MASS INTENTIONS

Every Mass is celebrated for the sake of the whole Church community, The intention of the priest is listed publicly so that everyone else may also join in his intention as well. There are still many dates open during Lent and Easter seasons. Contact the rectory to reserve a date for 2007.

The Icon Shrine

Those of you able to come to church this weekend will notice the informative display concerning the 'icon shrine' or the 'kapliczka na ikonę.' This exhibit shows some of the details of the shrine which will shortly be carved and installed in the devotional space in the east transept of the nave.

The wood carver, Timothy Riffle, has spent many hours visiting our Shrine to design a suitable 'throne' for the icon of St. Stanislaus and Servant of God John Paul II. His design was based on the extant neo-gothic woodwork in the church already for the most part, many of the carving on his piece direct quotations from elsewhere within the building. One variation I'd like to point out is the crown directly over the icon itself. There Timothy alludes to another very important piece of architectural art familiar to many Catholics, namely, the baldachium or canopy over the altar in the church of St. John Lateran in Rome, the pope's cathedral as Bishop of Rome (thus, an historical connection with John Paul II).

Another part of the display alludes to the two cases positioned on both sides of the icon, marked on the drawing as 'vota cases' (we assumed that to be the nominative plural of the Latin word votum). A votum in this case refers to a small medallion, generally metal in composition (e.g. silver), which is an offering of thanksgiving for grace or gift received through the intercession of a particular holy person. In our case that could be any number of saints or holy people including Mary, St. Stanislaus, St. Francis, St. Anthony, St. Clare or, yes, John Paul II. Most often these vota are in the shape of a heart. Oftentimes they are inscribed with a message to the intercessor, possibly a message of thanks. Sometimes they are inscribed with words of praise to God, He who ultimately granted the request through the intercession of one of His holy people. Anyone who has ever been to a major shrine would have seen these small tokens of devotion, often along with other items such as jewelry. At times, even the retired limbs or crutches of those healed by miraculous intervention are displayed alongside these. This is all a part of the devotional life of the Church, a proclamation of God's active love and participation in our everyday lives.

Certainly there will be skeptics, even among our own congregation, who might look upon these customs as relics of the past, a little out of step with the contemporary world. This, however, is who we are at St. Stanislaus. We are a people who tend to express our faith in a way conscious of tradition and faith, mindful of the living Spirit and open to the hand of God and the intercession of His saints as part of our everyday existence. "Ask and you shall receive, seek and you shall find....knock and it shall be opened unto you!" I have a feeling that those two 'vota cases' will not remain empty for long!

Blessed are you ...Woe are you!

The gospel selection for this Sunday from Luke speaks about being “blessed” and being “woed.” Without making too many distinctions, let’s interchange the word “blessed” with the word “happy” and the word “woe” with the word “unhappy.” Jesus is talking about being blessed or happy and about woe or unhappy.

According to Jesus, the one sent by God to reveal who God is and what God wills, happiness or the blessed life “can be boiled down to one basic, all-important ATTITUDE that we who believe are called to adopt as the basis of our lives and our faith: Blessed is the one who trusts and hopes in the Lord.” (Sourcebook, 2007, p. 68). In other words, if you are poor, hungry, weeping, or people hate, insult and ostracize you and proscribe your name as evil, you are blessed, that is, IF you have an ATTITUDE of trust and hope in the Lord. The situation in life (e.g., poverty, hunger or persecution) is NOT what makes you blessed. It’s the ATTITUDE (the faith stance of hope and trust) that you have in those circumstances. Conversely, it’s not riches, or plenty, or laughter or people speaking well of you that draw down the “woe” of Jesus. It all depends on your ATTITUDE (faith stance of trust and hope). The situation in life (e.g., riches, plenty, laughter, being spoken of well) is not what makes you “woed.” It’s the ATTITUDE (faith stance of trust and hope) that you have in those circumstances.

ATTITUDE is all-important. Not any kind of ATTITUDE, but an ATTITUDE that is grounded on trust and hope in the Lord. The responsorial psalm refrain summarizes it: “Happy are they who hope in the Lord.” The first reading from Jeremiah reminds the reader and the hearer: “Cursed is the one who trusts in human beings, who seeks ones strength in flesh, whose heart turns away from the Lord.” (Jer. 17: 5)

ATTITUDE is not only a way of thinking but a consequent way of acting. A person may be able to change ones state of being poor, or hungry or weeping or being ostracized, but the follower of Jesus has power to live fully under these conditions, even if they are not changed. It’s not a matter of not trying to get out of the circumstances of poverty, hunger, sorrow and being ostracized. It’s a matter of believing that circumstances do NOT make the person, but the ATTITUDE does. One can live in the worse of conditions and can be happy. Conversely, one can live in the best conditions and be unhappy.

One can be in prison and look out the window, see the blue sky and be hopeful or one can be in the same prison, look at the floor, see only dirt and fall into despair. It all depends on outlook or ATTITUDE. Very often people who don’t like the rain or snow or clouds they are experiencing say: “You can’t do anything about it. That’s all you can do is grin and bear it!” I say: you can’t do anything about changing the weather, but you can change your ATTITUDE toward it. You can do more than grin and bear it: you can be happy within such circumstances. You need not let the weather rule you; you can rule the weather by your ATTITUDE.

