Latin Music, Prayers, Candles, Memories

It's that time of the year. The earth is putting on her sweater of leaves, the flowers are sipping their plans for next Spring into their roots, everyone is getting ready to hibernate for a few months. November also brings to mind all of our loved ones who have fallen asleep awaiting the final resurrection. You'll hear their names read before Mass, you'll light tapers in their memory, you'll walk over the paved stones of our 'Peace Garden' and allow memories to bring the many names back to life if only for a fleeting moment. The lovely flowers that grace the garden will try to brighten your memories. The cold wind that will brush against your cheek might bring back the memory of a loving kiss. Our memories keep them alive...

On Saturday evening, November 5th at 7:30, once again the Schola Cantorum of Cleveland's Church of the Immaculate Conception will grace our Shrine with their beautiful voices as we usher in the month dedicated to the memory of our faithful departed. If you say you miss Latin, if you say you love Gregorian Chant, if you miss the tradition of solemnity within an ancient prayer ritual, then this event is what you need. Prayerful music, readings from Sacred Scripture, a procession to light memorial candles and a Compline Service for the Dead are all a part of that evening's memorial event.

That event has been given the title of "Requiem aeternam," (Eternal Rest). For those who have gone back to the home of our Father, we can only think in terms as that. We believe they are happily at rest, living in the presence of the God who created them and Who will have a place for us at His side when the time comes, whether this night, next month, next year, twenty years from now...we leave that to Him. In the meantime, we pray for our deceased and they intercede for us...as we wait in the joyful hope for the coming of our Lord, Jesus Christ

THANK YOU VERY MUCH

WHERE'S HE GOING NOW?

My desk is usually a mess. It seems that I take one thing off, and two more appear in its place. About the only time the desk is really clear, and all the work is caught up, is when I have to leave town for a few days and make sure I leave no leftover work behind. My desk is a mess now, so it's time to pack my bags...

By the end of this Sunday, I will be on my way to Poland for a ten day working trip. Let me say it now — NO, THIS IS NOT A VACATION! Poland is nice, they say, but in November? Well, at least the airfares are pretty cheap this time of year.

This is truly a trip to get several things done. David Krakowski, our parish Director of Liturgy and Music, will join me to help get around southern Poland and to help with translation. There are two goals for this time away, and I'd like to share them with the parish because, if they work out, the parish can benefit greatly.

First, since we are the Shrine Church of Saint Stanislaus, it is important that we become more like an American extension of the places in Poland associated with our Patron. Historically, shrines have often been local places for those who could not go to the "real thing." For example, if you cannot travel to Israel to pray in the holy places there, you can go to the Franciscan Monastery in Washington DC and visit their shrine, which is a replica of many of the famous chapels in the Holy Land.

Although I've been blessed to have traveled widely for the sake of the ministry, for some reason Poland has never been one of the stops. Now is the chance to pay close attention to the places associated with Saint Stanislaus, so that we can bring some of that feeling here. Our Shrine needs to be a place people can go to if they cannot get to Poland. Also, we hope to begin an ongoing relationship with the religious leaders there, so that they can know how vibrant our community is and how devoted we are to our common patron.

Second, there are many Franciscans in Poland, and already some have expressed an interest to minister in the US. Next year, 2006, will be the hundredth anniversary of the Franciscans staffing Saint Stanislaus. Wouldn't it be wonderful to welcome a friar from Poland to join our vibrant faith community? We have the blessing and encouragement of Fr. Leslie Hoppe, OFM, the Provincial Minister of our Franciscan community, to work on establishing a fraternal relationship with the Polish Franciscan communities. In these days of fewer religious vocations, we need to be more creative in meeting the needs.

In the meantime, Fr. Jerzy is in charge. It may seem strange to have only one priest around, but if this were a diocesan parish, we would only be allowed to have one priest anyway. Fr. Jerzy and our staff will take good care of the parish, and we will return with plenty of ideas to continue building up our community in new ways. Pray for a safe and successful trip.

Fr. Michael

TYTULY I BRATERSTWO

Wypowiedzi zarówno proroków jak i samego Jezusa w zawarte w dzisiejszych czytaniach, a dotyczące kapłanów są bardzo mocne. Wynika z tego, że kryzys autorytetów to temat nie tylko współczesny. Najkrócej mówiąc, brak szacunku najczesciej wynika z braku wiarygodności. Dlatego Chrystus przestrzega słuchaczy: „

Czyniecie więc i zachowujcie wszystko, co wam poleca (uczeni w Pismie i faryzeusze) lecz uczynków ich nie nasladujcie. /... / Wszystkie swe uczynki spełniają w tym celu, żeby się ludziom pokazać". Pozytyw w tym taki, że Mistrz z Nazaretu nie przekreśla ich nauczania, ale wręcz nakazuje zachowywanie ich poleceń, równocześnie pietnując próżność kapłanów.

