WELCOME

St. Stanislaus is reaching out in service to our diverse neighborhood peoples. Please be generous in your support of the many good works of our Parish. St. Stanislaus depends upon the regular support of its membership and the generosity of those who visit here. Please look upon your financial gift or sacrifice as a way of giving praise to God along with the many from earlier generations who have worshiped and prayed here for 130 years.

HALF WAY

Being half way through the tradition (not the season) of Summer is pleasant for some, sad for others. My tomato plants (10 varieties) are over six feet tall. Parsley and mint are just waiting to be picked for tabouli (ask Fr. Kim what that stuff is). The lavender's already been harvested and will soon help produce a luscious lavender-lemon cake with honey glazing. The fruits of the earth provide pleasure and nutrition for the rich and the poor.

July is a wonderful month. For our shrine it is the month of the birthday of our patron (July 26, 1030) St. Stanislaus. It is also the month when John Paul II was called from his canoeing trip on the Lyna River, summoned to be told by the Primate, Stefan Wyszynski, that Pope Paul VI had decided that Karol Wojtyla should be consecrated an auxiliary bishop of the Krakow diocese. Karol Wotyla's response to Cardinal Wyszynski was "Your Eminence, I am too young; I'm only thirty-eight." The Primate responded: "That is a weakness which can soon be remedied. Please do not oppose the will of the Holy Father." Karol Wojtyla said: "I accept." The Primate concluded, "Then let's have lunch." The rest is history.

Karol Wojtyla took thirty-eight years to become bishop. He would become Pope almost nine hundred years after Stanislaus Szczepanowski would be dismembered. The growth of Karol Wojtyla in the gardens of Christ's Church in Krakow were more the result of the more than thousand plus years of Christianity in Poland than of the merely thirty eight years of which he spoke. Those gardens and vineyards and years produced the magnificent vintage known as John Paul II. We can now pray for his intercession and perhaps play a greater role toward his beatification and canonization if, through that intercession, a miracle happens right here in our very own little former potato patch. Of course, it's not impossible. Please pray for this holy man who once bestowed on our parish the relic of the Saint in whose steps he followed.

In his 'death' and 'rebirth' he can love us now forever.

WORTHY OF PILGRIMAGE

When Bishop Pilla agreed to elevate the status of our church to a shrine, many people asked what exactly that means. The phrase that I like best comes from the church regulations themselves, which describe a shrine as “worthy of pilgrimage.”

The people of our parish responded generously when our young people turned to us for help in finishing out their plans to attend the World Youth Day in Germany next month. True to our pilgrim identity, we are able not only to receive pilgrims, but to send them as well. Three Franciscan Friars, sponsored by our Franciscan Province, will accompany our young people. I will be going, and having been to all these places already, I will bring a familiarity with the sites. Also coming with us is Fr. Linus Kopczewski, who has been a frequent guest at St. Stan’s and is well known to the Lil Bros as our vocation director and a companion on the annual Wisconsin trips. Fr. Linus also had the privilege to live and minister in Assisi during the millennium jubilee year. We will also be joined by Br. Jason Welle, a young man who just completed his novitiate year with the Order and will begin studies for priesthood this fall.

In Cologne, we will meet up with hundreds of thousands of young people who have also come on pilgrimage from all over the world. On the way there, we will pass through many other sacred places. Rome. Assisi. The Tyrolean Alps. Bavaria. The Rhine River. But the most important pilgrimage is the one that will take place within the hearts of those making the journey.

What makes a pilgrimage different from other journeys? Many have written about this, but you cannot describe it until you have done it. In a wonderful book called Sacred Journeys, Martin Palmer writes:

“To undertake pilgrimage is to place yourself at risk. Not just some of the physical risks, but a deeper risk. The risk that you might not return as the same person who set out. The risk that all that you had thought that you knew, understood, and perhaps carefully constructed in your mind, might be blown apart.

“But there is a second risk. The risk that you will be surprised by joy. That in entering into the physical and metaphysical world of pilgrimage, you will encounter people, places, thoughts, feelings, visions, and happenings which take you beyond anything you might have imagined. You might start your journey as a tourist or a sightseer, but only when you are prepared to chance the deepest dangers of risk or joy do you become a true pilgrim..”

In his poem Little Gidding, T S Eliot writes:

“You are not here to verify
Instruct yourself, or inform curiosity
Or carry report. You are here to kneel
Where prayer has been valid. ...”

PSZENICA I CHWASTY

Przypowieść o chwacie wśród zbóż obrazuje nam prawdę o zlu, niesprawiedliwości i grzechu tam, gdzie chciałbyśmy widzieć tylko dobro, sprawiedliwość i wszelką cnotę. W niejednym człowieku budzi się dusza reformatorska i chciałby jak najszybciej uporządkować i oczyścić ten „zepsuty świat”. L. zwykle zaczyna reforme od innych, bo tak najłatwiej.

