Golgotha

XIII. Pieta

Thirty three years flash before His mother's mind and heart.
 She held Him at birth. She sang lullabies.
 She holds Him in her arms now that His body is lifeless...

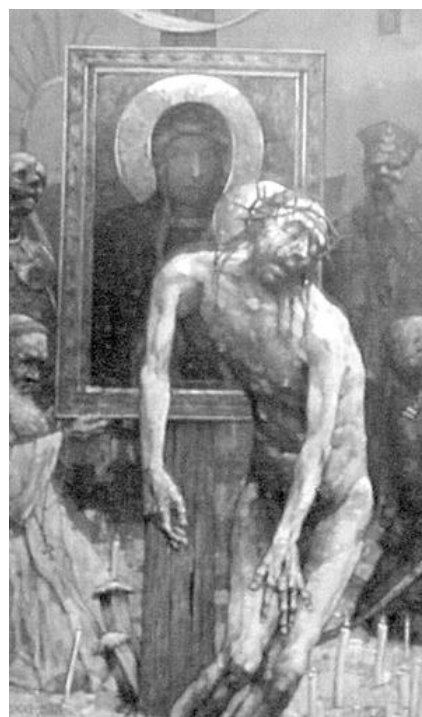

The memories collide with the present.
 She was told this would happen in the beginning.
 The reality in her arms now has sunken in...

His suffering has ended but her heart is still breaking.
 She removes the crown of thorns ever so carefully—not an easy task.
 It finally removed, Mary brushes back Jesus' hair...

His eyelids are already swollen shut, so she needn't close them .
 She looks at her baby and bursts into tears.
 She covers His body with her veil and recalls the many lullabies...

Time stands still as the Mother holds her Son...
 The two slashes on her cheek become a reservoir for her tears....
 It will soon be time to continue the divine plan...

We Are A "Pentecostal" Church

To say that the Roman Catholic Church is a Pentecostal Church may surprise some Catholics, because they think only of some Evangelical Churches, which specifically are called Pentecostal. The Roman Catholic Church is certainly a Pentecostal Church in the sense that it accepts the Pentecost experience as integral and vital to its life as a Church.

The liturgical celebration of Pentecost is considered to be a solemnity, the highest grade of festivity in the liturgical calendar. It is also the high point of the 50-day Easter Season and brings a closure to that season.

What is Pentecost all about? Why is this solemnity very important to the Church?

Pentecost is about the Holy Spirit and the other members of the most holy Trinity. The Holy Spirit is the bond and personal expression of love between the Father and the Son.

Originally Pentecost was an agrarian feast celebrated at harvest time as a festival of thanksgiving. Later in time this feast was associated with the Mosaic renewal of the covenant between God and His people. From this point of view Pentecost is a harvest feast of the Church whose members the Holy Spirit binds in love. In terms of covenant it is a reminder of the last and eternal covenant by which God has bound himself to his harvested people, through Jesus the Christ, who has sent the Holy Spirit to be an Advocate (a defender) of the members of the Church and to lead them in the spirit of truth and holiness.

Pentecost is also considered to be the birthday of the Church. Even though it is true that the Church was born on the cross from the side of Jesus, Pentecost is a celebration of the Church's birth through the bestowal of the Holy Spirit, who invigorated the Church from the dead body of Jesus. After the death of Jesus the apostles and those gathered in the upper room were as if dead or paralyzed by fear. They didn't realize that they were the new glorified body of the Christ, the new Church. The coming of the Holy Spirit upon them was a life-giving experience through which they realized who they were. The Holy Spirit continues to give life to the Church and an awareness of who it is in each age and brings it to glory.

On a solemnity as this all members of the Church ought to give thanks and express gratefulness for the Holy Spirit and for the Church, the harvest of Christ, with whom God has established a never ending covenant with the Church. We are only as good members of the Church as we recognize the presence of the Holy Spirit in the Church and allow the Holy Spirit to work in the Church and in our individual lives for the benefit of the world. In other words, we need to recognize that we are a Pentecostal Church!

How practically recognize this? We need to grow consciously in practice in our relationship with the Church and view it as an extension of and a communion with God's Trinitarian life. We need to commune with the Holy Spirit daily through the practice of prayer and through participating regularly in the Saturday/Sunday Eucharist. We need to see the Holy Spirit working in other people and we need to acknowledge His presence within them. We need to witness to the Holy Spirit in word and deed to give him an opportunity to work on and to renew the face of the earth.. May the Holy Spirit enable us to accomplish this!

Fr. Cam Peace and Good!

PRZYJDZ, DUCHU SWIETY!

Niedziela Zesłania Ducha Świętego to ostatnia niedziela okresu wielkanocnego. Jutro zaczyna się czas zwykły w ciągu roku kościelnego. Wielkanoc to liturgiczny szczyt całego roku.

