Stay With Us Lord! Zostañ z nami Panie! XX

If you have attended a funeral at St. Stanislaus in recent months you may recall a special invitation issued by Fr. Michael to those of other faiths at the onset of the Communion procession. In that invitation he invites all to come forward to share in the table of the Lord, but to those who are of the same ecclesial brotherhood he offers them a 'blessing,' as they are not permitted to partake in the sacred species in the same manner. Remember, not all Christian faiths believe in the divine presence in the Blessed Sacrament, i.e. that the bread and wine which is consumed is truly the Body and Blood of Jesus. Our Eucharistic Ministers are especially made aware of this even in their ablutions of the sacred vessels after Mass. They do not sweep pieces of host into the sacrarium nor spill residue from chalices down the drain. Both are to be reverently consumed. This is not a matter open to discussion or opinion, but essential to being a Roman Catholic or in ecclesial communion with our Church.

38. Ecclesial communion is likewise visible and finds expression in the series of 'bonds' listed by the Council when it teaches: "They are fully incorporated into the society of the Church who, possessing the Spirit of Christ, accept her whole structure and all the means of salvation established within her, and within her visible framework are united to Christ, who governs her through the Supreme Pontiff and the bishops, by the bonds of profession of faith, the sacraments, ecclesiastical government and communion."

The Eucharist, as the supreme sacramental manifestation of communion in the Church, demands to be celebrated in a context where the outward bonds of communion are also intact. In a special way, since the Eucharist is "as it were the source and summit of the spiritual life and the goal of all sacraments," it requires that the bond of communion in the sacraments, particularly in Baptism and in priestly Orders, be real. It is not possible to give communion to a person who is not baptized or to one who rejects the full truth of the faith regarding the Eucharistic mystery. Christ is the truth and he bears witness to the truth (cf. Jn 14:6; 18:37); the sacrament of his Body and Blood does not permit duplicity.

PARDON AND PEACE

Two weeks ago, Franciscan Father Jim Gannon led our parish mission on the theme of reconciliation. His mission talks have sparked an interesting set of observations by those who attended, observations shared mostly after he had left. This is good, because it means he made people think.

As fellow friars and friends who have known each other for decades, Fr. Jim and I had a chance to talk with each other about many things. One of our chats was precisely about the experience of the Sacrament of Reconciliation here at St. Stan's. I think that Fr. Jerzy, Fr. Kim, and I are reasonably good listeners and compassionate confessors —

Our parish reconciliation Service on Wednesday of Holy Week will have six priests available for confession. God will be waiting for you...

at least, nobody has complained yet! Still, I often wonder why the practice of regular confession, at least during the holy and penitential seasons, seems to have waned lately. Surely, there is a national trend away from the Sacrament. But at St. Stan's, we often pride ourselves on being cut from a different bolt of cloth.

Many parishioners have said they feel uncomfortable going to confession to a priest they know. Others, of course, want to make sure that the priest DOES know them! In any case, for the Reconciliation Service prepared for Holy Week, there will be six priests available — the three from here, and three visiting priests. Six lines, little waiting! So, on Wednesday, March 23 at 7:00 PM, God will be waiting.

There is something wonderfully healing about celebrating God's mercy in a prayerful setting, with a priest of Christ at one's side praying the holy words of absolution. Remember, it is God who forgives, not the priest. But the priest stands in the place of Christ, who speaks a word of mercy to the hearts of all sinners who turn to him. And the priest also stands in the place of the Church, representing all the people whom you may have hurt but been unable to ask personally for forgiveness.

God forgives, but isn't it nice to hear it out loud? As human beings, we have an innate need sometimes to hear aloud what we know in our hearts. Spouses know they love each other, so why do they bother to say "I love you?" It's not exactly news. But it's one thing to know it, another to hear it from time to time. Parents know their kids love them, but what is sweeter than a little g'nite kiss and hug, with a gentle "I love you, Mommy" before sleep?

Here is God's "I love you" for you. Come on down to church and listen:

God, the Father of Mercies, through the death and resurrection of His Son, has reconciled the world to Himself and sent the Holy Spirit among us for the forgiveness of sins. Through the ministry of the Church, may God grant you pardon and peace. And I absolve you of your sins in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

AMEN!

Go in the peace of Christ.

Fr. Michael

PRZEJRZEC W SWIETLE

Wielu z nas pamięta swój pierwszy harcerski biwak w lesie. Pierwsza warta. Ciemno. Każdy szelest powoduje dreszcz emocji. Każdy trzask gałazki budzi lek. Potem szary brzask; zmieniające się skąpe oświetlenie powoduje, że drzewa i krzaki przeobrażają się niesamowicie. To też budzi obawę. Wreszcie pierwsze promienie słońca przesiewają las. Otoczenie nabrało znajomego wyglądu, lek znika - wszystko dzięki słonecznemu światłu.

Ciemności zawsze rodzą lek i obawę. W ciemności może czytać każde niebezpieczeństwo. Groźne, nieznanne i zawsze niewiadome. Nie zawsze realne, nieraz tylko urojone. A przecież i ono paralizuje. Dzięki światłu strach odchodzi. To tylko symbolika? Nie, to realizm ludzkiej natury, która potrzebuje światła dla oczu, ale jeszcze bardziej światła umysłu, serca i duszy.

