Rejoice in the Lord always!

The season of Advent swiftly speeds past us as we anticipate the commemoration of God's incarnation in the feast of Christmas. All month long people have been decorating their homes, attending parties, singing seasonal songs and baking their favorite cookies. The two thousand people who attended concerts last weekend at our church took in the aural and visual beauty of three events, leaving mesmerized by the glorious encounters. The hundred plus people who attended last Monday's Vesper Service with Bishop Pevc here at the Shrine were most inspired as well! Even the eight Polish parishioners who attended the Godzinki on the first Sunday of Advent saw the special quality of our place. They remembered the phrase of Jesus: where two or three of you are gathered together in my name, so am I there...

So now we are moving into the final preparations for this special event. By next Sunday the church will be decorated (but not fully lit until the vigil Mass) thanks to the hard work of many gracious parishioners ranging in age from toddlers to those who often have a difficult time with arthritis. The people who will help decorate and/or fund the enterprise are wonderful! They are so proud to be a part of St. Stanislaus! By the end of the week many will have been inconvenienced and tired. But, by the end of the week this church will again have made a statement of our community's belief in God's greatness and a symbol of thanksgiving to His wondrous love manifested in the incarnation of Jesus.

The narcissus will be blooming, the poinsettias in place. The manger scene will have been arranged and all the trees and garland will fill the space with their fresh pine scent. Next weekend when you come to church you will still have to wait for a few more hours to enjoy the total visual feast and the majestic and mysterious sounds from the choirs and instruments. The waiting will almost be over. When you finally enter the church on Christmas Eve or Christmas Day we hope it will remind you to rejoice in the Lord! We hope that His Spirit will be with you and open your hearts to His love, to His Word made flesh, to Jesus.

David Krakowski

REJOICE!

Gaudete in domino semper! The first sentence of today's reading from Saint Paul, when translated into Latin, gives us the name for this third Sunday in Advent — Gaudete Sunday. Rejoice in the Lord always!

Paul describes an attitude that comes over us when we come to the awareness that the Lord is indeed near to us. Jesus is not a stern taskmaster, just waiting to catch us in a big mistake so that we can get what we deserve. No, Jesus is the one who brings the peace that "surpasses all understanding." We don't run from the Lord in fear. We wait for the Lord in hope. And when he makes himself known to us, we rejoice.

The prophet Zephaniah has another way of looking at this experience of joy. Not only are we called to rejoice in the Lord, but what about the possibility that God can rejoice over us? As odd as that may seem, this is yet what is prophesied in the first reading this weekend. When God comes near to us, He Himself will also rejoice — even to the point of singing a festive song!

All this happiness: we are happy to be near to the Lord, the Lord is happy to be near to us. Can it truly be possible that such mutual and universal happiness can be so available to us? After all, just read the newspaper, watch the news, listen to the gossip at the beauty parlor or in the tavern. There's enough bad news out there to dampen even the liveliest of spirits, whether it is Christmas time or not.

Joy and happiness, rejoicing and celebrating. How dare we? War is raging, people lose their jobs and homes, crime is rampant, yet... Gaudete in domino semper! Families are breaking, youths are despondent, illness is ravaging, yet... Gaudete in domino semper! The future is uncertain, the past is rewritten, the present is murky, yet... Gaudete in domino semper! Christmas is a week away and we're still not ready, bills have to be paid, chores need to be finished, yet... Gaudete in domino semper!

The kind of happiness that the Lord brings is not necessarily the kind that makes us leap and dance. It may not be the kind that evokes a laugh or even a smile. What kind of happiness is it? Let's look to Zephaniah again: The Lord's own happiness is in the renewal of love between God and God's people. God is happy when love is renewed, so we too share in that happiness whenever we experience the renewal of love as well. Advent is the time to set the stage for the possibility of that renewal. We make ourselves ready, then we leave it to God to bring it to completion.

The renewal of love: Old friends send letters to each other after a long silence. Spouses see each other as if for the very first time. Enemies tire of their grudges against each other. Someone in need is unexpectedly provided for. A child's crayon-and-construction-paper Christmas card graces the refrigerator door, maybe for years after the child has left home. The church pews are filled for at least one day a year. A meal is carefully prepared, lovingly served, and savored over a long time.

This is preparing the way. This is the joy that we wait for, the same joy that also waits for us. Gaudete in domino semper!

Fr. Michael

Największy z ludzi

Podobnie jak w poprzednia niedziele, tak i dzisiaj slyszymy w Ewangeliu o sw. Janie Chrzcielcu. Slusnie czyni Kosciol, ze wlasnie w czasie Adwentu stawia nam przed oczy jego postac. W tym czasie przygotowujemy sie na przyjscie Pana, a Jan jest tym, ktory przygotowal Mu droge. Dlatego ta refleksja bedzie poswiecona jego postaci.

