Have You Noticed?

I guess by this time everybody has seen the decorations in the church - the trees, garlands, ornaments, ribbons, candles, manger and, this year, the Christmas/advent wreath. The last item became a part of the scheme out of practicality, there being minimal time between the final Advent liturgy and the first Vigil Mass for Christmas. You probably have noticed the addition of the fifth candle, suspended right in the middle of the wreath, signifying the birth of Christ.

The five candles which are suspended from the wreath are there representing the season of preparation (Advent) as well as the Incarnation, the arrival of the 'Light in the darkness.' Those same five candles normally inhabit yet another area of our church suspended from the tomb of Christ beneath the Altar of the Passion. These lamps, similar to those seen suspended over the birthplace of Jesus in Bethlehem and the site of His tomb in Jerusalem, serve to unify the ritual time of Christ's activity on this earth prior to His resurrection.

We frequently hear associations of lights and colors with the various seasons in the church year or events in our lives. The gold lights on the high altar and other places in the church signified the majesty of Christ. The purple lights mingled with the gold represented his royal lineage. But the purple lights surrounding the names of the deceased service men and women on the Sacred Heart altar had a different effect. There the purple was a tribute to their sacrifice and the ongoing sacrifices of all the soldiers fighting in the war to this very day. Finally we see the white lights surrounding the manger scene, representing the stars in the sky on the night of Christ's birth. The 'big tree' contains all the colors of the rainbow celebrating God's covenant with humanity.

We still have one more week to enjoy these lights....then they will be packed away for yet another year as the Christmas season comes to an end. We'll begin taking down the decorations after the final Epiphany liturgies on January 7th. I hope a few good people will help us with the project as in the past so that all will be neatly packaged for next year. But for now, let's continue to celebrate the season! Let the lights cheer us, the music inspire us, the scents transport us to a world of joy and peace. The world may have stopped celebrating the incarnation days ago, but not us. The feast of the Baptism of Jesus will bring this liturgical season to a close, but we hope that the spirit of the season will remain with us for a long time to come!

Family and HOLY Family

In 1921 Pope Benedict XV introduced the feast of the Holy Family into the liturgical calendar for the universal church. The purpose was to focus on the family, the essential unit of civil society and of the church.

By zeroing in on the family, the pope hoped to focus on the biological family from which the faith family was to grow. Just as eros love is expected to mature into agape love, (according to Pope Benedict XVI) so, too, the biological family unit is to reach its perfection in the faith family. The faith family (the church) is to become the destiny toward which the biological family is to grow. The hope is that the biological family is to become a faith family, whose life, desires and destiny are based on faith. The biological family is to give the faith family a start and an environment in which to flourish.

It is interesting to note that when we speak about the biological family, two members of the family —husband and wife — are not related to each other by blood. The children usually are, but not always. Some are adopted and some have at least one different parent. We refer to them as half brothers and sisters. This means that blood is NOT thicker than water. In fact, friendship can be and in some instances is a "thicker" relationship. Husband and wife and friends and even adopted children can and often do love one another more than biological siblings. Why? True love is learned and needs to be worked on. It is a conscious choice. It is an act of the will. It is not to be presupposed that blood relationships themselves guarantee or promote love. There are not a few children who do not love their biological parents, and there are not a few brothers and sisters who do not love each other.

What are some of the ingredients of a good and wholesome biological family life, which ought to blossom into a faith family? St. Paul comes to our aid when he writes about "the mystery of Christ" in each of us, which is our "hope of glory." In each of us there is the sacred, the divine, the holy. In each baptized person there is the Holy Spirit of God who continues to create, to redeem and to sanctify. We don't know everything about God's living and working in each of us, but we know something. That "something" is Jesus the Christ, who makes known to us the mystery of God. In fact, he is the mystery of God. He is that "hope of glory" toward which we are journeying, which we are already experiencing and which needs to be completed. Believing this we can better relate to one another and thus become a family unity, where respect for one another is based upon the "mystery of Christ." within us and others. We relate with hope toward each member of the family of God, who will complete in each of us what he has begun. That is why we need to put on, as St. Paul, writes, "heartfelt compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness and patience, bearing with one another and forgiving one another, if one has a grievance against another." Then, there is love: "... over all these put on love, that is, the bond of perfection." Finally, there is thanksgiving: "And whatever you do in word and in deed, do everything in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him." This is St. Paul's recipe for a wholesome and holy family life. Peace and Good! fr. Cam

Nowy Rok bieży...