Jezus i człowiek niewidomy od urodzenia... Trudno widzemu wyobrazić sobie świat wszechogarniającej ciemności. Przeraza brak orientacji i pozbawienie tyłu ważnych i potrzebnych ludzkich doznań. Ów człowiek z dzisiejszej Ewangelii jest symbolem człowieka zagubionego w życiu. A Jezus? Czy jest tylko uzdrowicielem? Bynajmniej; Jezus mówi o sobie: Ja jestem światłością świata. Co to znaczy? Otóż to, że On nie tylko „otwiera oczy” człowiekowi, ale ze Jego Ewangelia rozświetla cały obszar ludzkiego światła. Życie nabiera sensu. Problematyka moralna staje się bardziej przejrzysta: zło jest złem, dobro dobrem. Nawet dreczące pytanie o kres życia znajduje odpowiedź - jest nią zmartwychwstanie. Czy ty wierzysz w Syna Człowieczego? - pyta Jezus. Pada odpowiedź, także moja i twoja (bo i do nas Jezus skierował to pytanie): Wierze, Panie!

Postępujcie jak dzieci światłości! - nakazuje Apostoł. Wiara, zaproszenie Jezusa do swego życia, odmienia człowieka, jego życie, jego myśli, słowa i czyny. Pierwszym etapem tej przemiany jest przezwyciężenie czynów ciemności, powiada św. Paweł. I dodaje: O tym, co się dzieje u nich po kryjomu, nawet wstyd mówić. I tak było nie tylko w czasach św. Pawła, dziś jest także. Warto się zastanowić, z czym już od dziś skończyć...

Drugi etap - to owoce światłości: prawda i sprawiedliwość, i prawda (II czytanie). Prawda - w słowach, w deklaracjach i wyznaniach. Mówisz: „szanuję cie”, to naprawdę szanuj. „Kocham cie” - naprawdę kochaj. „Jestem chrześcijaninem” - módl się, bierz udział w sakramentach, żyj przyzwoicie. Sprawiedliwość - to nie tylko uczciwość, to spełnianie wszystkich, nawet najdrobniejszych wymogów życia religijnego i życia wśród ludzi. Spełnianie ich ze świadomością, że Bóg jest sedzią wszystkiego. Prawo - to postawa człowieka wobec człowieka: uczciwość, solidność, zyczliwa pomoc, wierność zasadom.

Przed nami rekolekcje. Po raz kolejny trzeba by sobie uświadomić, że nie jest to jakaś powtórka ze znajomości przykazań Boskich i kościelnych. To potrzeba ludzkiego serca, aby się wewnętrznie pozbierać, wyjść ze swojego niemrawego życia, przebudzić się z duchowego snu - jak dziś wolał święty Paweł Efezjanom: Zbudź się o spiaci i powstan z martwych, a zjasnieje ci Chrystus. To dobry czas, aby na szachownicy życia coś skorygować, coś w domu naszego serca poukładać na swoje najlepsze miejsce, wprowadzić ład i skład.

Ile w nas jeszcze ciemności, a ile już światła? ks. Jerzy

SCRUTINIES AT 11:30 MASS FOR RCIA CANDIDATES

The scrutinies are rituals that are normally celebrated on the third, fourth, and fifth Sundays of Lent. The scrutinies are rites for self-searching and repentance, with prayers, readings and other ceremonies designed to help the catechumen really look at his/her soul, in order to ask God to heal those qualities which are weak or sinful, and to strengthen those that are positive and good. The Second-Scrutiny Reading is Jn. 9:1-41, Jesus cures a man blind from birth.

NABOZENSTWA WIELKOPOSTNE

Okres Wielkiego Postu to czas wzmożonej modlitwy, refleksji i pokuty. Dobra okazja do tego są praktyki wielkopostne. Nasze tradycyjne nabożenstwa wielkopostne celebrowamy w następującym porządku: Gorzkie Zale, dwa razy w tygodniu - w każdą niedzielę o godz. 3:00 po południu (z wystawieniem Najsw. Sakramentu) oraz we środę o godz. 5:30 wieczorem; Droga Krzyżowa w języku polskim - w każdy piątek o godz. 5:30 wieczorem. Nasze rekolekcje wielkopostne przeprowadzone zostaną w dniach od 10 do 13 marca. W ostatnim tygodniu przed Wielkanocą, w Wielki Piątek wieczorem, odprawimy uroczystą Droga Krzyżową z oświecami, na zewnątrz kościoła. Biorąc udział w tych praktykach wielkopostnych wykorzystajmy dobrze swój czas na przygotowanie się do Świąt Zmartwychwstania Paskiego. Do Wielkanocy pozostało już tylko trzy tygodnie. Jeżeli nie wszyscy zdążą skorzystać z sakramentu pojednania podczas naszych rekolekcji, to kolejną możliwość ku temu będziemy mieli jeszcze dwukrotnie. Następne spowiedzi wielkopostne odbędą się: w czwartek, 17 marca od godz. 4:00 do 7:00 wieczorem - w parafii Niepokal. Serca Maryi (Lansing Ave.) oraz w Niedzielę Palmową, 20 marca, od godz. 5:00 po południu - w parafii świętych Piotra i Pawła (Garfield Hts.)