Trudno byłoby znaleźć w życiu człowieka pozbawionego zupełnie próżności. Chrystus, pewnie doskonale zdawał sobie z tego sprawę, dlatego nie nakazuje odrzucić uczonych i faryzeuszów, czy ich lekceważyć, lecz słuchać ich mądrości, a nasładować tylko wtedy, kiedy własnym zachowaniem będą potwierdzali treści przekazywane.

Poprzez swoje nauczanie Jezus ustawia na właściwym miejscu pokrzywione relacje, tak jak specjaliści nastawiają złamane kości. Złe czujemy się w każdej, nie tylko kościelnej społeczności, w której relacje są wykrzywione i bolesne: kiedy szef staje się władcą absolutnym, a podwładni się płaszczą, kiedy ktoś domaga się szacunku i czci w każdym kontakcie, choćby nawet ten szacunek mu się należał.

Tytułów, a tym bardziej szacunku nie wyrabia się poprzez zadanie czci, ale przez braterską postawę rządzących czy nauczających. Jezus pragnie, żeby społeczność Jego uczniów ożywał duch braterstwa. Pięknie potwierdza te postawy św. Paweł w Liście do Tesaloniczan. Niezbędne funkcje i użyteczne tytuły nie mogą zmienić tego braterskiego ducha.

Mogę pozwolić, aby nazywano mnie ojcem... jeśli będę miał serce brata! Ale musi to być widoczne w moich słowach i zachowaniu, i niech nikt mnie nie wodzi na pokuszenie, abym się wywyższał czy nawet uważał za Boga. To jest właściwa postawa mądrego człowieka, obdarzonego tytułem czy urzędem. Nie wolno nikomu z nas zapomnieć, że walka o tytuły i zaszczyty to diabelska pochylnia, po której zeszliśmy się ku próżności. Dlatego rozważanie dzisiejszej Ewangelii zawsze będzie konieczne.

Patrzac na „własne podwórko" uświadomiam sobie, że możliwe było, niestety, napisanie całej książki zatytułowanej "Próżność w Kościele", na temat strojów, tytułów, pierwszych miejsc, a co gorsza - pychy i nadużywania władzy. Wygląda na to, że dziś już sprawy mają się lepiej, ale jeśli chcemy wytrwać w duchu Jezusa, nie wystarczy, żeby nauczyciele, ojcowie i mistrzowie mieli się na baczności. Trzeba, ażeby ktokolwiek z ludu Bożego mógł ich zapytać: czy jesteś przede wszystkim moim bratem?

Nadzieja jednak napawa fakt, że Bóg ciągle powołuje ludzi do swoich zadań, mimo ich grzechów i słabości, choć ten fakt możemy oprzeć tylko na tajemnicy, wobec której zostaje jedynie milczenie i modlitwa.

Dla wszystkich jednak Jezus zaleca pokorę jako skuteczny środek przed zarazą faryzeizmu.

ks. Jerzy

Shrine Church of St. Stanislaus Tribute to John Paul II

Cleveland, Ohio – On May 2, 2005, all the Polonia of greater Cleveland were invited to attend the ‘month’s mind’ Mass in memory of Pope John Paul II. The combined choirs of the Shrine subsequently taped all of the sacred music from that event resulting in a recording both beautiful and inspirational. The various pieces comprising the recording convey both a the mourning of fellow Catholics and Poles from the world over but, likewise, celebrate the man who will no doubt go down in history as the greatest Pole who ever walked this earth.

When the Holy Father visited Cleveland in 1969 as Karol Kardyna³ Wojty³a he presented the church with a relic of his predecessor, St. Stanislaus. Subsequently in 2003, at the end of the year of celebrations commemorating the 750th anniversary of the canonization of Stanis³aw Szczepanowski, Bishop Anthony Pilla, Bishop of Cleveland, bestowed upon the church of St. Stanislaus the honor of being a Shrine. The parish that had always been intimately connected to the land of St. Stanislaus, is now deemed appropriate to pay this special tribute to her most famous son.

