The Feast of the Incarnation

And so we say Merry Christmas almost as easily as we say Hello to strangers, friends and family alike. But does this salutation really not stand for much more than a simple greeting? The event we are commemorating this December 25th is not simply the birthday of a little baby. If we start thinking along those terms the entire event becomes a saccharine, melancholy gathering of friends who like glitzy decorations, hearty food and festive drinks and view the nativity scene as a cute little tableau for children to see.

Yes, this is a time of commemorating a most sacred event in the history of humanity. This is a time of remembering the point in time when God became a human being. This is a time of celebrating God's love for humanity. Not to say that any birth is not as important inasmuch as it exhibits the miracle of life. This particular event, what we know in our culture as Christmas retains that same special character in addition to the aforementioned aspects.

The great mystery of the Word made flesh shows us how special we are. God's decision to become a human being (as opposed to an Angel) is most frightening to contemplate. This decision flowed from His essence, Love. God's being and, now, His becoming in Jesus were never so manifested as now at the moment of Mary's conception. The birth of Jesus became the engagement to all of humanity. The life of Jesus was its courting. The death of Jesus became His wedding with the cross as its ceremonial ring. The resurrection was the proclamation of the entire blessed event celebrating God's love. Taken as a whole, the feast is one as we celebrate the fact of God's passionate love for us in the action of the Mass throughout the year.

On this fest, let us recall the opening words of the fourth Eucharistic prayer, for these words summarize the true meaning of this feast, these words are the long form of our salutation: Merry Christmas!

"Father, we acknowledge Your greatness; all Your actions show Your wisdom and love. You formed man in Your own likeness and set him over the whole world to serve You, his Creator, and to rule over all creatures. Even when he disobeyed You and lost Your friendship You did not abandon him to the power of death, but helped all men to seek and find You. Again and again You offered a covenant to man. And through the prophets taught him to hope for salvation. Father, You so loved the world that in the fullness of time You sent Your only Son to be our Savior. He was conceived through the power of the Holy Spirit, and born of the Virgin Mary, a man like us in all things but sin. To the poor He proclaimed the good news of salvation, to prisoners, freedom, and to those in sorrow, joy."

Why Was Jesus Born?

Another way of putting this question is: why did the Word of God, the second person of the Blessed Trinity, become human in Jesus?

The question and the answer are important for us followers of Jesus because they can direct and shape our lives. Each of us is to become like Jesus, so that God the Father sees in us only one begotten Son, Jesus.

The answer to the question posed in the title and within the article is simple and straightforward: The word of God became human out of love in order to teach us what is love and how to love. God could have taught us how to love by words as a teacher teaches his students. However, God chose to incarnate (put flesh on) that word in the person of Jesus the Christ. This is as personal as God could have become to us. The Trinitarian God, who is love, personalized that love in the person of Jesus.

One of the effects of the incarnation of the Word of God in Jesus is the reminder and realization that true love is personal, it flows from and to the person of the other. This means that each of us who loves is responsible for the personalized gift of love, which we have received in and through Jesus the Christ. His birth out of love and for love enables to live out of love and for love. St. John put it this way: "In this the love of God was made manifest among us, that God sent His only Son into the world, so that we might live through him" (1 Jn.4:9) Because of this love we can and must love one another as He loved us (Jn 15:12) Because of this love we can and must love not only friends but enemies as well.

Since love prompts love to act — irrespective of the circumstances — a good number of the Franciscan theologians believed that even if Adam and Eve had not sinned, the word of God in Jesus the Christ would have become human and dwelt among us. Why? To be our model and inspiration of loving. Jesus would have been — as he is even in view of the sinfulness of human beings — the way to truth and to life.. He is the only mediator between human beings and God. No one can come to the Father except through Jesus. The sinfulness of Adam and Eve did not deter God to change His plans. Rather, God's plan to love — even sinful human beings — became more evident than if human beings would not have sinned. "God so loved the world that he sent his only begotten Son as an expiation for our sins" (Jn 3:16; Jn.4:10; 4:14; 3:5) . Sin did and does NOT prompt God to act. Love alone did and does.

The birth of Jesus primarily has to do with love, as does the birth of any child. No matter what kind of skin color, ethnic background or body features a human child may have, it's heart is made for loving as God loves. As long as a human being can love that being is human and worthy of life.

The love which Jesus personalized through his birth was a reconciling , healing and unifying love. It was open to every needy person.

Since we are recipients and participants of that personalized love of God we, too, are expected to be reconciling, healing and unifying lovers open to all peoples.

Peace and Good! Fr. Cam

Przesłanie z Betlejem

Dzisiaj miasto Betlejem jest na skraju bankructwa. Władzom miasta brakuje pieniędzy na opłacenie urzędników. Ponad 60 procent ludzi zdolnych do pracy jest bezrobotnych. Wskutek postawienia murów i scisłych kontroli granicznych, przybywa tam tylko około kilku tysięcy pielgrzymów rocznie. Dla porównania: w roku 2000 było ich kilkadziesiąt tysięcy. A jednak to wszystko nie zmienia faktu, że to właśnie z tego udrezonego miasteczka wyszła radosna dla całego świata nowina: „Nie bójcie się! Oto zwiastuje wam radość wielką, która będzie udziałem całego narodu: dziś w mieście Dawida narodził się wam Zbawiciel, którym jest Mesjasz, Pan. A to będzie znakiem dla was: Znajdziecie Niemowlę, owinięte w pieluszki i leżące w żłobie.”

