Pilgrimage Thoughts

Each day during our pilgrimage we celebrated a Mass, each liturgical space having a different character. We were privileged to gather and offer the sacrifice in front of the body of St. Stanislaus in Wawel Cathedral. Likewise, it was an special opportunity to have Mass in front of the miraculous icon of Our Lady at Czêstochowa. Masses at the Church of St. Casimir (the Reformed Franciscan Church), a private chapel at Kalwaria Zebrzydowska and the Chapel of the Transfiguration in Koœci<sup>o</sup>³ Mariacki were more intimate. But two Sundays ago we had Mass at a place which reminded me of Easter time as had none other—400 feet underground in the salt mines of Wieliczka in the chapel of St. John the Baptist.

At four hundred feet underground I could not help but think of the scriptural reference of Jesus being buried in the earth after His crucifixion, His time visiting with Adam and Eve, with Abraham and Moses, with all who waited for Him to rise from the dead and complete the next chapter of salvation history. As we wandered through the tunnels and magnificently carved chambers we were at the mercy of our tour guide, placing our trust in her that we might not get lost, hoping to return to the sunlight which awaited us back up on the surface of the earth. Eventually we left the darkness of the underground, greeted by the sun. After a wonderful meal and visit at Ojciec Bernard's minor seminary, we then went to join the day long festivities at the Shrine of Divine Mercy. We were there at 3 o'clock - our eyes were in contact with the miraculous picture of Divine Mercy. Our day was complete.

Over the next month, the month we associate with Mary, I will share with you some thoughts of those who were on pilgrimage with us, specifically at the point in time when their eyes met those of Mary at Czêstochowa. May their reflections inspire each of us to approach her right here in our own shrine, whispering hopes and dreams and prayers to her, the greatest intercessor of all.

The Lamb-Shepherd and the Sheep

Every 4th Sunday of Easter is referred to as "Good Shepherd Sunday." Each cycle (ABC) has its own readings and presents Jesus as shepherd from a different point of view. The readings for this Sunday (Cycle C) portray Jesus as a lamb-shepherd. Unusual? Not according to the 2nd reading.

In the book of Revelation (our second reading) the lamb is a favored title and image for Jesus. Its roots can be traced to the Old Testament writings. The word and title "lamb," attributed to Jesus, evokes several images:

(1) The lamb is like the rest of the sheep. In human terms, we are used to saying: Jesus became human to identify with human beings for the sake of human beings. In lamb terms we can say: Jesus became a lamb to identify with the rest of the lambs (sheep) for the sake of the lambs (sheep).

(2) Jesus, as a lamb, has gained leadership of all the sheep by giving himself freely to death, being immolated for the sake of the rest of the lambs. He trusted God, the chief shepherd, to bring him through death to new life of a glorious lamb. The victim lamb had become the victorious lamb to give hope of victory to those who are victimized. According to the Catechism of the Church (#1137) the lamb is "Christ crucified and risen." The second reading reminded us that Jesus is "the lamb on the throne." who shepherds his people.

(3) The task of Jesus, the victorious and glorified lamb-shepherd, is to lead the sheep "to springs of life-giving water," so that no longer will they thirst; and to lead them to pastures where "never again shall they know hunger," and to give shelter to his sheep so that "the sun or its heat shall not beat down upon them." The sheep will be able to wash their robes (that is, themselves) "in the blood of the Lamb" and be made white.

What a great lamb-shepherd we have! We don't deserve him or his leadership, especially when we consider who we are as sheep.

The animal sheep were and continue to be weak animals. They seem to be an easy prey for wolves. They are considered to be dumb animals. Without giving "thought" to where they are going, they follow the other sheep, even if the one before them is going down a deep precipice. How like human beings in general! Moreover, the animal sheep smell and are not very clean. They are considered to be dirty animals, not unlike some human beings, who wallow in evil and morally are unclean.

Jesus did not deem it below his dignity to become a lamb like one of us, taking upon himself the sins of the sheep of the world. We remember this at every celebration of the Eucharist (Mass) before we receive the Eucharist, the Passover lamb of God, who gave himself to be our fortifying food. "Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world, have mercy on us."

On this Good Shepherd Sunday the Church also asks us to pray for vocations, especially to the priesthood and religious life. Let us then pray that the sheep who are being called by the lamb-shepherd may hear his voice and answer his call for the good of all the sheep. May all of us encourage them by living out faithfully our own vocation.

Peace & Good!

Fr. Cam

Dzis, 29 kwietnia, czyli w IV Niedziele Wielkanocna, Kościół katolicki obchodzi Niedziele Dobrego Pasterza. Od wielu lat dzień ten jest w sposób szczególny poświęcony modlitwom o liczne i dobre powołania kapłanskie i zakonne, Papież zaś ogłasza z tej okazji specjalne oredzie.