Kiedys pewien dziennikarz zapytał Matkę Teresę z Kalkuty, co zrobić, aby na świecie nie było tyle zła, aby świat stał się lepszy? Ona odpowiedziała krótko: Mam być lepsza ja i ty. Prawdziwa reforma ewangeliczna nie polega na reformowaniu innych, ale na reformowaniu samego siebie.

Poprzez dzisiejszą przypowieść Chrystus chce pohamować niekiedy aż fanatyczne zapędy, często ludzi wierzących, którzy z wielką pasją tropią wokół siebie wszelkie zło, widząc u innych same wady i błędy, sami natomiast czując się w porządku.

Czytając Księgę pokutników szwajcarskiego teologa Waltera Nigga można poznać wspaniałych ludzi, którzy najwięcej zła potrafili dostrzec nie w innych, ale w sobie. Dotknięci łaską Bożą podjęli wielkie dzieła pokutne, aby naprawić wyrządzone zło i tym samym uczynić świat lepszym. Obok wielu znanych świętych, takich jak Maria Magdalena, Brat Albert, Karol de Fuko, w gronie wielkich pokutników znalazła się również św. Małgorzata z Kortony. Żyłła w XIII wieku. Wyróżniała się niezwykłą urodą. Toteż nie brakowało młodych, którzy ubiegali się o jej rękę. Wśród jej wielbicieli znalazł się bogaty szlachcic, który zaprosił młodą, niedoswiadczoną dziewczynkę, na swój dwór i wiódł z nią rozpustne życie ku zgorszeniu całej okolicy. Po dziesięciu latach niemoralnego życia przyszła katastrofa: kochanek Małgorzaty został zamordowany w bliżej niewyjaśnionych okolicznościach. Znalazła przypadkowo jego ciało, odgrzebane przez psa. To stało się dla niej punktem zwrotnym. Udała się do Kortony, gdzie oddała się posłudze chorym w tamtejszym przytułku. Nigdy w swej charytatywnej działalności nie chciała uchodzić za dobrodziejkę. Ze wszystkich sił pragnęła uniknąć choćby pozoru „dobrej pani”. Uważała siebie za bezwstydną grzesznicę, która w młodości oddawała się rozkoszom zmysłowemu. Ta świadomość przeszłości przywarła do niej jak trad. Aby za to odpokutować, upokarzała się w sposób prawdziwie niezwykły. Na przykład, noca wdrapała się na dach domu i tak długo głośno wolała: „Patrzcie, jaka wielka grzesznica tu stoi”, dopóki mieszkańcy przerazeni krzykiem nie zerwali się ze snu i nie zobaczyli, co się stało. Zdarzało się również, że boso, z petlą na szyi, jak przestępca skazany na śmierć, szła do kościoła, aby wszystkim symbolicznie pokazać, na jaką karę zasłużyła; zachowanie, które jest nie do pomyslenia w dzisiejszych czasach, chociaż w duchu, nie zaś dosłownie, godne jest naśladowania. Przykładem swojego życia i nawoływaniem do pokuty tak wielki wywarła wpływ, że ściągali do niej grzesznicy nie tylko z Włoch, ale nawet z Francji i Hiszpanii. Pan Bóg obdarzył ją darem wysokiej kontemplacji, a nawet prorocत्व.

W dzisiejszej liturgii, choć po części, znajdujemy odpowiedź na pytanie, dlaczego Bóg pozwala na zło i czeka aż do zniw. Kiedys Jezus do św. Faustyny powiedział: „zanim przyjdzie jako Sędzia Sprawiedliwy, aby osądzić ludzkość, najpierw przychodzi jako Król miłosierdzia”. „Teraz Bóg jest cierpliwy... na koncu sprawiedliwy” (Mt 13,23-43). Taka jest Boża pedagogia.

WHO IS THIS?

We love to get historic old photographs of people and things connected to St. Stanislaus Church. In many cases the identity of those pictured in these wonderful old photos is not known. We will publish some of these pictures in an effort to identify people or places. Show the pictures to any family members (especially the older ones) and let us know if they recognize anyone pictured. This could be fun and informative!

ST. STANS HISTORICAL FACT. The Saturday before Palm Sunday in 1906 Father Theobald Kalamaja OFM and Father Methodius Kielar OFM with Brothers Zosimus and Basil came to the priest's residence on Todd (East 65) and Forman Streets. Their Provincial had met Bishop Horstman to sign the document of agreement in which the administration of St. Stanislaus Parish was given to the Franciscans (Sacred Heart Province) subject to the same regulations binding Diocesan priests.

Today's bulletin includes an insert explaining the St. Vincent DePaul Societies program for the parishioners of Slavic Village Churches. The Center will open at Holy Name Church. This center will be staffed by members of the St. Vincent de Paul Society, as well as volunteers. It will succeed and be an effective outreach to the poor in our neighborhood only if it is supported by the time and effort of dedicated volunteers from all the neighboring parishes. Those interested in helping out at the center, or joining the St. Vincent de Paul Society, should please call our Matt Zielinski at 216-589-9776. All food donations and clothing should be taken to Holy Name Church at Broadway Ave.