Dekret Cezara spowodował, że ludzie w całym imperium posłusznie przemieszczały się. Rozprawiali pewnie o polityce, narzekali na cezara, który naraził ich na liczne niewygody. Tymczasem gdy oni rozprawiali o „wielkich rzeczach, Pan przyszedł na świat w jakimś nie mającym znaczenia zakatku, na dodatek w szopie. Taka jest logika Boża: wielkie rzeczy dzieją się często tam, gdzie świat nie zwraca swego wzroku.

Tak, Pan przychodził w ludzkiej postaci, w osobie bezbronnego dziecka potrzebującego opieki i czułości, niszczy nasze stereotypy, stawia na głowie nasze postrzeganie świata. To, co dla świata jest wielkie, nagle staje się małe, a małe i pogardzane w oczach świata nabiera znaczenia, staje się wielkie, a nawet, o dziwo! - otoczone chwałą. Boże Narodzenie uczy nas nie przeceniać rzeczy światowych. Uczy nas także zaufania do Boga. Bo widzimy, jak Boże plany się wypełniają nawet przy pomocy ludzi, jak Cezar August, który w Boga nie wierzył. Boże prorocтво o narodzeniu Mesjasza w Betlejem wypełnia się przy pomocy potężnego cezara, który choć nieswiadomie, służył spełnieniu się planów Bożych. Tak, nawet i on, najpotężniejszy z ludzi, jest sluga wobec Boga.

Jednak to Jezus jest Sluga Boży par excellence! Dlatego odtąd tytuł „sluga Boży” znaczy coś bardzo pozytywnego. Kościół nadaje tytuł Sluga Boży w dowód uznania świętobliwości osób zmarłych w opinii świętości. Jest to jeden z etapów na drodze do beatyfikacji. Wszyscy w jakiś sposób jesteśmy slugami Boga. Chodzi jednak o to, żeby być nimi z wyboru.

Jezus, Syn Boży staje się i dzieckiem i slugą . Bycie slugą w czasach Jezusa oznaczało nie mieć żadnych praw. Być dzieckiem oznacza być zdany na pomoc innych. Niemowlę pozostawione samo sobie jest skazane na śmierć. Bycie dzieckiem to znaczy być zależnym od innych. Niech to zniszczy w nas pragnienie bycia niezależnym od Boga i Bożego Prawa, pragnienie samowystarczalności, pragnienie panowania nad innymi. Z chwila, kiedy potrafimy to zaakceptować, znajdujemy się na drodze do osiągnięcia prawdziwej wolności i uspokojenia serca.

Właśnie tego życzy wszystkim Czytelnikom tego biuletynu, wszystkim przychodzącym do naszego kościoła i wszystkim naszym Dobroczyńcom. Niech pokój i radość z Bożego Narodzenia będzie Waszym trwałym udziałem. Niech Dzieciatko Jezus Wam błogosławi!

MASS INTENTIONS

Every Mass is celebrated for the sake of the whole Church community, and each person attending brings his or her own prayerful intentions to Mass. The intention of the priest is listed publicly so that everyone else may also join in his intention as well. The whole church joins in remembering deceased loved ones as well as the living who celebrate anniversaries, birthdays, etc. Contact the rectory to reserve a date for 2007.

TREES, TINSEL, TOYS...THANKS!!!

A great big 'thank you' goes out to the many parishioners who helped decorate our beautiful church for this wondrous season! It was great to work with so many families and friends, all who put forth their best to get the job done. While many of the freshly cut trees came from Heritage Farms in Peninsula, a few very special ones came from the yards of two of our parishioners (Anna Lesniak — sanctuary tree, and Jim Wilson — pulpit tree and one of the manger trees). Many people also donated lights, ornaments, ribbons and talents which are all truly appreciated! Some things had been given us to use in previous years and they finally made their way into our decoration plan (e.g. the brass horns from Ken Waters). The generosity many created what you see before your eyes. May God bless everyone who helped beautify His house for this Christmas season!

Vivian Buchanan one of our many worker elves, puts the finishing touches on the candle post Christmas decorations.

THANK YOU FOR THE MANNA

We appreciate all those who have purchased Manna Cards this past year. With your participation the program will continue for 2007. You may order cards next week after the holidays for pick up on January 7th.

ST. STANS HISTORICAL FACT

On December 24, 1980 Brother Fidelis Veselak OFM, longtime sacristan at St. Stanislaus died. "Brother," as he was known affectionately, was blind due to glaucoma in his later years but still carried out his sacristan duties. He knew every inch of the church. Brother crafted the decorations which frame the tabernacle on the main altar from spent flashbulbs from cameras. Brother molded the silver from those bulbs into wheat and angels surrounding the doors of the tabernacle. Many children spent many hours with brother helping him with chores such as making the hosts for Mass. Brother was a holy man who died on Christmas Eve after setting up the Christmas decorations in the church. He went into his room, laid down on his bed, saying the rosary, and went to celebrate Christmas with Jesus in heaven. He was a great example of love for God and this church which has been passed down to the many individuals, who now work as sacristans and church workers in what is now called the Fidelis Society.
