While We Wait ...

Back in 1978 after the world mourned the death of Pope John Paul I, Cardinal Wojtyla concelebrated a Mass along with Cardinal Wyszynski at the Church of St. Stanislaus Kostka in Rome. The following is an excerpt from Cardinal Wojtyla's homily on that day.

"...The succession of Peter, the summons to the office of the papacy, always contains within it a call to the highest love, to a very special love. And always, when Christ says to a man, 'Come, follow me,' He asks him what He asked of Peter: 'Do you love me more than do the others?' Then the heart of man must tremble. The heart of Peter trembled and the heart of Albino Luciani, before he took the name of John Paul I, trembled. A human heart must tremble, because in the question, there is also a demand. You must love! You must love more than the others do, if the entire flock of sheep is to be entrusted to you, if the charge, 'Feed my lambs, feed my sheep' is to reach the scope which it reaches in the calling and mission of Peter.

And so in this summons, directed to Peter by Christ after His resurrection, Christ's command, 'Come, follow me,' has a double meaning. It is a summons to service, and a summons to die...."

Eternal rest grant unto him, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon him.

Shepherd Us, Lord Jesus!

“For you were going astray like sheep, but now you have returned to the shepherd and guardian of your souls.”

1 Peter 2:25

We have seen remarkable events this entire Easter Season. Not only the passing of Pope John Paul II, but also the tremendous outpouring of affection and respect by Catholics and Christians of other traditions, heads of state, believers and unbelievers alike.

And that funeral! What a powerful experience of God’s grace upon the Church and upon the world! The beauty of the Roman liturgy, the presence of Eastern Orthodox and Protestant leaders, and political dignitaries from around the world were all impressive. Pope John Paul II had gone out to the world, and now the world had come to him! The world, through various delegations and media transmissions, paid its last respects to this Bishop of Rome, our pilgrim pope..

And now, according to directives, the eligible cardinals (those under 80 years) are gathering in the consistory to participate in the papal conclave in the Sistine Chapel of the Vatican. There they will elect a new Bishop of Rome, the Pope of the Universal Church. And it will occur this week!

This Fourth Sunday of Easter is often nick-named “Good Shepherd Sunday” because the Gospels for all three cycles (ABC) deal with Jesus as Shepherd, from different passages of the Gospel of John. Jesus is our Good Shepherd who guides us, lays down his life for us and takes it up again, who protects us and who corrects us. He shepherds us to the Father.

The passage from First Peter above refers to Jesus as the “shepherd and guardian of your souls.” I did a little investigation, and the Greek words are “poimena kai episkopon”, which can be translated as “shepherd and bishop.” Jesus is both our shepherd and bishop, to whom we have returned. The ministry of bishop, whether of Cleveland or Rome, is to reflect the ministry of Jesus Christ, risen from the dead, who shepherds us. That is why ministry is called pastoral. The bishop teaches (hence the bishop’s chair, or kathedra in the bishop’s church, the cathedral), the bishop governs his flock (his pastoral staff, or crosier), and he sanctifies (his unusually shaped hat, called a miter) by the Holy Spirit’s power. The bishop’s authority comes from the Risen Lord, through his Body, the Church, in communion with other bishops, especially the Bishop of Rome, the pope, who is successor of the Apostle Peter. A bishop can only teach, govern and sanctify because he has received the gifts of the Holy Spirit at his ordination when three other bishops lay hands on him.

As the cardinals prepare to meet in conclave and elect a new Bishop of Rome, a pope, from their number, let us remember that Jesus Christ is the “shepherd and guardian of our souls”, the head of the Church (Colossians 1:18).

Let us pray for them that the Holy Spirit would lead their deliberations and choice. Let us pray that these shepherds of the Church seek to follow Jesus Christ, like Pope John Paul II, and joyfully and boldly proclaim him to the world. And let us pray that the new pope will represent Christ well as “shepherd and bishop” of the Church.

Peace, Fr. Joachim C. Studwell, ofm

PASTERZ I OWCZARNIA

Chrzest to wejście do Owczarni Dobrego Pasterza. Każdy chciałby być owcą noszoną na ramionach Pasterza, który jednakową miłością kocha całe swoje stado. Dobry Pasterz przypomina, że świat jest piękny, ale źle jest w nim obecne i wychodzi ono od człowieka. Zdarza się bowiem, że owce próbują urządzić Owczarnię na swój sposób, niezgodny z programem Pasterza. A zawsze, czasami poniewczasie, okazuje się, że On miał rację.

