Pilgrims' Thoughts I (reflections of some of our pilgrims)

...My pilgrimage to Poland was a journey of the heart. Visiting the country of my ancestors along the path of religious sites was a transforming experience. The beauty of the medieval churches in which we celebrated Mass, the grandeur of the mountains and the fervent devotion of the Polish people to their God gave me a renewed sense of pride and re-affirmation of both my heritage and faith.

For this soul it was truly an encounter with the essence of our beloved Pope John Paul II. I felt an appreciation, closeness and awareness of him that touched and inspired me in every day of my travels. While viewing the places of his birth, Baptism and ministry I felt the impression of his legacy so strong and alive! And, I found a new spiritual attachment to him.

I'm so appreciative that my pilgrimage to Poland will never really end because my heart lingers there still...

...As I knelt before the image of our Lady at Jasna Góra it was as if I was a guest in her very own home. There we conversed, discussed our dreams and disappointments, our hopes and our worries. She listened to me. I listened to her. ...like friends, opening up to each other, unafraid of rejection, freely exchanging secrets of our hearts.

...I finally managed to listen....to hear God telling me what He hoped from me. My own life agenda seemed so frivolous any longer....I heard God's desire, sensed His message that I continue along the path of service to others....my own reward would come in His time.

...I remember being nervous at the altar in front of all the people waiting for the icon to be unveiled and being that close to it! Had tried to take Fr. Mike's suggestion to heart and to be opened to the possibility of getting a word. When I first saw the face of our Lady of Czestochowa I remember thinking she was looking right at me. In her eyes it was clear that she understood me and was telling me what I needed to hear.

...A fire burned in my breast. The love left the icon and surrounded my wounded heart. I was not alone.

Mother's Day, War and Peace

The early history of Mother's Day in the United States is tied to peace and war. In 1872 Julia Ward Howe, who wrote the words of the Battle Hymn of the Republic, suggested that a Mother's Day be dedicated to peace. She held organized Mother's Day meetings in Boston, MA every year.

In 1907, another woman, Ann Jarvis from Philadelphia, began a campaign to establish a national Mother's Day. She persuaded her mother's church in Grafton, West Virginia to celebrate Mother's Day on the second anniversary of her mother's death, the second Sunday of May. By the next year Mother's Day was also celebrated in Philadelphia.

Ms. Jarvis and her supporters began to write to ministers, businessmen, and politicians with the hope of establishing a NATIONAL Mother's Day. It was successful. By 1911 Mother's Day was celebrated in almost every state. In 1914 President Woodrow Wilson made the official announcement proclaiming Mother's Day as a national holiday. That was to be held each year on the second Sunday of May.

At present Mother's Day continues to be a celebration honoring motherhood. Its purpose has changed a bit from the original one of Julia Ward Howe to promote peace within the context of war. There aren't too many people —women included— who associate Mother's Day with the cry of Julia Ward Howe: "Arise, then, women of this day! Arise, all women who have hearts, whether our baptism be of water or of tears! Say, firmly: 'We will not have great questions decided by irrelevant agencies, our husbands will not come to us, reeking with carnage, for caresses and applause. Our sons shall not be taken from us to unlearn all that we have been able to teach them of charity, mercy and patience. We, the women of one country, will be too tender of those of another country to allow our sons to be trained to injure theirs.' From the bosom of the devastated Earth a voice goes up with our own. It says: 'Disarm! Disarm! The sword of murder is not the balance of justice.' Blood does not wipe out dishonor, nor violence indicate possession. As men have forsaken the plough and the anvil at the summons of war, let women now leave all that may be left at home for a great and earnest day of counsel." She felt that women should meet first as women, "to bewail and commemorate the dead" and to "solemnly take counsel with each other as to the means whereby the great human family can live in peace, each bearing after one's own time the sacred impress, not of Caesar but of God." She advocated the formation of a general Congress of women without limit of nationality "to promote the alliance of the different nationalities, the amicable settlement of international questions, the great and general interests of peace."