W rytm koledy przychodzi kolejny Nowy Rok w naszym zyciu. Patrzymy na rok miniony i pytamy: Jaki on byl dla nas? Co sie nam udalo zrealizowac, a co nie? I takze patrzmy w przyszlosc, co nam ten Nowy Rok, juz 2007 przyniesie? Co nam przyniesie? Nowy czas to zarazem nadzieje i obawy. U jednych przewazaja te pierwsze, u innych raczej te drugie. Czasopisma przescigaja sie w podawaniu prorocत्व na ten zbliżający sie czas. Staraja sie one odpowiedziec na pragnienie obecne w kazdym z nas, bo chyba kazdy z nas chcialby zajrzec poza te zasłone i znac choc troche ze swojej przyszlosci i ogólnoswiatowych wydarzen, które beda dopiero miały miejsce za jakis czas. Nie wiemy, czy wydarza sie w tym Nowym Roku jakies kataklizmy spowodowane przez nature czy zla wole czlowieka, czy bedzie to rok spokojny i bez wojen.

Dzien 1 stycznia jest dniem modlitw o pokój. Ten fakt uswiadamia nam, ze nie powinniśmy beczynninie przypatrywac sie biegowi historii, ze jesteśmy jej współtwórcami i dlatego tez współodpowiedzialni za losy swiata. Przez modlitwe mozemy pozytywnie wplywac na bieg historii. Ojciec sw. Jan XXIII mawial, ze czlowiek modlacy sie ma wiekszy wplyw na historie, niz ludzie stojacy u wladzy. A my jesteśmy sklonni myslec, ze to własnie oni tworza historie i sa za wszystko odpowiedzialni. Wycofujemy sie do swojego malego swiata, a dla siebie rezerwujemy prawo do narzekania na „wielkich tego swiata”, jesli cos im nie wychodzi.

Matka Boza przychodzaca w Medjugorju przychodzi jako Królowa Pokoju nieustannie wzywajac do modlitwy o pokój. Mówi Ona, ze pokój zaczyna sie w sercu czlowieka i w rodzinie. A jesli nie ma go na swiecie, jest to znakiem, ze brakuje go w ludzkich sercach. To przekonanie potwierdza Pisma sw. Sw. Apostol Jakub pisze w swoim Liscie: Skad Sie biora wojny i skad klótnie miedzy wami? Nie skadinad, tylko z waszych zadz, które walcza w czlonkach waszych (Jak 4, 1). Pan Jezus nazwal „błogoslawionymi” tych, którzy wprowadzaja pokój, „albowiem oni nazwani beda synami Bozymi”. Przez modlitwe o pokój i przez panowanie nad naszymi zadzami przyczyniamy sie do pokoju na swiecie i stajemy sie „synami Bozymi”. Bardzo podoba mi sie to piekne okreslenie Jezusa.

Matka Boza jest Królowa Pokoju. 1 stycznia Kosciól czci Jej uroczystosc. Jest w tym jakas intuicja, zeby rozpoczynac nowy rok z Matka Boza i ten rozpoczynajacy sie czas oddac Bogu przez posrednictwo Matki Jego Syna. Na ten rozpoczynajacy sie czas skladamy sobie zyczenia. Te mysl podejmuje takze Kosciól. W pierwszym czytaniu z uroczystosci czytamy: Niech cie Pan błogoslawi i strzeze. Niech Pan rozpromieni oblicze swe nad toba, niech cie obdarzy swa laska. Niech zwróci ku tobie oblicze swoje i niech cie obdarzy pokojem. Sa to slowa z Ksiegi liczb. Jest to tzw. „błogoslawienstwo Aaronowe”. Bardzo podobny w tresci jest Psalm 67. To błogoslawienstwo przejal sw. Franciszek i tymi slowami błogoslawil swoich braci. Niech to błogoslawienstwo bedzie udzialem wszystkich czytelników „Biuletynu”, naszych parafian i wszystkich naszych dobroczynców.

Niech Bóg Was błogoslawi i strzeze. Amen.