Owczarnia czyli Chrystusowy Kościół nie może stać się niczym prywatnym folwarkiem; zasady panujące w niej są ustalone od dawna, jasne i niezmiennie. Chrystus oddał życie za swój Kościół, a pieczę nad nim powierzył swoim uczniom, w których nieprzerwany łańcuch wpisuje się złotymi zgłoskami wielki apostoł naszych czasów - Jan Paweł II. Ciągle trudno nam się pogodzić, że nie ma go już wśród nas, często blakających się owiec. Jesteśmy mu niezmiernie wdzięczni, że zostawił nam tyle śladów prawdy, dobra, miłości. Uczył nas jak praktycznie żyć w Chrystusowej Owczarni. Możemy chyba nawet powiedzieć o nim, że naśladując Dobrego Pasterza, życie swoje poświęcił dla Kościoła, dla nas. Był nieustraszoną świadkiem nadziei, która wlewał w serca ludzi, szczególnie “zarażając” młodych. Naszym świadectwem o jego wielkości będzie pójście po szlakach wytyczonych przez niego - dobrego pasterza i wielkiego proroka naszych czasów.

W Ewangeli Chrystus mówi: Ja jestem bramą owiec. Jeżeli ktoś wejdzie przez Mnie będzie zbawiony. On zna swoje owce i one Go znają. Podczas swojego ziemskiego życia objawiał i ukazywał praktycznie swoją miłość do nas, ludzi. Był i jest zawsze z tymi, którzy czuli się znechani i porzuceni, jak owce bez pasterza. Karmił Lud słowem i chlebem, przebaczał i uzdrawiał, szukał zagubionych i jednal z Ojcem w niebie, znalazł po imieniu i cieszył się z powrotu każdego zagubionego.

Chrystus jest Dobrym Pasterzem i Bramą Owiec. Problem w tym, że ja, człowiek, nie zawsze chce o tym pamiętać, nie zawsze chce wchodzić przez te Brama. Zdajemy sobie sprawę, iż nie jest to łatwe; niejednokrotnie trzeba bowiem pójść pod prąd “poprawnemu” światu. A to wymaga trudu, odwagi, słuchania głosu sumienia - wbrew obiegowym opiniom.

Brama jest zawsze dla nas otwarta. Jednak, żeby ją przekroczyć potrzeba naszej decyzji, przyjęcia z odwagą Chrystusowych zasad moralnych; potrzeba także zaufania okazanego Dobremu Pasterzowi. Choć może się zdarzyć, że nasze doraźne marzenia stana w poprzek Jego nauki, Jego prawdy i, raz czy drugi przegramy, upadniemy. Jednak wcześniej czy później dostrzemy kruchość i zwodniczość radości tego świata. Wtedy właśnie najbardziej należy pamiętać, że Dobry Pasterz „zostawia 99 owiec i szuka zagubionej”.

Historia i obserwacja codziennego życia ucza nas, że chociaż w te Chrystusowa Owczarnia biją tyrani prześladowani, choć zalewa ją morze herezji, ucieczek i zdrań, a wewnątrz pojawiają się pekniecia – to jednak ona trwa do dziś i trwać będzie do skonczenia czasów ... bramy piekielne jej nie przemogą. Ta Owczarnia bowiem zbudowana jest na miłości. Owcami tej owczarni są wierni chrześcijanie wyznawcy, mecennicy, ojcowie, matki, młodzież i dzieci.

PARISH COUNCIL NOMINATIONS

Positions in the Parish Pastoral Council (PPC) will be open this spring with elections on April 30 and May 1. Please consider being a part of this leadership team or nominating someone you think would do a good job? The purpose of the PPC is to promote the spiritual growth of the parish community and to plan ways for the parish to carry out the mission of the church. The PPC also acts as a consultative body to the Pastor on matters concerning the life and pastoral ministry of the parish. You are eligible to run for this council if you are a registered member of the parish for at least 2 years, attend parish liturgies on Sundays and Holy Days of obligation, be at least 18 years of age, and are willing to participate in parish activities. The PPC requires approximately two meetings per month from September through June. There will be a PPC committee member at the back of the church at each Mass with nomination forms. Nominations are due April 18.

