ST. STANISLAUS
 SHRINE SHOPPE
 Open during summer!

The Mother of God Sleeps...

“Christ was raised in glory to the right hand of the Father, while Mary herself would be raised to that same glory in the assumption, enjoying beforehand, by a unique privilege, the destiny reserved for all the just at the resurrection of the dead.” (Rosarium Virginis Mariae, John Paul II)

This coming Tuesday we celebrate the feast of the passing of our Blessed Mother from this life into the next. The Church has commemorated this event since her earliest days, but it was not until November 1, 1950 that the truth of the Assumption of Mary was actually defined by Pius XII. “Preserved free from all guilt of original sin, the Immaculate Virgin was taken up body and soul into heavenly glory upon the completion of her earthly sojourn. She was exalted by the Lord as the Queen of the Universe, in order that she might be more thoroughly conformed to her Son, the Lord of lords (cf. Rev. 19:16) and the conqueror of sin and death.”

(Lumen Gentium; Munificentissimus Deus)

As is the tradition her at the Shrine of St. Stanislaus, the blessing of flowers and herbs will take place in conjunction with this feast, this year on the evening of August 15th at 6:30 p.m., following the Polish Mass and preceding the English Mass, thus allowing those who wish to attend to participate in this special devotion.

While many view this tradition as specifically Polish, its origin is even older, springing forth along with various interesting accounts regarding the actual transitus of the Virgin. The Taize style service we will have that evening will draw from many traditions dating back vary near the time of the actual events (biblical) to accounts developed within the various middle eastern cultures (e.g. Syrian, Greek) which colorfully try to capture the wondrous happenings. The following is a quote from the Byzantine tradition which relies on those sources, offering you a sample of the prayers you will hear and partake in if you are able to attend this service.

“The Holy Apostles were taken up from every corner of the world and carried upon clouds by order of God. (n.b. some of these apostles were already dead and had risen from their graves to specifically attend this event) They gathered around your pure remains, O Source of Life, and kissed them with reverence. As for the most sublime powers of heaven, they came with their own Leader to escort and to pay their last respects to the most honorable body that had contained Life Itself. Filled with awe, they marched together with the Apostles in silent majesty, professing to the Princes of heaven in a hushed voice “Behold, the Queen of all, the divine maiden is coming! Lift up your gates and receiving with becoming majesty the Mother of the Light that never fades, because through her salvation was made possible for our human race! ...To you we sing a hymn of glory with loud and joyful voices, now and forever!”

THANK YOU FOR YOUR GENEROSITY

CRAZY, OR WHAT?

It started six years ago, when Fr. Greg Plata, OFM was our vocation director and paid a visit to our parish. At a special breakfast we hosted for some of the boys in our parish, Fr. Greg chatted about all kinds of things — including asking the question, “How many of you guys like to fish?” Well, the hands shot up quick as a fish can bite a hook. Mind, you, hardly any of these kids had ever even seen a fishing pole, let alone having actually gone fishing! Well, Fr. Greg mentioned that our Franciscan community has a rustic fishing villa in the north woods of Wisconsin, and maybe Fr. Mike could some day take them up there and join with Fr. Greg for a fishing trip / youth retreat.

That’s all it took. When the kids left, I wanted to hit Fr. Greg in the head! You can’t just tell kids you’re going to do something, and then not do it. So, we were committed. The following summer we made our first trip up north and had a wonderful time. On the way back, the guys were so excited that they asked if they could start a club and maybe plan to do it again. Thus, the “Lil Bros” were born.

The club generally meets the first Sunday of each month. Every meeting includes food (of course), some prayer time, planning activities, and some recreation like basketball or a movie. The club is open to Catholic boys between grades seven and twelve, and some of the “alumni” come around from time to time as well. They have to attend Mass regularly, be of service to others, and be interested in learning more about our Franciscan community. Over the past six years, perhaps fifty or sixty guys have passed through some time of belonging.

Three years ago, when I became pastor, some good friends asked me if I was going to continue to do this. After all, the job of the pastor is bigger and takes more time. But when I told some friends that I was still going to plan the annual trip, they asked, “Are you crazy, or what?”

Maybe. Each year, as the departure date draws near, I ask myself the same thing — why am I still doing this? But when the morning arrives, and the van is filled with excitement and anticipation, then it all comes together. Although it’s not exactly a vacation to watch over a dozen teenagers for a week, still there are moments of real peacefulness along the banks of the Menominee River. Morning Mass together, sharing in the cooking and cleanup, nightly bonfires, and special times for prayer and spontaneous faith sharing (although the kids probably wouldn’t call it that...) are part of what makes the trip so special. On the way home, we stop at the cemetery in Pulaski and pray for Fr. William and Fr. Alcuin, and our last night is an annual volleyball game with the novices in Cedar Lake, Indiana.

