'Idź Bogiem'

...My mom's parting words to me after I said to her: 'zostańcie z Bogiem.' Those words were exchanged daily between us after she saw me off to Sacred Heart of Jesus Elementary School. Those were the same words that we spoke shortly before she went home to be with Jesus and Mary and all the saints and loved ones who would welcome her with opened arms after a wonderful life.

As I watched her in the strange chaos of the ICU last Saturday, I looked at a vessel of God who had reached the point of her retirement from this life. I looked at the eyes that watched over me, protected me, cried for and with me, laughed with me. They followed me and knew me more than any friend possibly could. As Shakespeare wrote in his 23rd sonnet: (I prefer the Polish translation here) 's²uchaj oczyma...to mi³o³aci prawo.'

I saw the hands that worked as a cleaning lady at Ohio Bell so that I could get a great education. The same hands cooked favorite foods and baked fabulous treats for me and for our four legged companion, Hercules, up to the end of her life. Those same hands caressed me when I was lost, lonely and depressed, helping me to choose life over destruction. They also accepted the Blessed Sacrament from me when she could no longer attend Mass at her parish church. They embraced the Body of Christ until they were unable to this past weekend when the option for the food for her journey home was reduced to but a morsel placed into her opened mouth.

I saw the feet that would have paced about the house, carrying me, looking for me, walking to the store, the car, the many meetings, the bingo hall and to our very own Shrine Church where she took extreme pride in my involvement.

Finally I saw the heart which had now become fragile after years of maintaining her life with the blood which at one time sustained me. That heart had experienced 86 years of joy, pain, suffering, yearning, love and life. That heart was soon to feel the pressure of all those years of ups and downs. It finally burst open on the morning of Pentecost while my mother slept in wait of God's loving embrace.

I thank all of you who shared your condolences with me. I thank all of you who were her friends...our friends. I thank all of you who helped and continue to help me make my mother so proud that I am a part of the Shrine Church of St. Stanislaus. I have been blessed.

Mama, zostańcie z Bogiem!
 Blessed be God forever!

Stanley and Monica's Son, David Krakowski

The Most Holy Trinity: Who cares?

It seems to me that not many Catholics care if God is 5-personed, 2-personed or 3 personed. "God is God," they say. "That's all that matters. I believe in God the Father, God the Son and God the Holy Spirit. I don't know how to explain it. That's up to the theologians to do. I just believe."

To a degree there is much truth in that statement. However, each year in the Roman Catholic Church — which is this weekend—we celebrate liturgically God as the most holy Trinity. We can't know ALL there is to know about the mystery of God as ONE being and at the same time THREE persons. Not even theologians can FULLY explain that. But God has revealed Himself as a trinity of persons with the expectation that as believers we PARTICIPATE in God's Trinitarian life.

We have been created into the image and likeness of a God who is 3-personed. Somehow the life of the God as Trinity needs to show in our life. This means that we need not only to believe that God is Father — one who is a creator, the source of our being — but God's fatherhood needs to reveal itself in our life. Together with God the Father we need to be the source and provider of life for others with whom we are in contact. We need to be conscious that God the Father is continually creating life in us, and we need to be instruments of that life to others.

God does not expect us to be instruments of life of and by ourselves. We did not receive or give life to ourselves. Our parents were those instruments. In like manner we are expected to receive spiritual life, which is intimately connected with the bodily life, through, in and with Jesus, the Son of God and the Son of man. As a human being He is the way to life. This means that Jesus shows us in word and deed in what real life consists, and what God the father wants our life to be. From this point of view Jesus is indispensable in our lives.

The Holy Spirit, the 3rd person of the most holy Trinity, is the personalized love between God the Father and Jesus the Son. True Trinitarian love is not an "it" but a person. The Holy Spirit, as a person, is a gift of the Father and the Son, which means that each baptized person can have and can foster personalized love.

To love naturally is not enough. That love is liable to be self-centered, fickle, selective and temporary. God wants us to love with His eternal and enduring love, which embraces all — friend and enemy.