Performed entirely in Polish, the recording begins with the Litany to the Saints of the Polish Nation which John Paul II recited daily. The haunting Gregorian Chant will immediately bring to mind the solemn funeral of our Holy Father held in St. Peter’s square a few weeks prior.

The next segment of the recording features in its entirety the Missa Chopina (Chopin Mass) by David Krakowski, Director of Music and Liturgy at the Shrine, inspired by the music of Poland’s most famous composer. The Mass includes a Kyrie, Gloria, Sanctus, Acclamation, Great Amen, Agnus Dei and Meditation all intimately interwoven with the music of Chopin.

Polish Funeral music was included as well. Pan mým pasterzem, Dobry Jezu and Przyb⁴ d⁴cie z nieba were most appropriately featured in addition to one remarkable song, originally sung at the funeral of Marshall Pilsudski, Hymn po⁴egnanie, adapted for the current occasion.

What would a selection of music associated with John Paul II be were it not to include hymns to the Mother of God. With this in mind the choirs sing Serdeczna Matko and Maryjo Królowo Polski while one of the soloists adds Schubert’s prayerful Ave Maria.

Two of the Holy Father’s favorite hymns were also included in the Memorial Mass, namely, Barka (Lord, when You Came to the Seashore) and Jezu ufam Tobie, the song most associated with the feast of Divine Mercy, the eve of that precise feast being when John Paul II returned to the home of the Father. To end the tribute to our beloved Pope, the church resounded with the traditional Te Deum, the identical version which John Paul II would have sung in Krakow and throughout Poland during his years of work and prayer in the land of his heritage.

The accompanying program notes by Mr. Krakowski include numerous inspirational quotes from the pope’s many writings, short commentaries on the musical selections and brief prayers of supplication to God on behalf of our Holy Father as well as requesting his own intercession on our behalf at the throne of the Lamb of God.

The recording is now available from the Shrine for $15 (CD) or $10 (cassette), by contacting the church at 3649 East 65th Street, Cleveland, Ohio 44105. ($4 s/h). More information on the Shrine, the recording and other related activities may be found on the church’s outstanding website: www.ststanislaus.org

PRAYERS FOR THE DEAD.

The month of November is traditionally set aside for the prayerful remembrance of the faithful departed. At Saint Stanislaus Church, we have a special devotion to our loved ones who have been called from this life into eternity. One very special way we bring our beloved deceased to prayer is by sending their names to be inscribed in the Book of Life, from which we pray at the beginning of each Mass in November. The October envelope packet contains a special envelope for sending in names, or you may use your own. People can drop them into the collection basket at Mass, or they may be mailed to the rectory. PLEASE, PLEASE, PLEASE! PRINT YOUR NAMES LEGIBLY. In many cases the names written on the envelopes are almost impossible to read due to poor handwriting! Remember please PRINT.

NATIONAL PRIESTHOOD SUNDAY. Today we celebrate National Priesthood Sunday. It is a special day set aside to reflect on and celebrate the gift of priesthood in the life of the Church. Take some time today to remember the very generous and faithful priests who have served our parish and been part of your life. See the latest edition of the Universe Bulletin for a fine reflection on this day, written by Fr. Bob Stec.

“REQUIEM AETERNAM” BY SCHOLA CANTORUM ECCLESIAE IMMACULATAE CONCEPTIONIS, Saturday, Nov. 5, at 7:30 PM. . It is a prayerful melding of sacred music and scripture. This concert is specifically situated between the feast of All Souls and Veterans Day to commemorate and honor those who have entered eternal life. If you haven’t had the occasion to experience this beautiful event previously, make it a point not to miss it this time.

SHRINE GIFT SHOP

Several parishioners have asked about establishing a gift shop for the Shrine of Saint Stanislaus. Shrines throughout the country offer shops as part of their visits. Those who are interested in working on a Shrine Gift Shop should attend a meeting at the rectory on Saturday, November 12, at 10:00AM.

THANK YOU FROM CALIFORNIA

Last week we received the following note from a friend in California who attended the Polish Festival:

I live out in Los Angeles now. There are many Mexican restaurants, but Polish food is hard to find. During a visit to Cleveland last week my mother and I came for dinner in your community hall. The food was great and service was prompt and friendly, the school children were eager to collect the trays and plates from our table. My mother unfortunately left her coat there in the hall. I stopped back On Tuesday to see if it was turned in. Sure enough, your staff had it neatly hung on a hanger in the cafeteria for safe keeping. A great visit!
