Christ has died! Christ is risen!

Last Sunday we heard the Hosannas of the first few minutes in our ritual quickly turn into the sounds of hammers on nails. We saw the extended arms of the Christ entering Jerusalem change to the same arms extended on the cross. The same level of excitement which greeted Jesus turned to the same level of hateful accusations and mockeries before the week was out. We processed in royally and then read the Passion of the King.

The week rapidly flew by with an exceptional speed this year. The various levels of excitement between the thousands of guests who came to the Shrine last weekend for the liturgies, vespers and concerts all added to the 'rush'. The continued work on the kapliczka draws visitors and proud parishioners daily as the white oak reaches higher and higher. Preparations for the icon's trip to its new home are woven throughout preparations for the pilgrimage with preparations for the Easter feast, the Easter decorations, the second part of the 'acclamation of faith.'

This weekend we dwell on that second phrase of that acclamation in a way which no other weekend can. From the Exultet at the Easter Vigil to the proclamation at 6:30 a.m. that Chrystus zmartwychwsta³ to the last final wishes of family members at Easter dinner, the mystery of faith du jour becomes a very real part of our lives. Christ is risen!

In the quiet of the night He conquered death. In the intimacy of the garden He conversed with Mary Magdalen. Today He travels throughout the garden in our church. Today he is in the hundreds of tabernacles in the pews. Today He visits with us in our garden, protected from the snow and rain, speckled with lilies and pussy willows and butterflies, all reminiscent of Spring, re-birth, renewed life. As we process down the main aisle to invite that same risen Lord into our tabernacles, let those butterflies and flowers and alleluias and lead us to new life in His Spirit. That same Body and Blood which was sacrificed on Calvary, which left the tomb, will now remain with us...until the end of time! Alleluia!

David Krakowski

HE IS RISEN ! WE ARE RISEN!

The feast of the resurrection of Jesus (Easter) is the most important feastday of the Church's liturgical year. It is more important than Christmas, even though Christmas is a more popular feast. St. Paul wrote about the importance of the resurrection of Jesus in these words: "If Christ has not been raised from the dead, our faith is in vain." (I Cor. 15:14)

What is the resurrection of Jesus (and our resurrection) all about?

It's NOT to be envisioned as a magical moment: one moment, one is dead and the next, one is alive. Moreover, it is NOT the same as resuscitation, when one moment one is considered dead and the next moment one is revived to life again as one was. No change happens in the person, except perhaps that one remembers the experience.

In contrast, even though Resurrection presupposes death, one does not return to one's former life but rather to a totally NEW life, which was begun in the former life but now is completed. Jesus gave evidence of this NEW bodily life when, although his body looked the same after his resurrection (so his disciples could recognize him), the quality of his body was NEW, for example, he could pass through matter (cf. the appearance in the Upper Room). It was also NEW from the viewpoint that his body now was identified with the Church. The Church became the body of the glorified Christ and participated in His glory. He was the head; and the members of the church became the glorified members of His body. That is why the readings during the whole Easter Season are from the Acts of the Apostles, which focuses on the activity of the Church.

All of us, who have been baptized and through baptism have become members of his glorified body, the Church, are already participating in the death and resurrected glory of Christ and awaiting its fullness at the end of time. If the God — whom Jesus revealed — becomes and remains the center of our life (I Pet. 1: 21), then the glory of the resurrected life will be ours forever.

In what will that life consist? In the very life of the Trinitarian God: the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit, whom we will see "face to face," which is a way of saying: "as intimately as possible." God will take us into His very inner life. It may be compared to going not only closer into the sun but to entering the very center of the sun, without being consumed but being totally embraced. Those who have been and are truly in love know what that means.

To bolster that which we are able to experience now and that which we await in fulfillment, we will hear the following words on Resurrection Sunday:

"Let our celebration today raise us up and renew our lives by the Spirit that is within us." (Opening Prayer)

"If then you were raised with Christ, seek what is above, where Christ is seated at the right hand of God. Think of what is above, not of what is on earth. For you have died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God. When Christ your life appears, then you too will appear with him in glory." (Col.3: 1-4).

In view of such a great mystery, we can do nothing more than exclaim in the words of the responsorial psalm 118: "This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad."

Peace and Good! Alleluia!

