“My heart has prompted me to seek your face; I seek it, Lord; do not hide from me.” (psalm 27:8-9)

Where is the face of the Lord? Is it in a crowded downtown auditorium filled with white people listening to a famous preacher? Is it in the same auditorium on another day with predominantly black and hispanic crowds of Christians singing praise? Is it in a nearly empty church on 65th and Forman on a cold Sunday morning?

Where is the face of the Lord? Is it in the classroom filled with noisy children? Is it in the supermarket at the check-out line? Is it at MacDonald's? Is it at the Holy Name or Sacred Heart fish fry?

Where is the face of the Lord? Is it in the car next to me trying to cut me off? Is it walking down the middle of the street? Is it talking on a cell phone?

Where is the face of the Lord? Is it in the incense at Vespers? Is it in the candle at the funeral? Is it in the snow and rain?

When Peter, James and John saw it on Mount Tabor, did they see any or all of those things? They finally saw the face of Jesus. Then, after seeing his 'changed face' they were told by his Father to 'listen to him!'

The heart of humanity prompts us to seek the face of God. If we see it, will we listen? If we see it, will we recognize it? Will the same heart that prompts me to look for that face be able to confirm the identity? Will we see the same face of Jesus that the three apostles saw? Will we hear the same voice from heaven telling us to listen to him?

What is blocking our eyes from seeing?

What is stopping our ears from hearing?

“The Body of Christ. AMEN! The Blood of Christ. AMEN!”

“My heart has prompted me to seek you face...”

DONOR FATIGUE

Every day, a large stack of mail arrives at the parish office. It can take up to twenty minutes just to sort it and get the pieces to the proper recipients. When Lent comes, it seems that the stacks get higher with appeals from all sorts of charities. As Christians, we are called to be mindful of the needs of others, especially the poor. Lent is an appropriate time to call ourselves to that awareness. Maybe that's why so many appeals come now.

Lately, though, I've gotten into the habit of throwing out just about everything that doesn't come with a first-class stamp. If I opened and read everything that came across my desk, I'd spend over an hour a day just doing the mail! Still, like most people, there are a couple of causes that touch my heart and always get a little something, whether at Christmas or during Lent.

This weekend we are asked to respond to the annual Catholic Charities Appeal. In his letter to pastors, Bishop Lennon commended the charitable works of past generations as well as the many initiatives taken by individual parishes. But he is also concerned that so few Catholics in the diocese participate in giving to Catholic Charities. For example, at Saint Stanislaus, only 6% of our people donated anything to Catholic Charities last year.

The members of our parish community are generous and big-hearted people. There are so many ways that we share our time, our talents, and our treasure. Maybe we aren't aware that our own parish and many of our people actually benefit from Catholic Charities programs. (They run 143 programs at 64 locations.) There are nearly a million Catholics in the Cleveland Diocese. Last year, 55,000 donated to Catholic Charities. Imagine what the church could do if everyone gave something!

Some people are concerned that their donation might end up to cover legal fees or settlements in the priest sex abuse cases — but Catholic Charities funds have never been nor ever will be used for anything except their intended purposes: helping the poor in our community.

Our parish just finished celebrating 100 years of Franciscans serving here. The patron saint of Catholic Charities is also a Franciscan, Saint Elizabeth of Hungary (1207-1231). She was a member of the royalty who set aside her status to become a Third Order Franciscan. She chose to live simply and to work charitably among the poor, the sick, and the homeless. Most of us are not called by God to make that kind of radical change in our lives. But we are all called to follow the Gospel of Jesus Christ, who said, "Amen, I say to you, whatever you did for one of these least brothers or sisters of mine, you did for me." (Mt. 25:37)

This Lent, the Catholic Charities envelope is one that I am not sending into the trash bin. I urge you to consider some kind of pledge or donation — of whatever size — in this important Lenten almsgiving. And trust that our heavenly Father, who sees in secret, will see this too.

Fr. Michael

Umocnienie i pociecha

W dzisiejsza niedzielę słyszymy opis Przemienienia. Pan Jezus zabrał ze sobą trzech uprzywilejowanych uczniów: Piotra, Jakuba i Jana. Stali się oni świadkami tego wydarzenia. „Gdy się modlił, wygląd Jego twarzy się odmienił, a Jego odzienie stało się białe” — czytamy w Ewangelii wg św. Łukasza. Kiedy czytamy polskie tłumaczenie, wydaje się ono sugerować tylko zewnętrzne przeobrazenie Jezusa. Bibliści mówią nam jednak, że ten termin „przemienienie” nie wyczerpuje w pełni treści greckiego słowa metemorpho, które ma o wiele lepsze znaczenie. Dlatego, kiedy słyszymy w Ewangelii słowo „przemienienie”, musimy pamiętać, że oznacza ono coś więcej niż tylko zjawisko zewnętrzne. Greckie słowo oddane w tłumaczeniu polskim przez „przemienienie” oznacza przemianę dogłębną całej istoty. Mówiąc prościej, Chrystus uchylił przed wybranymi Apostołami rąbka swojej boskiej tajemnicy; ukazał się im w swojej naturze i istocie jako Syn Boży. Przemienienie pozwoliło im zrozumieć, jak mizerne i niepełne są ich wyobrażenia o Bogu.