Oto, co o nim podaje encyklopedia: „Sw. Jan Chrzcielc († ok. 32; imie biblijne Jehohanan oznacza Bóg jest laskawy) urodzil sie w Judei, wedlug tradycji w Ain Karim, jako syn kaplana Zachariasza i Elzbiety (Lk 1, 5-80). Byl krewnym Jezusa Chrystusa. W mlodym wieku udal sie na pustynie, gdzie podjal zycie ascety. Na przelomie 28/29 roku nad Jordanem, w poblizu Jerycha, rozpoczel publiczne nauczanie o nadchodzacych Królestwie Bozym oraz udzielal chrztu pokuty. Wskazal na Jezusa jako oczekiwane go Baranka Bozego i nazwal Go Mesjaszem. Uchodzil za proroka, ale Chrystus okreslil go jako kogos wiecej niz proroka, poslanca przed Bogiem. Wystapil przeciw królowi Herodowi Antypasowi, potepiajac jego kazirodcze malzenstwo z Herodiada, bratowa. Zostal przez niego aresztowany i uwiezony w twierdzy Macherontu, a nastepnie sciety. Mial wtedy trzydziestki kilka lat. W Janie Chrzcielcu uderza jego swietosc, zycie pelne ascezy i pokuty, sila charakteru, bezkompromisowosc. Byl pierwszym swietym czczonym w calym Kosciele. Jemu dedykowana jest bazylika rzymska sw. Jana na Lateranie, przy ktorej przez prawie 1000 lat mieli swoja siedzibe papieze.”

Tyle encyklopedia. Najwieksza jego pochwala sa tajemnicze slowa samego Jezusa: „Zaprawde, powiadam wam: Miedzy narodzonymi z niewiast nie powstal wiekszy od Jana Chrzcielca.” (Mt 11, 11). Kosciol czci te wielkosc i Jan Chrzcielc jest jedynym obok Jezusa i Matki Najswietszej swietym, ktorego swieto przypada na dzien urodzin (24 czerwca). Regula jest bowiem, ze dany swiety jest czczony wspomnieniem w dzien narodzin dla nieba, czyli w dzien smierci. Takie dzien ma rowniez wielki Poprzednik Jezusa, bo przeciez 29 sierpnia Kosciol wspomina jego mecenstwo. Dlaczego tak? Moze dlatego, ze urodzil sie on bez grzechu pierwotnego. Skad o tym wiemy? Z Ewangeliu wg sw. Lukasza. Bozy poslaniec obiecal Zachariaszowi, ze jego syn juz w lonie matki zostanie napelniony Duchem Swietym (Lk 1, 15). A tam, gdzie jest Duch Swiety, tam nie ma grzechu. Za sprawa szczegolnej laski Bozej zostal on uswiecony jeszcze w lonie swej matki, kiedy przybyla do domu jego rodzicow przybyla Maryja noszaca juz pod swoim sercem Jezusa. Inni ludzie potrzebowali i potrzebuja byc ochrzczeni dla zgladzenia grzechu pierwotnego. Syn Elzbiety i Zachariasza byl tu jedynym wyjatkiem. Urodzil sie juz w stanie laski uswiecajacej.

Aniol poslany do Zachariasza obiecal mu, ze narodziny jego syna byla dla niego i dla wielu innych zrodlem radosci. Ten watek pasuje do przeslania czytanej dzisiejszej niedzieli. Wzywaja one bowiem do radosci. „Wyspiwuj, Córó Syjonska! Podnies radosny okrzyk, Izraelu!” (pierwsze czytanie). „Radujcie sie zawsze w Panu; jeszcze raz powtarzam: radujcie sie!” (drugie czytanie). Radujmy sie, bo Pan jest juz blisko! On przychodzi, aby nas zbawic.

ST. STANS HISTORICAL FACT

On July 21, 2000 the west bell tower of our church was struck by lightning. Pieces of the bell tower fell to the ground and debris littered the surrounding area. The strange part of this was that it was a sunny day. One of the parapets on the tower was knocked off. It was replaced and one can see the replacement as the lightest one of the parapets. No one was injured in the freak accident but heavy masonry fell and hit the westernmost front stairs of the church causing damage to the steps and the railing. The church roof was not damaged. There was extensive damage to the parapet, brickwork, railing, and sidewalk.

The Good Shepherd Pre-School Religion Program at St. Stan's treated their young charges to a puppet pageant on St. Nicholas and the tradition surrounding his feast day. Children leave their shoes by their bedroom doors on the Eve of St. Nicholas Day and find them filled with treats in the morning.
