Prayers For The Holy Land

"May almighty God enable us to build a world of true and lasting peace, firmly founded on the solid pillars of love and justice, of truth and freedom—Build bridges, not walls; teach peace!" (John Paul II in a message to Palestinians and Israelis)

Since the biblical time of Cain and Abel the sin of the disregard for the sanctity of human life has plagued our world. As we sit today in the unsure safety of our own homes we need not look far away to know the violence. Look in the newspaper. Look on the television. Look out the window. Bullets and bombs, stones and suicide bombers plague our daily life, pleas for their retirement falling on deaf ears. Throughout history the players with the bigger sticks have tried to impose their will on others with total disregard for love, justice, freedom and truth. In our own lifetimes we have seen the violence take on different names in different cultures and countries. The Middle East is the current focus of this chaos as we see tactics from earlier wars applied and revised to kill in a more efficient manner.

In the year of his 25th pontificate, John Paul II said the following words in a talk he delivered on World Peace Day:

"The fratricidal struggle that daily convulses the Holy Land and brings into conflict the forces shaping the immediate future of the Middle East shows clearly the need for men and women who, out of conviction, will implement policies firmly based on the principle of respect for human dignity and human rights...Even when the obstacles and assaults on peace are multiplied we must do everything possible to find peaceful solutions to the many tensions that exist in the world and we must avoid further suffering amongst peoples who are already sorely tried. Human solidarity and justice must prevail!"

We must examine our own consciences as well. We must admit the various prejudices which are deep-seated in our own hearts before we can honestly proceed to the plain of lasting peace. Sentiments harbored against Jews and Arabs, against people of other nationalities, colors, sexual orientations, only fuel the hatred which drops bombs and shoots bullets without remorse. It all starts within our own hearts and only there can all hatred end.

We must all fervently pray for peace, for an end to hatred, for an end to suffering imposed upon others at the hands of others and ourselves. In the words of the psalmist,

"Create in me a clean heart, O God!..... And Your Holy Spirit renew within me!"

Sir David Krakowski, KHS

IN A FLASH

When will you be finished with that project? "I'll be done in a flash." How did the accident happen? "I don't know, it all happened in a flash." How soon can you get here? "I'll be there in a flash." A snap of the finger. The clap of hands. The blink of an eye. A kick in the behind. BOOM! POW! We have so many idioms to describe something that happens quickly, maybe unexpectedly, and in a way that really changes things. One moment, things are this way... The next moment, some other way...

In the 1970s there were two books that were bestsellers and that described some cosmic change in the order of everything on earth and beyond. One was religious, from a fundamentalist perspective, called "The Late Great Planet Earth." It pretended to predict the end of the world by reading certain biblical passages and the newspaper headlines together. The other book was based in pseudo-science, called "Memories of the Future." It pretended to describe the distant past when aliens from other planets visited earth and brought all the amazing math and technology we see evidenced in ancient times.

One book looked at the present and tried to predict the future. The other book looked at the present and tried to describe the past. Both were wrong.

This Sunday, the Church celebrates the Transfiguration of the Lord instead of the usual Sunday readings and prayers. Something happened on that mountain, with Jesus, Moses, and Elijah, and with Peter, James, and John as witnesses. Something amazing and transforming, something that must have affected with the apostles in a way where they may have said to each other, "Before then... And now..."

In allowing his closest followers to witness this transfiguration, Jesus was giving them a glimpse into a glorified future. He knew they would need the strength of this memory so they could endure the trials soon to come. When they would see their Savior dying on the cross, they could at least say to themselves, "Remember when, on that mountain..."

Sixty one years ago today, there was another flash that changed, truly changed, human history. The destructive power of the atom was unleashed on Hiroshima, and again three days later on Nagasaki. One would have thought that the questions of war and peace, conflict and harmony, wealth and poverty, freedom and oppression, would have taken on a different face since then. Unfortunately, the transforming blight flash of Hiroshima/Nagasaki has not done that.

But the transforming flash of Mount Tabor has. This was the flash that allowed the chosen apostles — and still allows us — to look to the past and glimpse the future. It is a flash that has indeed changed the course of human history. And if it seems not to have had much effect in the world, perhaps that is because it has not had much effect on us. When we take our walk through the hard times in the present, we need to actively recall the glory of the Risen Lord, who has conquered sin and death and whose victory has already claimed us. Yet while we await its fulfillment, we are called also to set our sights away from the mountaintop and back the valley where we live our lives renewed in hope.

Fr. Michael

ZACHWYCENI TAJEMNICĄ I PIĘKNEM PANA

Jezus na Górze Tabor ukazuje uczniom swoje piękno i swoją chwałę. Odśłania tajemnicę prawdziwej wielkości-tajemnicę swego Bóstwa. Pytamy dlaczego?