I’m not sure if we will get any Franciscan vocations out of this, although it would be nice. But it is the Lord who makes that call, not Fr. Mike, not the fish in Wisconsin. In the meantime, we are providing some of our young people with lasting and wonderful memories, memories that include prayer, faith, and fraternity. Already some of the young men recall these friendships as among the most important in their lives. And that’s got to be worth something.

Fr. Michael

Nasze zycie chrzescijanskie

Kolejna niedziela, można by powiedzieć, że to nic szczególnego, jak co tydzień-niedziela. Przychodzimy Panie do Ciebie by podziękować za to wszystko czym nas obdarzyłeś w tym tygodniu. Przychodzimy Ci prosić, abys nas umocnił. Znamy bardzo dobrze nasze słabości; wiemy, że tylko z Toba możemy podoląć temu, co przynosi kolejne dni.

Jeżus zna nasze potrzeby, On chce nam pomóc, wie, że jesteśmy słabi. Dzisiejsza ewangelia przedstawia rozmowę Pana Jezusa z Żydami, słysząc bądź też czytając ten dialog, może zadajemy sobie pytanie: jak to możliwe, że oni ciągle nie wierzyli powatpiewali? Przecież widzieli na własne oczy to wszystko, co Pan Jezus czynił wśród nich, cudowne uzdrowienia, rozmnożenie chleba i wiele innych cudów. A jednak ciągle powatpiewali, czy to na prawdę jest Mesjasz, który zstąpił z nieba. Najprawdopodobniej zabrakło dobrej woli, serca pozosały zamknięte, nie chcieli nic zmienić w swoim postępowaniu.

Być chrzescijaninem to znaczy wyrzec się swojej woli, szukać tego, co jest zgodne z wolą Bożą. Trzeba wyrzec się tego wszystkiego, co jest grzechem. Paweł Apostoł, w dzisiejszym drugim czytaniu mówi: Niech zniknie spośród was wszelka gorycz, uniesienie, gniew, wrzaskliwość wraz ze wszelką złością. Badzcie dla siebie nawzajem dobrzy i miłosierni. Sami dobrze wiemy, że nie jest łatwo wprowadzić w życie to wszystko, co rzadzi św. Paweł. Dlatego często stawiamy pytanie czy rzeczywiście warto być chrzescijaninem? Chrystus w dzisiejszej Ewangelii mówi: Zaprawdę, zaprawdę powiadam wam: kto we mnie wierzy, ma życie wieczne - J6, 49. To jest chyba najlepsza odpowiedź na nasze wątpliwości. Czy istnieje większy dar niż życie wieczne? Będziemy żyć z Panem Bogiem na zawsze, przez całą wieczność. A więc warto być chrzescijaninem by otrzymać taki dar. Nikt inny tylko Bóg może udzielić tego daru. I nie zależy on od tego, ile posiadamy, jaki mamy kolor skóry czy wykształcenie. Pan Bóg przygotował ten dar dla wszystkich. Chciejmy go zatem wziąć! Przecież życie chrzescijanina jest piękne, kierując się tym wszystkim, co mówił Jezus, wprowadzając w czyn jego słowa.

Te wskazania, które nam zostawił są dla naszego dobra. Czyż życie bez gniewu nie jest piękne? Przecież dobroć, miłosierdzie, miłość bliźniego są źródłem prawdziwej radości. To przynosi chrzescijanstwo, spróbujmy tak żyć! Jeśli nie zawsze udaje się tak żyć, jeśli nawet upadniemy, to zawsze możemy wrócić do Jezusa. On zna nasze słabości, dlatego zostawił nam sakrament pojednania. Wiedział, że jesteśmy słabi dlatego zostawił nam pokarm: Ja jestem chlebem żywym, który zstąpił z nieba. Jeśli kto spożywa ten chleb, będzie żył na wieki Chlebem, który ja dam, jest moje ciało za życie - J6, 50. Nie bójmy się przyjąć tego daru. Może trzeba będzie zrezygnować z niektórych swoich przyzwyczajen, ale nie bójmy się tego uczynić, gdyż naprawdę. Tego daru nie można zmarnować, nie można go też nabyć w żaden inny sposób. Żyjąc po chrzescijansku wraz z Bogiem tu na ziemi, będziemy mogli żyć wraz z Nim w wieczności, gdyż on nam to obiecał!