ZMARTWYCHWSTANIE JEZUSA.
TRANSFORMACJA MATERII CIAŁA

14 sierpnia 1730 r. w przeddzień uroczystości Wniebowzięcia Dziewicy Maryi, złodzieje skradli z kościoła Franciszkanów w Sienie złota puszkę z konsekrowanymi hostiami. Było ich 351. Po odkryciu kradzieży nastąpiło powszechne oburzenie. Zdecydowano odwołać nawet słynne wyciągi konne, które tradycyjnie odbywają się, zresztą do dziś, w uroczystości Matki Bożej. 17 sierpnia konsekrowane hostie znaleziono, ale już bez puszek. Zostały wrzucone do skarbony na pieniądze w kolegiacie Matki Bożej, blisko miejsca kradzieży. Leżały tam wśród pajęczyn i kurzu. Z wielkim wyczekiwaniem przeniesiono je w procesji do kościoła Franciszkanów. Tam przez wiele tygodni adorowano święte hostie wyrażając ekspiację za grzech świętokradztwa. Potem wraz z naczyniem umieszczono je sejfie w zakrystii i o nich zapomniano. Odkryto je na nowo dopiero po pięćdziesięciu latach. Okazało się, że nadal są świeże i nie zmienione, mimo, że hostie, komunikanty i oplatki wigilijne, które są wypiekane z maki zmieszanej z wodą, już po kilku, a najwyżej kilkunastu latach, rozpadają się w miążgę i pył. Otóż stan hostii ze Sieni nie zmienił się do dnia dzisiejszego. W 1914 roku badania naukowe nad cudownymi hostiami ze Sieni przeprowadził prof. Siro Grimaldi. W protokole z badań zapisał m. in. „Po upływie (wówczas) ponad 180 lat hostie są jasne, gładkie, z wyraźnymi rysami obramowania, nie wystrzępione ani nie naruszone w swoim kształcie. Bez śladu czerwi, pajęczaków, pleśni i pasożytów. Bez najdrobniejszej zmiany w delikatnych hostiach z prasnego ciasta, z pszennej maki. Normalnie hostie uległyby całkowitemu sproszkowaniu i zepsuciu. Mąka jest bowiem najlepszym podłożem do hodowli mikroorganizmów, pasożytów, fermentacji kwasu mlekowego i procesów gnilnych. Natomiast hostie ze Sieni są zachowane w doskonałym stanie, wbrew prawom fizyki i chemii, mimo niesprzyjających warunków w jakich je odnaleziono. Jest to zjawisko całkowicie anormalne. Paradoksalnie zostały odwrócone prawa natury. Szkło puszek, w której są przechowywane, stało się siedliskiem pleśni, zaś łatwo psująca się mąka okazała się twardsza od kryształu."

Konsekrowane hostie ze Sieni, które w nienaruszonym stanie przetrwały już prawie 300 lat są niezwykłym cudem. I nie tylko wciąż żywej obecności Chrystusa pod postacią eucharystycznego chleba. Są najpierw dowodem transformacji materii, która dokonuje się we Mszy św. (przeistoczenie - transsubstancjacja) i transformacji ludzkiego ciała (ciało fizyczne podległe śmierci i rozkładowi przechodzi w stan ciała uwielbionego), która miała miejsce w momencie Zmartwychwstania Jezusa. Mamy nadzieję, że są też dowodem naszej transformacji czyli zmartwychwstania w Jezusie. Przecież dał nam obietnicę tej przemiany „Kto pożywa moje ciało i pije moja krew, ma życie wieczne, a Ja go wskrzeszę w dniu ostatecznym". (J 6,54) Te wiary w zmartwychwstanie Chrystusa i nasze w Nim powstanie z martwych wyrażamy dziś w sposób uroczysty. Pozostaje pozwolic Jezusowi, by w naszym życiu wciąż miała miejsce Jego Pascha czyli przejście ze śmierci grzechu do wolności, Bożej łaski i prawdziwego życia w Bogu. Zarazem musimy wciąż pamiętać, że każdy „kto spożywa chleb lub pije kielich Panski niegodnie, winny będzie Ciała i Krwi Paskiej ... wyrok sobie spożywa i pije" (1 Kor 11,27-29).
