the many good works of our Parish. St. Stanislaus depends upon the regular support of its membership and the generosity of those who visit here. Please look upon your financial gift or sacrifice as a way of giving praise to God along with the many from earlier generations who have worshiped and prayed here for 130 years.

Stay With Us Lord! XV

Jesus smiled. Last Sunday his Spirit filled our church during our ecumenical service! His breath made the candles go wild! His mind entered the hearts of strangers and neighbors and planted seeds. He heard voices sing old songs and new songs, read prayers and Scripture, offer peace and exchange blessings. I just know he was happy with our little attempt. The congregations from five different churches were united in his presence and may now look forward to further dialogue and comradery. The Lord is with us! Our prayer remains that we might all be one, and in many ways, that reality is already an accomplishment. Still, there remain doctrinal points which will need to be resolved by those in other quarters. We must remember that certain differences do remain of which we should be aware and donate some energy to understanding. This especially applies to the understanding of the Eucharist.

30. "The Catholic faithful, therefore, while respecting the religious convictions of these separated brethren, must refrain from receiving the communion distributed in their celebrations, so as not to condone an ambiguity about the nature of the Eucharist and, consequently, to fail in their duty to bear clear witness to the truth. This would result in slowing the progress being made toward full visible unity. Similarly, it is unthinkable to substitute for Sunday Mass ecumenical celebrations of the word or services of common prayer with Christians from the aforementioned Ecclesial Communities, or even participation in their own liturgical services. Such celebrations and services, however praiseworthy in certain situations, prepare for the goal of full communion, including Eucharistic communion, but they cannot replace it." Ecclesia de Eucharistia, Pope John Paul II

Thus we continue to pray that the Holy Spirit enlighten us, draw us together, enable us to grow as one in the breaking of the bread. Those who gathered here last Sunday helped us take the first steps.

THANK YOU VERY MUCH

Wise Foolishness or Foolish wisdom?

“... God chose what is foolish in the world to shame the wise; God chose what is low and despised in the world, things that are not, to reduce to nothing things that are, so that no one might boast in the presence of God.” 1 Corinthians 1:28-29

St. Francis of Assisi wrote a series of short teachings, called Admonitions, to his brothers. Admonition 19 goes something like this: “We are who we are before God and nothing else.” How concise, how true and how liberating!

My Dad was a holy man. Not like you might think. Actually, he'd be rather embarrassed by this description. For example, he could let out some very colorful language when he was frustrated with some project or other. And he could hold strong opinions! So, he wasn't “holy” like holy-card pictures. Here's what I mean..

Dad was an optometrist, an eye doctor. He was a very intelligent man with a great sense of humor. And he loved people. He was also unpretentious. When Dad began his independent practice, at age 51, he reconfigured the basement into his office. Dad's practice was modest, at best. He had no interior designer, no secretary, no receptionist and no bookkeeper. He was all of the above.

His clientele were not the well-to-do. Some were comfortable, many were struggling. As most of you know, I come from the eastern suburbs of Pittsburgh, PA. The area I come from had several coal mines, all of which are now closed. At the time Dad had his practice, the mines were in decline. Many folks were just trying to make ends meet. Several were on welfare. Some of these are the ones who my Dad attended as their eye doctor.

You see, Dad had a very difficult upbringing — single mother, parents separated, his father died when he was 11 years old, coming of age in the Great Depression. He often encountered rejection and misunderstanding, but he never gave up hope. He'd recount how blessed he felt when he met my Mom and how profoundly humbled and honored he was to have her as his wife.

I suppose in the eyes of many my Dad's practice could be considered a failure. He never made the big bucks; we never had the latest and the greatest. Mom worked full-time throughout my junior and senior high school years as a nurse, work which she loved, simply to have a steady income at home.

But Dad understood who the “least” in society were. He had experienced it. So did my Mom. Perhaps my Dad would be considered foolish by those who value status, prestige, possessions, power. I think he was wise.

Dad could certainly be preachy — I was his favorite audience for that! (Can't tell you how many lectures I sat through). But one of the best lectures I ever had from him was his example of respect for the poor — the older miner who was suffering from black lung and on disability, the people who were often behind in their payments. Good people, hard-working people, the poor in spirit.

Whenever we are insecure about who we are as human beings, we can get caught up in the foolishness that many would consider wisdom — love of money, status, prestige, power and fame. Dad was wise — he knew who he was before God.

Now, I am NOT canonizing Joseph A. R Studwell, Jr! He was far from perfect, by his own admission. Yet, Dad was a holy man — because he lived the foolish wisdom, or the wise foolishness of the Gospel of Jesus.. According to the Gospel, that's success!