Mistrz z Nazaretu pragnie umocnić wiarę swoich uczniów. Przygotować ich na trudne godziny próby: na czas swojego konania i śmierci. Wiara podobnie jak miłość rodzi się z zachwytu. Zachwyt pięknem. Radość przeżywana w momencie, gdy odkrywamy bogactwo, którego się nie spodziewamy. Zniewalająca jest moc oczarowania, dotknięcia łaską piękną. Zachwyt jest potężnym uczuciem, rodzi miłość. Zakochani i święci są zawsze zachwyceni. Zachwyt czyni wrażliwym i silnym. Człowiek zachwycony potrafi zgodzić się na cierpienie, ofiarę, pójść do końca za Tym, który go porwał swą niezwykłością, jest zdolny do największych wyrzeczeń.

Przemienienie Pańskie odśłania prawdę, że Bóg jest o wiele piękniejszy i bogatszy niż przypuszczamy. Jakże powiesz chowne jest to co możemy o Nim powiedzieć. Być może nam również wydaje się, że znamy Go dobrze, bo czytamy Ewangelię, modlimy się, uczestniczymy we mszy świętej w każdą niedzielę. Zdarza się jednak, że i nam dana jest łaska Góry Tabor: łaska zachwycenia i olśnienia Chrystusem, doświadczenie, które pomaga nam raz jeszcze odkryć jak bardzo Pan Bog jest niezwykle, nowy, nieoczekiwany, że wychodzi poza schemat, poza spodziewane konwencjonalne gesty i słowa. Objawia swoją potęgę w sposób zupełnie dla nas nieprzewidywalny. Jak mówił Papież Jan Paweł II: "Tam gdzie dotykamy naszych granic, tam, gdzie czujemy naszą ograniczoność, Bóg jest u początku."

Oto Bóg ukazuje nam piękne oblicze Chrystusa, lśniącego, młode, pełne uroku. Nie wolno nam, chrześcijanom, zapominać o tym chwalebny obliczu Pana. Ale nie wolno nam też zapomnieć, że Jezus miał jeszcze inne oblicze: oplute, sponiewierane, wykrzywione z bólu, zakrwawione. Jakże trudno będzie zobaczyć Apostołom i nam blask tego oblicza w godzinie wyroku, odrzucenia i śmierci. Jakże trudno w cierpieniu uwirzyć i wytrwać. Mamy w naszym życiu być wierni jednemu i drugiemu obliczu, one są nierozdzielne

Góra Tabor, góra zachwytu i młodości Boga. To Góra, na której Pan nie pozwala, aby zestarzała się nasza wiara, broni jej przed kurzem przyzwyczajęń, przed rutyną i marazmem, zachęca do wciąż nowych poszukiwań, dlatego trzeba nam prosić boga aby naszym sercom pozwolił zachwycić się sobą, by dał nam łaskę wierności w naszym zachwycie. Niech blask, którym pociąga nas do siebie odbije się w naszych oczach i duszy, tak abysmy stawali się świadkami Dobrej Nowiny dla wszystkich, których spotykamy na naszej drodze, gdyż prawdziwe spotkanie z Chrystusem nie może ograniczyć do mojego własnego przeżycia, chcę się nim dzielić z drugim człowiekiem, zwłaszcza z tym, który poprzez różne sytuacje życiowe oddalił się od Chrystusa albo nie zna go wcale.

ST. STANS HISTORICAL FACT

Upon the dedication of our church in 1891 the Plain Dealer reported, "A grand parade proceeded the dedication. The Knights of St. Casimir headed by the Polish Star Band and a detachment of cavalry, the Knights of St. Michael headed by the Bohemian Band, the Society of St. Vincent dePaul, the Society of the Sacred Heart, and the Society of St. Joseph all numbering about 600 people paraded through the streets of Newburgh and at 11 o'clock drew up in front of the church. Shortly thereafter Mgr. Boff and Mgr. Thorpe arrived in a carriage drawn by four white horses. The Parish Directors under the charge of Michael Kniola ranged themselves around the church while the priests blessed it and soldiers fired several volleys of musketry. At 11:30 the order was given to open the doors of the church. "

Pictured above are some of our hard working volunteer ticket stuffers. By now most of our parishioners should have received their raffle tickets in the mail. If you didn't please call the rectory 216-341-9091. THANK YOU, THANK YOU to our volunteer ticket stuffers who spent Monday and Tuesday of last week to prepare the mailing of nearly 1600 envelopes. We appreciate the giving of your valuable time for this most important part of our Polish Festival. May God Bless All of You.

FESTIVAL NEWS

Raffle Prizes Needed

One of the many fun things to do at the festival is our Games of Chance booth. We have many great prizes that get donated every year. Although we do have some great prizes left over from last year, we still need to restock. So any type of prizes from stuffed animals, board games, dolls, trucks or adult prizes can be of great use. Please bring them to the rectory during office hours or bring them to church and give them to either of the priests or ushers at your Mass.

Remember to contact Marilyn Mosinski at 216-441-1533 or Joe Calamante at 216-271-0832 with any questions or concerns regarding the festival.