What Jesus teaches is not just a philosophy of life; it is a theological stance toward living within the kingdom of God here on earth which should extend beyond. As the author of the second reading puts it: “If our hopes in Christ are limited to this life only, we are most pitiable of people.” (1 Cor. 15: 19)

Nie bójcie sie!

Pismo sw. opowiada o wielu spotkaniach ludzi z objawiającym sie im Bogiem. Opisy takich spotkan prawie zawsze mówia o przerazeniu człowieka stajacego nagle przed majestatem Boga. To porażenie strachem jest jakos zwiazane z poznaniem własnej grzesznosci: „Biada mi! Jestem zgubiony! Wszak jestem mezem o nieczystych wargach i mieszkam posród ludu o nieczystych wargach, a oczy moje ogladaly Króla, Pana Zastepów!” – slyszymy z ust proroka Izajasza. „Odejdz ode mnie, Panie, bo jestem czlowiek grzeszny” – tymi slowami zwraca sie Piotr do Jezusa, kiedy zobaczyl obfity polów ryb.

Jaka jest odpowiedz Boga na ten strach czlowieka? Prawie zawsze przy Jego objawieniach sie slyszymy Jego slowa: „Nie bój sie!” Dla przykladu slowa z jednego tylko rozdzialu Ewangelii wedlug sw. Lukasza: Bozy poslaniec zwraca sie do kaplana: „Nie bój sie Zachariaszu!” I troche dalej czytając relacje Zwiastowania Maryi, slyszymy : „Nie bój sie, Maryjo, znalazlas bowiem laske u Boga.” W innym miejscu slyszymy te slowa wypowiedziane przez Jezusa do Piotra Apostola: „Nie bój sie, odtad ludzi bedziesz lowil.”

Mozemy zauwazyc drugi element spotkania sie czlowieka z Bogiem, który mu sie objawia – poslanie. Pierwszym jest uspokojenie, dodanie ufności, drugim jest poslanie. Z tego wniosek, ze Pan Bóg objawia sie wybranemu, aby go poslac. Czyli to spotkanie nie jest tylko dla tego jednego wybranego. Jest to dar dla tego czlowieka, którym ma sie on podzielic z innymi. Izajasz zostaje powolany i poslany jako prorok do Izraelitów. Piotr, Pawel i pozostali Apostolowie zostaja poslani do wszystkich narodów.

„Nie bój sie; nie bójcie sie!” Gdybym miał w jak najkrótszy sposób wyrazic pontyfikat Jana Pawla II, to pewnie zdecydowalbym sie na te własnie slowa: „Nie bójcie sie!” Slowa te pojawily sie juz na rozpozecie jego poslugi na Stolicy Piotrowej: „Nie bójcie sie otworzyc drzwi Chrystusowi!” Niczym refren powtarzaja sie one poprzez wszystkie lata jego pontyfikatu.

Jest on czczony w naszym kosciele. Juz niedlugo pojawi sie w naszym kosciele jego ikona, na której bedzie on przedstawiony razem ze sw. Stanislawem. Wydaje sie slusne, aby na niej jakos wyrazic to centralne przeslanie Jana Pawla II, które jak o tym przekonalismy, jest własciwie jednym z głównym przeslan Boga do czlowieka: „Nie bój sie, nie bójcie sie!” W czasie dyskusji nad sposobem artystycznego wyrazenia tego apelu pojawil Sie pomysl, aby te slowa napisane w różnych jezykach pojawily sie na okolo ikony. Wszyscy pamietamy, ze Jan Pawel II byl uzdolniony jezykowo. Jego kazania wygłaszane byly w różnych jezykach. Odwiedzając różne kraje staral sie on mówic jak najwiecej w jezyku narodu, który odwiedzal. Kard. Stanislaw Dziwisz podal w najnowszej swojej ksiazce „Swiactwo”, ze Jan Pawel byl gotów uczyc sie chinskiego, aby poprawic stosunki Stolicy Apostolskiej z Chinami. Dlatego chcielismy „Nie bójcie sie” napisac również po chinsku. Ostatecznie ze wzgledu na prostote, to przeslanie zostanie napisany tylko po angielsku i po polsku.

„Nie bójcie sie otworzyc Waszych serc dla Chrystusa!”

WE ARE PARTNERS IN GODS WORK

We are happy to announce that Bishop Richard Lennon, has designated that we cluster with the parishes, of St. Hyacinth, on 6114 Francis Ave., St. Casimir on 8223 Sowinski Ave., and Our Lady of Lourdes on E 55th and Broadway Ave. We are pleased that after careful consideration we have been partnered with churches that have a strong core of devoted parishioners working on the unique challenges of witnessing our faith in an urban environment. Over the coming months and years we will grow in our knowledge of each others strengths and gifts so that we may better serve the people of God in our neighborhoods. Please read the enclosed letter from Bishop Lennon, announcing our Cluster Partners.

PARISHIONER REGISTRATION

You will receive regular donation envelopes, which helps us keep a record of your charitable giving for your tax purposes and serves as a reminder to you to support your parish with your regular offerings.