WYBORY DO RADY PARAFIALNEJ

Tegoroczne wybory nowych członków Rady Parafialnej odbędzie się w niedzielę 1 maja. Swoich kandydatów możemy zgłaszać na kartkach znajdujących się przy wyjściu z kościoła.

A GATHERING OF WELCOME TO OUR PARISH

The Evangelization Commission of our parish cordially invites all recently registered parishioners to an evening of welcome on Thursday, April 28th at 7:00 p.m. in the St. Stanislaus Grade School All Purpose Room (in the basement).

This evening gathering will be an opportunity for new parishioners to know each other better and become more familiar with the parish leadership, the various ministries and activities which take place here at St. Stanislaus. The evening will conclude with a tour of the church.

All are welcome! You may freely decide just how "recently" you are a registered parishioner. We look forward to meeting you!

2005 MASS BOOK OPEN APRIL 21

Those who wish to reserve Masses for wedding anniversaries and anniversaries of deaths in 2006 can do so starting Thursday, April 21. Mass intentions for 2006 will be accepted in person at the rectory, from 9:30 AM until 4:30 PM. Because of the time necessary to produce our weekly bulletin which must be completed by Wednesday every week, we ask that you come to the office with your Mass intentions on Thursday and Fridays only. You may also mail your Mass intentions or drop them into the collection basket along with the customary stipend and your requested dates. Please do not phone as we cannot accept phone reservations. We will make every effort to reserve the dates you choose, but if your requested date is not available, we will accommodate your request with the closest date possible. The amount of dated Masses may be limited per person, so that others may have an opportunity to reserve dates also. If you have many Mass intentions, we can list them as "undated Mass intentions" to be offered by visiting priests during concelebrated Masses!

We still have a number of Weekday Masses available for some of the later months in 2005 that can be booked also.

WANTED: STEEL SHELVING for storage in the rectory basement. If you know someone who is able to donate or discount used steel shelving, please call the rectory.

SAINT STAN'S NOW A BIT MORE BABY-FRIENDLY

Perhaps you may have noticed lately that God has blessed our parish with many new babies to fill our church with their wonderful sounds and energy! Of course, that sound and energy gets cranky when it's diaper-changing time. Parishioners James and Kelly Seaman, themselves parents of three energetic and wonderful boys, have shared with other parents in the struggle to find a suitable place in the church for that messy diaper task. Through their generosity, James and Kelly have donated and installed a familiar-looking "Koala-Kare" baby changing station in the large restroom off the vestibule. Many parents and babies say, "Thank you from the bottoms of our..."

THANK YOU TO WKYC-TV 3

Last week, as millions gathered in Rome to say farewell to Pope John Paul II, hundreds gathered in our candle-lit shrine in the wee hours to join with them in spirit during a live broadcast of the papal funeral Mass. Through the generous technical and material assistance of WKYC-TV3, a very large screen was set up in the sanctuary, and a direct satellite transmission from Rome was projected onto it for the duration of the Mass. It was a moving and once-in-a-lifetime experience for all who were able to attend. Many thanks to Channel 3 for making this possible for us!

GET YOUR MANNA CARDS . . .

Have you looked closely at the order form for our Manna fundraiser? There are so many great options from which to choose. There are grocery stores, restaurants, retail outlets, home improvement stores, and gasoline cards—your establishment is bound to be on the list. Study the order form, place your order, and pick up your cards one week later. That's how easy it is.

WHAT IS A CONCLAVE AND WHAT DOES IT DO?

A conclave is the assembly of cardinals called together to elect a new pope. It also refers to the place where they met. The word conclave comes from the Latin words meaning "with key." In the 13th Century it took the cardinals several years to elect Gregory X. After he was elected, he wrote specific rules governing the election of popes. They were to live and work in a common, closed room - the conclave - free from outside influences. If they failed to elect a new pope within a certain time period, their rations were cut. They were also given no pay nor could they conduct any other business until the election took place. The rules worked well the first time, but when suspended by later popes, the elections once again lasted several years. The rules proved to be important.

Since then many popes have written directives for choosing their successor, deciding who is eligible to vote, how an election is determined and what to do in the event of a tie. Pope John Paul II wrote his directives in 1996 in Universi Dominici Gregis, dealing with all the details of time, place and manner of election. For those who enjoy Church history, this is an interesting document to read.