Peace, Fr. Joachim C. Studwell, ofm

BLOGOSŁAWIENI

Wielki pisarz francuski Wiktor Hugo poświęcił swemu ojcu niedługi, ale bardzo piękny wiersz. Oto jego tresc. Ojciec pisarza był generałem w wojsku Napoleona. Po zwycięskiej bitwie w Hiszpanii przejeżdżał w towarzystwie swojego ordynansa przez pole bitwy. Nagle usłyszał rozdzierający krzyk ranego żołnierza hiszpańskiego, który wołał: Pic! General zatrzymał się przy rannym, wyjął manierkę z winem i pochylając się z konia chciał ją podać nieprzyjacielskiemu żołnierzowi. Wykorzystując te chwile ranny zamiast pochwycić manierkę niespodziewanie oddał strzał z pistoletu w głowę generała, nienawidził bowiem Francuzów. Kula przeszła nakrycie głowy Francuza, a koń spłoszony strzałem odskoczył. Co wówczas zrobił general wobec tak podstępного wroga? Odpowiedz wydaje się oczywista. General jednak powiedział krótko do ordynansa: Daj mu mimo to pic!

Zaskakuje nas zwykle to, co wydaje się sprzeczne z naszą ludzką logiką; według wielu z nas ten żołnierz powinien ponieść karę. Jednak logika Boża naucza inaczej i często staje w sprzeczności wobec naszej, ludzkiej.

W dzisiejszej Ewangelii Chrystus nazywa błogosławionymi czyli o najwyższej wartości dla nieba, ludzi ubogich, smutnych, miłosiernych, prześladowanych. Pozornie zgadzamy się ze zdaniem Jezusa, byleby jednak to nie dotyczyło nas. Podobnie jak podziwiamy tego generała ale wątpliwe czy sami w podobny sposób byśmy postąpili. Uznajemy, że ubóstwo, miłosierdzie, cichosc, prześladowanie są wartościami ale nie dla nas – dla innych. I robimy wiele by w naszym wypadku do tego nie doszło, a tym samym oddalamy się od Boga. Czy jest możliwe by brak tych wartości w naszych sercach, oddalił nas od Boga?

Słynny Kardynał Newman miał przyjaciela, który choć był zyciowo ustosunkowany do chrześcijan, sam nie należał do Kościoła. Był bardzo bogaty i całkowicie swoje życie poświęcił zdobywaniu pieniędzy i korzystaniu z nich. Kiedyś kardynał spotkał się z nim, a ten zaczął wmawiać kardynałowi, że właściwie Boga nie ma i liczy się tylko ziemską doczesność. Wtedy kardynał kazał mu napisać na kartce papieru słowo „Bóg” po czym zakrył je złotą monetą i zapytał: A teraz co widzisz? – tylko pieniądź. Ot właśnie, zakrył on największą wartość w twoim życiu! To grozi każdemu z nas. Tymczasem najwyższą wartością zawsze pozostaje Bóg.

Inaczej się patrzy oczyma tego świata, a inaczej widzą oczy Boga. Ludzie proponują spryt, siłę przebiegłości, drogę łatwą, drogę na skróty. Droga mądrości Bożej uważa się za naiwną, starodawną, a nawet głupią. Pytają, kto by dzisiaj trwał w nieudanym małżeństwie, kto by dzisiaj zachowywał wierność i uczciwość małżeńską, kto dzisiaj przebacza winowajcy, dochowuje czystości serca, kto nie szuka drogi zemsty za doznana krzywdę, kto liczy się jeszcze ze swoim sumieniem? A jednak mądrość Boża czyni człowieka jasnym, spokojnym, szczęśliwym na stałe. Prawdziwa kultura, wartość ducha nie chodzi drogami łatwizny, nie wybiera pozorów.

Droga do Boga jest prosta. Jezus proponuje osiem błogosławieństw – tak bardzo dostępnych, nawet dla słabych, ulomnych ludzi. Odwaga pójścia tą drogą daje sam On, siła jest Jego Słowo i Eucharystyczny Chleb, pomocą szczerą, dziecięcą modlitwą. Ubodzy duchem mają wstęp do nieba! ks. Jerzy

LIL BROS SUPERBOWL PARTY!

Sunday, February 6, the world will know whether the Patriots or the Eagles are the best football team in the country. Every year for the past six years, the Lil Bros Club has sponsored a Superbowl party, and last year they opened it up to adults as well. It was so much fun for everyone (except, perhaps, Janet Jackson...) that they are repeating it for this year.

The party and game-watching will be in the convent building. Doors will open at 5:00 PM. Food will include ribs, sub sandwiches, chicken, salads, snacks, and lots of other goodies. Beer will be provided for adults, pop for the kids. Mike Leahy will bring the projection TV system again, giving us one of the largest screens in all of Cleveland!