THE MEMORIAL BRICKS

All those who have ordered memorial bricks for the St. Stanislaus "Peace Garden" will be able to see them installed if they take a walk through the garden. We are now taking orders for the next installation before winter.

ST. VINCENT DEPAUL SOCIETY

The food pantry of the Ozanam Center is in need of the following items: canned soup, canned fruit, canned vegetables, pork and beans, spaghetti sauce, pasta, rice, applesauce, crackers and toilet tissue. The Center would also like donations of plastic and paper bags. Drop these items off at the Rectory or at the Center on Saturdays between 10 am and 2 pm. The Ozanam Center, located at the corner of Broadway and Harvard, serves the poor and needy of the Slavic Village Community by providing food, clothing and limited financial assistance. Please be generous.

ST. STANS HIGH CLASS OF 1956 REUNION.

The St. Stanislaus High School Class of 1956 will hold their "50th" Class Reunion on September 24, 2006 at Toscana Party Center in Cuyahoga Heights. Call Mary Ann Anselmo at 216-524-1202 for further information.

ST. STANS HISTORICAL FACT

The Sanctuary lights which hang on the wall on two sides of the altar signify the presence of the Blessed Sacrament. The Sanctuary lamp used to be one piece and was suspended from the ceiling of the Sanctuary. The lamp was cut in two in the late sixties to early seventies and placed on the Sanctuary walls. The lamps are decorated with hand tooled silver statues of the twelve apostles.

AVILAS

Wouldn't it be great to join a group that has no meetings, no fund raisers, and no membership dues—whose primary purpose is to get together once a month to pray for the future of the Catholic Church?

Well there is a group in our parish — the Avilas. This group of women and men pray for vocations to the vowed and ordained ways of life, and perseverance of those who have already embraced these special ways of serving God.

The Avilas meet in Church on the 2nd Monday after the 8:30 Mass. For those who cannot make it to Church, you may participate in this prayer effort at home.

If you are interested in this very important work of the Church, please contact Lucille Patrick 216-475-8864. The Avilas would like very much to have you as part of their Holy Hour Group. Join them this Monday and pray that God may bless his Church and its servants.

BLESSING OF FLOWERS

On Tuesday August 15th, the Shrine Church of St. Stanislaus will celebrate the Feast of the Assumption/Dormition of Mary with two additional evening liturgies at 5:30 PM (Polish) and 7:00 PM (English). In between these two Masses at 6:30 PM there will be a Taize Service centered around this feast, with the customary covering of Our Lady with rose petals (the tradition being that after Mary was assumed into heaven, roses were left behind), as well as the blessing of flowers brought by the congregation. For more information please call the Shrine at 216-341-9091.

FESTIVAL NEWS

Baskets:

Our theme basket booth is always a success! Our parishioners donate such creative baskets that all of our guests at the festival spend lots of money to win one. We are asking you to start gathering your theme basket today. (Theme baskets can be anything from your favorite teams, favorite foods or a collection of items to accent a room in a home). We have several empty baskets in the vestibule of the church, please feel free to take as many as you like to use for your themed baskets. We do need all completed baskets for the festival brought to the church by October 1st

Raffle Prizes Needed

One of the many fun things to do at the festival is our Games of Chance booth. We have many great prizes that get donated every year. Although we do have some great prizes left over from last year, we still need to restock. So any type of prizes from stuffed animals, board games, dolls, trucks or adult prizes can be of great use. Please bring them to the rectory during office hours or bring them to church and give them to either of the priests or ushers at your Mass.

Remember to contact Marilyn Mosinski at 216-441-1533 or Joe Calamante at 216-271-0832 with any questions or concerns regarding the festival.

IT'S BACK TO SCHOOL TIME . . .

As school bells are ringing again this year, head off to buy your school supplies and school clothes armed with your Manna cards. Get your school supplies at Office Max, Drug Mart, or Walgreens; get your school clothes from J. C. Penney's, Kohl's, the Gap, or Old Navy. There are so many choices! Order today so you can shop for your school needs! Every dollar you spend using your Manna card benefits our parish.

Remember, Giant Eagle is offering double fuel perks through September 6. For every $50 you spend at Giant Eagle, you will earn 20 cents in fuel perks. What a great way to use your Giant Eagle Manna cards! Stock up on the staples you need, earn fuel perks for yourself, and make a donation to the church! Order your Giant Eagle cards now so you have plenty of time to shop during the next month.

BAPTISM PREPARATION CLASS. The next class is on Sep. 10, 1:00 PM, at Our Lady of Lourdes. Call 641-2829 to register.