Święto Przemienienia obchodzimy 6 stycznia. Dlaczego czytamy te Ewangelie także dzisiaj, w II niedzielę Wielkiego Postu? Posłuchajmy, co mówi Ewangelia: „A oto dwóch mężów rozmawiało z Nim. Byli to Mojżesz i Eliasz. Ukazali się oni w chwale i mówili o Jego odejściu, którego miał dokonać w Jerozolimie.” „Odejdzie w Jerozolimie” to meka, śmierć i zmartwychwstanie Pana. Widzimy więc, że Przemienienie łączy się z Wielkim Postem i Wielkanocą.

Pan Jezus pragnął uprzedzić swoim uczniom i przygotować na te próby ich wiary. Wiedział, na jakie przeciwności będą wystawieni Jego uczniowie i co będą przeżywać w Wielki Piątek. Dlatego ta pociecha na Górze Tabor. Piotr, Jakub i Jan zapamiętają ją do końca życia. Ślad tego przeżycia możemy znaleźć w 2 Liście św. Piotra Apostoła (1, 16-18).

W Internetowej Liturgii Godzin czytamy we wprowadzeniu do święta Przemienienia Paskiego: Dzisiejsze święto przypomina, że Jezus może w każdej chwili odmienić nasz los. Ma ono jednak jeszcze jeden, radosny, eschatologiczny aspekt: przyjdzie czas, że Pan odmieni nas wszystkich; nawet nasze ciała w tajemnicy zmartwychwstania uczyni uczestnikami swojej chwaly. Dlatego dzisiejszy obchód jest dniem wielkiej radości i nadziei, że nasze przebywanie na ziemi nie będzie ostateczne, że przyjdzie po nim nieprzemijająca chwala.

Przemienienie to jednak nie tylko pamiątka dokonanego faktu. To nie tylko nadzieja także naszego zmartwychwstania i przemiany. To równocześnie nakaz zostawiony przez Chrystusa, to zadanie wytyczone Jego wyznawcom. Warunkiem naszego eschatologicznego przemienienia jest stała przemiana duchowa, wewnętrzna, uparte naśladowanie Chrystusa. Ta przemiana w zarodku musi mieć podstawę na ziemi, by do swej pełni mogła dojść w wieczności. W drodze ku wieczności uczeń Jezusa musi być Mu wierny: myśla, słowem i chrześcijańskim czynem.

Przemienienie Jezusa na Górze Tabor pokazuje, że warto wytrwać na drodze ku wieczności. Nawet jeśli prowadzi ona przez Krzyż... o. Placyd

Cluster Parish Mission for Lent

Our new parish cluster will share in praying a Lenten Mission hosted at Saint Hyacinth Church and led by Fr. Michael Surufka, OFM. This Lenten program is especially meant for parishioners from our four clustered parishes: Saint Stanislaus, Saint Casimir, Our Lady of Lourdes, and Saint Hyacinth. Sunday, Monday, and Tuesday evenings, March 11-13 at 7:00 PM. Please note there will be NO VESPERS at St. Stan's on Sunday, March 11.

ST. STANS HISTORICAL FACT by Rob Jagelewski. From an article in The Cleveland Plain Dealer from 1891. "The dedication of St. Stanislaus Church on the corner of Tod (currently East 65) and Forman Streets occurred yesterday. This is without question the most magnificent temple of worship in the city, and perhaps the state. The church is brick, trimmed with stone, and is of vast dimensions... The two immense towers are the principle exterior feature... The structure cost $250,000 and the most amazing thing about it is that it was erected by a people constituting confessedly the poorest parish in the diocese."

FRIDAY FAITH SHARING DURING LENT

Because of the popularity of this Lenten program last year, Fr. Cam will continue it for the Lenten season this year. After the Stations of the Cross at 7:00 PM Fridays in Lent, all are invited to the rectory for scripture study. You need to bring only yourself and an open mind and heart. The faith sharing will last no more than an hour.

BAPTISM PREPARATION CLASS. The next class will be at Our Lady of Lourdes Church on April 15, 2007 at 1:00 PM. Call 216-641-2829 for more information.