The admission is $20 for adults 21 and over, $10 for kids, and this includes not only the food and beverages, but cash prize “squares” for adults, and for kids a chance to win t-shirts, caps, etc. Half time will feature a chance to play some basketball in our gym.

This will be a fun way for fathers and sons, uncles and nephews, and just plain old buddies the spend this great tradition.. To reserve a place, please call the rectory at 341-9091 by Thursday, February 3.

BAPTISM PREPARATION

Remember that if you intend to have your child baptized, both parents need to have attended a preparation session beforehand. The next scheduled date in Slavic Village is: February 6, 2005: 1:30 PM - Immaculate Heart of Mary call 341-2734 for reservations.

DZIEŃ WSPÓLNOTY WOLONTARIATU

Wielk¹ si³¹ naszej wspólnoty parafialnej jest zaangażowanie ogromnej liczby wolontariuszy w życie modlitewne, wspólnotowe czy w każd¹ inn¹ form¹ pos³ugi. Dok³adna liczba tej grupy trudna jest do określenia; na pewno idzie ona w setki. Trudno też w s³owach wyrazić wszystkim wdzięczno³ za pomoc i ofiarno³. Czynimy to poprzez modlitw¹. Ale pragniemy także, aby³ mieli okazję zobaczyć się wzajemnie wszyscy razem. St¹d też duszpasterze, na czele z księdzem proboszczem, zapraszaj¹ na spotkanie modlitewno-towarzyskie wszystkich lektorów, szafarzy Eucharystii, kolektorów, chórzystów, grupy sprz¹taj¹ce i dekoruj¹ce oraz zakrystianów w niedzielę, 30 stycznia na godz. 3:00 po po³udniu. Najpierw będzie w kościele część modlitewna tego spotkania, a później przed³ujemy go o obiad w Social Center. W celu potwierdzenia swej obecności prosimy o kontakt z koordynatorami poszczególnych grup. Mamy nadzieję, że wszyscy spotkają się na przeżywanie wdzięczności i radości w to niedzielne popo³udnie. Już teraz duszpasterze za pos³ugę i każdy rodzaj dobra ofiarowanego na rzecz parafii sk³adaj¹ serdeczne Bóg zap³aa!

ZAPROSZENIE NA SPOTKANIE

Każdy cz³owiek najlepiej czuje się we wspólnocie; dobrze nam gdy jesteśmy razem. Jeszcze lepiej gdy ³¹czy nas wspólna wiara i wspólna tradycja. Umacniaj¹c nasze więzy parafialne, a szczególnie odwo³uj¹c się do polskich korzeni uczyniliśmy pewn¹ tradycj¹ nasze po³wi¹teczne spotkania dla ludzi aktywnie angażuj¹cych się podczas polskiej Mszy św. Nasze najbliższe spotkanie modlitewno-towarzyskie odbędzie się w niedzielę 6 lutego. Rozpoczniemy go o godz. 3:00 po po³udniu, nabożeństwem w naszym kościele św. Stanisława, a dalej będziemy kontynuować w dolnej sali naszej szko³y parafialnej. Na to spotkanie zaproszeni s¹ cz³onkowie chóru, ministranci z rodzinami, lektorzy, kolektorzy i szafarze Eucharystii. Spotkajmy się wraz ze swymi rodzinami. W tym roku cz³onkowie modlitewn¹ poprowadzi ks. Dr Krzysztof Koprowski z parafii św. św. Piotra i Pawła.

GO BACK TO SCHOOL!

This week is Catholic Schools Week. Part of the celebration includes an “Open House” after the Sunday Masses, until 1:00 PM. All are invited to tour the school and wander the halls. Don’t worry, nobody will be sent to the Principal’s Office for being bad!

The ministry of Catholic education is one of the most important forms of outreach our parish undertakes. We have every reason to be proud of our school. Most of our graduates continue in Catholic high school, and many of them receive honors when they move on. Countless thousands of people have benefited from their education at Saint Stanislaus, and many owe their success to the foundation laid here long ago. Even today, our school is strong and vibrant, with over three hundred young souls coming through our doors each day.

PRAY FOR OUR MILITARY

The following men of our parish are serving our country and ask for your prayers. Paul Trickett, with the National Guard serving in Baghdad, Kevin Preseren who is serving with the Navy and Michael Morrow with the US Army in Iraq. Please pray for all our military so that they may return safely.

It was wonderful to see so many people volunteer their time, energy and talents on such a cold Sunday, their warm smiles greeting the many guests. A big dziękuję ze szczerego serca to all who helped make the day so beautiful. Bóg zapłać!