Kościół na całym świecie wola: „Przyjdź, Duchu Święty!!!” Papieska Msza św. na krakowskich Błoniach w ostatnią niedzielę z udziałem Ojca św. Benedykta XVI przypominała mi wołanie jego poprzednika na tym samym miejscu: „Niech zstąpi Duch Święty i odnowi oblicze ziemi, tej ziemi.”

Benedykt XVI był w Polsce w dniach 25-28 maja. Dużo ludzi na całym świecie zadawało sobie pytanie: „Jak Polacy przyjmą nowego papieża?” Wszyscy wiedzieli, Polacy kochali i kochają Jana Pawła II, ponieważ był Polakiem. A co będzie z jego następcą? Jak on zostanie przyjęty? Po wizycie możemy powiedzieć: Benedykt XVI zdobył serca Polaków. Rozmawiałem ze swoim współbratem, z którym jesteśmy w Niemczech w jednym klasztorze i on powiedział: „Super, Niemcy są zaskoczeni.“ Okazało się, że Polacy kochają papieża niezależnie od tego, czy to Włoch, Polak czy Niemiec.

Ta pierwsza zagraniczna wizyta papieska, o ile nie weźmiemy pod uwagę wizyty w Kolonii z okazji Międzynarodowego Spotkania Młodzieży, to był hołd złożony Janowi Pawłowi II. „Pragnęłam oddychać powietrzem jego Ojczyzny. Pragnęłam patrzeć na ziemię, na której się urodził i na której dorastał do podjęcia niestrudzonej służby Chrystusowi i Jego Kościołowi Powszechnemu” – powiedziała Ojciec św. w czasie Mszy św. na Błoniach. Było to także uszanowanie Polaków. „Pragnęłam przede wszystkim spotkać żywych ludzi, jego Rodaków, zakosztować waszej wiary, z której wyrósł i upewnić się, czy w niej trwacie” – usłyszeliśmy dalej.

Ale to oczywiście nie wszystko. Ojciec św. powiedział do nas bardzo ważne rzeczy. „Chciałem też z tego miejsca prosić Boga, by zachował w was dziedzictwo wiary, nadziei i miłości, jakie pozostawił światu, a wam szczególnie, Jan Paweł II.” Tak osoba Sługi Bożego to dla nas nie tylko dar, ale też zobowiązanie. „Trwajcie mocni w wierze!” - to hasło tej pielgrzymki i wezwanie do nas, Polaków niezależnie od tego, czy żyjemy w Ojczyźnie, czy też losy rzuciły nas daleko od niej. Cały świat oczekuje od nas tego świadectwa wiary. Jak przypomnieli Papież, wiara to przyjęcie prawdy objawionej, zgoda umysłu na te prawdy. Jest to jeden wymiar, który angażuje bardziej umysł. Drugi aspekt wiary to zaufanie tej Osobie, w którą się wierzy. Ten akt jest bardziej „sprawa serca”.

Ten papieski apel do Polaków o świadectwo wiary jest wyrazem zaufania Ojca św. do naszego narodu. Jesteśmy świadomi naszej słabości. Dlatego, aby nie zawieść pokładanego w nas zaufania, potrzebujemy Ducha Świętego, którego zesłanie dzisiaj obchodzimy. Jezus obiecał swoim uczniom: „Duch Święty zstąpi na was, otrzymacie Jego moc i będziecie moimi świadkami w Jerozolimie i w całej Judei, i w Samarii, i aż po krańce ziemi” (Dz 1, 8). Prośmy i my wytrwale i z zaufaniem: „Przyjdź, Duchu Święty!”.

FOUR EAGLES FOLLOW-UP

On Friday, May 5, 2006 many members of the parish community gathered at the Pope John Paul II Polish American Cultural Center to celebrate the fourth annual Four Eagles Award Ceremony and banquet. Participants enjoyed an outstanding meal and an opportunity to visit with friends and Friars. Fr. Leslie Hoppe, OFM, Provincial Minister of the Assumption Province, accepted the Four Eagles Award on behalf of both the Assumption and Sacred Heart Provinces of the Franciscans in honor of the 100 years of ministry they have provided to the parish of St. Stanislaus. After viewing a slide program of Friar sons of the parish, Fr. Leslie commented on the number of men the parish had provided for ministry within the Assumption Province but noted that unfortunately most of them were now in the cemetery in Pulaski, WI. He issued a call for vocations to again come from the parish.

Many thanks from the planning committee to all those who attended or helped in any way to make this event a success and save the first Friday of May for next year's banquet.

If you are attending the 10:30 AM Mass that day, please make your way to the trolley immediately after the Mass.