We have had —and still continue to have— great mothers who not only concerned themselves with their immediate families but also with the family of the world., We have had — and still continue to have — outstanding mothers who have been —and continue to be— great peacemakers not only within their own families but within the world.

May the inspiration of all Christian mothers be Jesus, the Savior of the world, who handed onto us Mary as our Mother.

Peace and Good! Fr. Cam

NIE TRWÓZCIE SIE!!!

W Ewangelii czytanej w ta, szósta już Niedziele Wielkanocna, znajdujemy takie słowa Jezusa: „Pokój zostawiam wam, pokój mój daje wam. Nie tak jak daje świat, Ja wam daję.” Pan Jezus mówi o darze pokoju, którym chce obdarzyć nasze serca, rodziny, wspólnoty, narody. Możemy zauważyć, że Pan Jezus przeciwstawia ten „pokój,” który daje świat pokojowi, który On oferuje. Gdzie indziej w Ewangelii możemy przeczytać takie słowa: „Na świecie doznacie ucisku, ale miejcie odwagę: Jam zwyciężył świat.”

W następnym zdaniu słyszymy: „Niech się nie trwoży serce wasze ani się leka.” Słowa „nie bójcie się” występują w Ewangelii często. To tam czerpał swoje natchnienie Jan Paweł II, z którego ust słyszeliśmy te słowa tak często. Słusznie zostały te słowa wybrane na motto nowej ikony. Jest to jakby streszczenie jego przesłania, które jak widzimy, jest w swej istocie, przesłaniem ewangelicznym.

„Niech się nie trwoży Wasze serce ani się nie leka!” W programie wychowawczym Mistrza z Nazaretu cnota odwagi zajmuje poczesne miejsce. Jezus chciał wychować ludzi gotowych do dawania świadectwa nawet w obliczu śmierci, a tego bez odwagi osiągnąć nie można.

Nie jest odwaga, o którą chodziło Jezusowi, narazenie swego życia lekkomyślnie, np. przez uprawianie niebezpiecznych sportów, tylko po to aby zdobyć sławę, podziw, pieniądze. Jest natomiast odwaga narazenie swojego życia po to, aby ratować życie i zdrowie innych. Ostatnio np. mogłem zobaczyć krótki film o meczystynie, który obronił swoją żonę przez ataki m. niedzwiedzia mając za jedyną bronię szczyrąk.

Odwaga, o której chodzi Jezusowi, to zdecydowane wyznawanie wiary, przyznawanie się do swoich przekonań, które z wyznawanej wiary wynikają, stawanie w obronie dobra, słabszych, itd.

Jezus w rozmowie z Apostołami kilka godzin przed meką wzywa do odwagi. „Niech się serce wasze nie leka”. Sam wchodząc do ogrodu Getsemani przeżyje chwile grozy, trwogi, drżenia i smutku, ale przezwycięzy te godziny słabości i odwrotnie wyjdzie naprzeciw ludziom, którzy przygotowali dla Niego cierpienie. Tym samym daje przykład, iż odwaga nie polega na tym, by się nigdy, nikogo i niczego nie lekac, lecz na tym, by umieć opanować lek, by nie dać się sparaliżować bojazni.

Odwaga jest miłość, jakiej Bóg udziela dojrzałemu chrześcijaninowi. Stanowi ona integralną część miłości sakramentu bierzmowania, jest zawarta w sakramencie namaszczenia chorych, gdzie występuje w formie wytrwałości w cierpieniu, w sakramencie małżeństwa, pomagając w braniu odpowiedzialności za zbawienie współmałżonka i dzieci, oraz w sakramencie kapłaństwa, które jest wprost nastawione na prowadzenie innych w stronę ewangelicznego szczytu i na walkę ze złem istniejącym w świecie.

„Niech się nie trwoży serce wasze ani się leka.” Panie Jezusie, pomóż nam być ludźmi odwagnymi, tzn. ufając Tobie.

o. Placyd
