“Parvuli diligite vos”

This week I thought we’d explore yet another of our fabulous church windows, the window which at first glance, looks as though it might be dedicated to the Good Shepherd. There you see Jesus sitting with a lamb on his lap. He seems to be directing a writer, St. John the Evangelist, to enscribe some thoughts into his book. The words which are printed on the open pages read “parvulis diligite vos” a rough translation being the “care for your children.” However, as we look closer at the scene, not only do we see all kinds of children, children who are playing instruments, playing with animals, listening to Jesus and reading from a book, the mystery begins to unravel a little more, for the next person in the scene is that of St. John Baptist de la Salle.

St. John Baptist de la Salle was the founder of a world wide movement for the education of the poorest of the poor. That might not sound so unusual in itself save for the fact that back in the times of St. John (i.e., the 17th century) education for the poor was not a common event, in fact it was considered ridiculous. The idea of spending time and resources on people who really weren’t expected to accomplish more in life other than perform manual labor seemed an extravagance. But St. John dedicated his life to changing that situation leading him to prepare teachers and open schools to fulfill his dream of education for the poor.

With this Sunday’s reference to the ‘poor’ let this window be our reminder of the importance they play in the heart of Jesus. See the joy in the faces of these children, their innocence and freedom and happiness all such attractive traits. Those few brave souls who attend the weekday 8:30 Liturgies get to experience this youthful ‘joy’ regularly. The Good Shepherd watches over them, protects them and sets them as living and breathing examples for us to follow, to care for and to learn from.

ELECTIONS, AND THE END OF THE WORLD

For the next few weeks, we are going to be bombarded with campaign ads on TV, radio, billboards, and anything that will hold a poster. Ohio is being watched by the entire country, since we were the decisive state in the last presidential election. The state has been dominated by the Republican party for years, and some people think that the Republicans are in for trouble this election cycle.

Whatever.

Recently a group of parishioners was sitting around and wondering how to vote in the upcoming election. They know they need to vote, and that the gift of democracy (which people are fighting and dying over) is something that has to be used in order to be worthwhile. But they are tired of the relentless ads, all of which seem to be attacks instead of enlightenment.

In some ways, that's part of what a hot political climate is like, and has been for decades. Well, at least we're not shooting each other over it. Yet. As a voter myself, I am entitled to have political views and to vote according to them. As a Catholic priest, however, there are limitations on what I can advocate from the pulpit and in the name of the church.

Don't vote based on who you think will bring about the end of the world!

While some people feel offended by that limitation, I respect it entirely. As much as we struggle with how to balance it, the separation of church and state is one of the notions that keeps us from becoming a theocracy — a religious state run by clerics.

We see how that kind of system works in other countries, and we are fighting wars to prevent it. What is even more sinister, however, is the way that our own country is slowly sliding toward the same kind of approach to religion and government. Just substitute "Christian" for "Muslim," and many of our citizens would be happy to have a religious state.

Not me.

Recently it was in the news that a Christian preacher from somewhere in Texas is flying around in his 747 jumbo jet, telling people to vote the Republicans out of office because their policies are slowing down the Second Coming of Christ. He wants people to vote in a way that he thinks will hasten the end of the world. Now, you can like the Republicans or not like them, but please don't vote based on who you think will bring about the end of the world!

Voting is a right. It is also a duty. Also, it is a responsibility. As Catholics, we are called to look at our public life in the light of the Gospel of Jesus Christ. We are asked to know the teaching of our Church in the principles of faith and morals, and we are empowered to make the best prudential judgment based on our careful and prayerful discernment.

Or, we go into the polling booths, hold our noses, and vote.

Either way, as Christian adults we are entrusted with a great deal of responsibility. People are literally dying to have a chance to vote, and others are killing them for trying. Think of that when November comes.

RÓZANIEC:

Kontemplowaæ Chrystusa z Maryj¹.

W poprzednim tygodniu pisa²erm o rózańcu jako modlitwa kontemplacyjna. W tym tygodniu mam zamiar kontynuowaæ ten temat, u¿ywaj¹c list Papie¿a Jana Paw³a o Ró¿ancu.