W tym roku Dzień ten obchodzony jest już po raz 44. Ojciec święty Benedykt XVI w oredziu z tej okazji przypomina nam: „Zgodnie z bezpośrednim zaleceniem Pana, mamy prosić o dar powołan najpierw poprzez wytrwała i wspólnotowa modlitwe do „Pana zniwa”. Zaproszenie do modlitwy jest sformułowane w liczbie mnogiej: „Proście więc Pana zniwa, aby posłał robotników na zniwo swoje” (Mt 9, 38). To wezwanie ze strony Pana odpowiada duchowi „Ojciec nasz” (Mt 6, 9), czyli duchowi tej modlitwy, której On sam nas nauczył i która stanowi „streszczenie całej Ewangelii”. W tym kontekście ważna jest też inna wypowiedź Jezusa: „Jesli dwaj z was na ziemi zgodnie o coś prosić będą, to wszystkiego uczyni im mój Ojciec, który jest w niebie” (Mt 18, 19). Dobry Pasterz zaprasza nas zatem do tego, by błagać Ojca w niebie, by błagać wspólnie i ufnie, aby zechciał On posłać powołania na służbę Kościoła – wspólnoty.”

Taka modlitwa o powołania jako stała praktyka czy zwyczaj spotkałem będąc w Jarosławiu. Co poniedziałek, na zakończenie Mszy św. modliliśmy się o powołania kapłanskie i zakonne. Było to przez wstawiennictwo św. Franciszka z Asyżu. I trzeba przyznać, że ta modlitwa była wysłuchiwana. Pan powoływał (i pewnie jest tak w dalszym ciągu) z tej parafii do stanu kapłanskiego i do zakonów męskich i żeńskich. Z parafii Jarosławskiej i z Jarosławia jest kilku zakonników w naszej prowincji zakonnej, w tym także nasz obecny prowincjał, o. Nikodem.

Bedac w Niemczech, co miesiąc mieliśmy adorację nocną w kaplicy szpitalnej. Główna intencja były powołania kapłanskie. Tutaj doświadczenie było inne. Wydawało się, że ta modlitwa była bez echa. W Landshut rozwiązano nasz klasztor i franciszkanie opuścili to miasto po 722 latach obecności. Kiedy odprawiałem ostatnią codzienną Mszę św., panowała wtedy atmosfera jak na pogrzebie. Po Mszy św. ludzie nie bardzo chcieli wychodzić z kościoła. Było to trudne doświadczenie - opuszczając ten klasztor i wyjeżdżając do innego miejsca, również na terenie Bawarii, miałem świadomość, że nikt na nasze miejsce nie przyjdzie. Klasztor pozostał pusty i przeznaczony do rozbiórki. W kościele odprawiana jest raz na dwa tygodnie Msza św. Ten kościół był „konfesjonalem” dla całego miasta. Dwa razy w ciągu dnia były wyznaczone godziny, gdzie każdy chętny mógł skorzystać z sakramentu pojednania. A dzisiaj, ci którzy chcą się wyspowiadać, muszą szukać spowiednika. I nie jest to łatwe w całym około 80-tysięcznym mieście. Proście więc Pana zniwa, aby posłał robotników na zniwo swoje” (Mt 9, 38).

The Cleveland Museum of Art is bringing to the Shrine Church of St. Stanislaus The "Anonymous Four." Renowned for their unearthly vocal blend and virtuosic ensemble singing, the four women of Anonymous 4 combine musical, literary, and historical scholarship with contemporary performance intuition as they create ingeniously designed programs, interweaving music with poetry and narrative. This concert (Long Time Traveling with Darol Anger and Scott Nygaard) will feature the roots of Anglo-American vocal music and will include beautiful religious ballads, folk songs, folk hymns, and gospel songs.

ST. STAN'S POLISH FESTIVAL — OCTOBER 5, 6, 7

ST. STANS HISTORICAL FACT by Rob Jagelewski. Father Victor Zareczny was Pastor of St. Adalbert in Berea when he was asked in 1873 by Bishop Richard Gilmour to care for the Polish immigrants, who settled in Cleveland and Newburgh under the Patronage of St. Stanislaus. He permitted the community to use the abandoned St. Mary's of the Flats as their church. This church had been the first cathedral of the Diocese of Cleveland. In four years Father Zareczny made the trip into Cleveland sixty times. He baptized 98 children and solemnized 21 marriages. In the records Father Zareczny does not sign as the Pastor but as "Curator Loci," or "caretaker of the place."