Kiedy odmawiamy ró¿aniec mamy kontemplowaæ tylko jednego, to jest, Jezusa Chrystusa, naszego wzora i zbawiciela. "Maryja jest niedoœignionym wzorem kontemplacji Chrystusa." (#10) "Maryja ¿yje z oczyma zwróconymi na Chrystusa i skarbi sobie ka¿de go jego s³owo. Wspomnienia o Jezusie, wyryte w Jej duszy, towarzyszyły Jej w ka¿dej okolicznosci, sprawiajac, ze powracała mysla do ró¿nych chwil swego zycia obok Syna. To te wspomnienia stanowiły niejako 'ró¿aniec', który Ona sama nieustannie odmawiała w dniach swego ziemskiego zycia" (#11). "Ró¿aniec, wlasnie wychodzjac z doswiadczenia Maryi, jest modlitwa wyraznie kontemplacyjna" (#12).

Uczymy siê Chrystusa (nie tylko o Chrystusie) od Maryi. „Nie chodzi jedynie o nauczanie sie tego, co glosil, ale o 'nauczanie sie Jego samego'. Jakaz nauczycielka bylaby w tym bieglesza niz Maryja? Jesli ze strony Boga to Duch Swiety jest wewnetrznym Nauczycielem, który prowadzi nas do pelnej prawdy o Chrystusie (por. J 14, 26; 15, 26; 16, 13), wśród istot stworzonych nikt lepiej od Niej nie zna Chrystusa; nikt nie moze, tak jak Matka, wprowadzic nas w gleboka znajomosc Jego misterium ... Szkola Maryi okazuje sie tym skuteczniejsza, jesli pomyslec, ze prowadzi ja Ta, która uzyskuje dla nas w obfitosci dary Ducha Swietego, a zarazem daje nam przyklad owej « pielgrzymki wiary », w której jest niezrównana Mistrzynie" (14).

Cel kontemplacji Chrystusa jest upodabniaæ siê do Chrystusa z Maryj¹. „Gdy chodzi o ten proces upodabniania sie do Chrystusa przez ró¿aniec, zawierzamy sie szczególnie macierzynskiemu dzialaniu Najswietszej Dziewicy. Ta, która jest Rodzicielka Chrystusa, sama nalezac do Kosciola jako jego « najzna-komitszy i calkiem szczególny czlonek », jest równocześnie 'Matka Kosciola'. Bedac nia, ustawicznie 'rodzi' dzieci mistycznego Ciala swego Syna. Czyni to poprzez wstawienstwo, wypraszajac dla nich niewyczerpane wylanie Ducha. Jest Ona doskonała ikona macierzynstwa Kosciola ... Ró¿aniec przenosi nas mistycznie, bysmy staneli u boku Maryi, troszczacej sie o ludzkie wzrastanie Chrystusa w domu w Nazarecie. Pozwala Jej to wychowywac nas i ksztaltowac z ta sama pieczolowitoscia, dopóki Chrystus w pelni sie w nas nie « ukszaltuje » (por. Ga 4, 19). To dzialanie Maryi, oparte calkowicie na dzialaniu Chrystusa i zupełnie Mu podporzadkowane, « nie przeszkadza w zaden sposób bezposredniej lacznosci wiernych z Chrystusem, ale ja umacnia ». ... Ró¿aniec jest jedna z tradycyjnych dróg modlitwy chrzescijanskiej stosowanej do kontemplowania oblicza Chrystusa. ... Nigdzie drogi Chrystusa i Maryi nie jawia sie tak scisle zlaczone, jak w ró¿ancu. Maryja zyje tylko i wylaczenie w Chrystusie i ze wzgledu na Chrystusa!" (15)

„Ró¿aniec jest takze droga gloszenia i zglebiania misterium Chrystusa... . Matka Boza Ró¿ancowa równiez w ten sposób prowadzi dalej swe dzieło gloszenia Chrystusa" (17)

Pokój i dobro! O. Kamil

ST. STANS HISTORICAL FACT

In the school year of 1914-15, twenty-four Sisters of the Holy Family of Nazareth staffed the school which had a total of 1,668 children. This caused overcrowded conditions especially in the lower grades. In the eighth grade there were only twenty six students. When the school enrollment reached 2,000 in 1915, there were 500 children in the basement divided into seven classes. The peak years of enrollment were in the 1930's when the student total was 2,686 in 1933. Forty six Sisters taught in the school.