True Trinitarian love is a participation in the very life of the Trinitarian God, whereby God the Father loves the Son and the Son loves the Father. The baptized enters into "the infinite sea" — as it were — of that undeserved and bountiful love which one is expected to share with others..

Lest this reflection about the most Holy Trinity seem "heady" and not very practical, pray to the Trinity of persons to enlighten your understanding and to enter more fully into the mystery of God's nature, so that every time you make the sign of the cross — which is the best symbol of the most Holy Trinity — you may give the 3-personed God all honor and glory.

Peace and Good!

Swiety Trójcy Przenajswietszej

Wśród wielu dzieł napisanych przez sw. Tomasza z Akwinu, do najważniejszych należą Suma Filozoficzna i Suma Teologiczna. W tych monumentalnych dziełach uczonej dominikanski żyjący w czasach sw. Franciszka zabrał i usystematyzował całą ówczesną wiedzę z zakresu filozofii i teologii. Dzieła te są podzielone na traktaty. Pewna studentka teologii, zachęcona tytułem pierwszego w kolejności O prostocie Boga zaczęła go czytać. Po jakimś czasie zniechęcona odłożyła ten tekst i mówi: „Jeśli 'prostota' Boga jest taka skomplikowana, to jak można zrozumieć inne, np. Traktat o Trójcy Świętej?”

Sadzę, że ta historia jest wymyślonym dowcipem, ponieważ tytuł pierwszego traktatu w rzeczywistości brzmi: O Bogu Jedynym. Ale za tym dowcipem ukrywa się prawda, że język mówiący o Bogu nie jest łatwy. Doświadczamy tego szczególnie, kiedy chcemy wyrazić prawdę o Trójcy Przenajswietszej. Jest to jeszcze bardziej widoczne, kiedy tą prawdę chcemy przekazać dzieciom. Kto próbował to czynić, wie o czym tu mówię.

Dlatego może zrodzić się pytanie: „Jaki sens ma poznawanie prawdy o Bogu w Trójcy Świętej? Dlaczego dzisiejsze święto?” Spróbujmy na to pytanie odpowiedzieć. Zdaje sobie z tego sprawę, że ta odpowiedź nie wyczerpuje wszystkich możliwości. Może najważniejszą racją, dla której celebrowamy to święto, to okazja, aby uświadomić i dać nam okazję do świętowania prawdy, że Pan Bóg jest wspólnota. Religia chrześcijańska jako jedyna wśród wszystkich innych wyznaje Boga w Trójcy Jedynego. Bóg jest wspólnota Ojca, Syna i Ducha Świętego. To znaczy, że Pan Bóg nigdy nie jest samotny. To znaczy, że Bóg sam sobie wystarcza i nie potrzebuje nikogo, aby być szczęśliwym.

Natomiast my, ludzie potrzebujemy innych; nie potrafimy być szczęśliwi w pojedynkę. Jeśli nawet przez krótszy lub dłuższy czas czujemy się dobrze samotnie, na dłuższą metę jest to niemożliwe. Jesteśmy istotami społecznymi. Jesteśmy stworzeni dla wspólnoty. Jedną z największych kar, jaka jest wymierzana największym przestępcom, to kara ograniczenia wolności, czyli odizolowanie od innych ludzi.

Podstawowa i najważniejsza wspólnota, której potrzebuje człowiek, szczególnie ten najmniejszy, to rodzina. Matka i żona, rodzice i dzieci, itd. A jednak najlepsza nawet wspólnota nie jest w stanie zaspokoić wszystkich potrzeb ludzkiego serca. Pragnienia ludzkiego serca są większe niż on sam. To znaczy, żadne stworzenie, nawet najlepszy, najmocniejszy, najmądrzejszy, najukochanszy człowiek nie jest w stanie zaspokoić wszystkich potrzeb i marzeń ludzkiego serca. „Stworzyłeś nas, Panie, dla siebie, i niespokojne jest nasze serce, dopóki nie spocznie w Tobie”. Tylko Pan Bóg jest w stanie to uczynić. Te bowiem pragnienia, które możemy odnaleźć w naszym wnętrzu, zaczął w nas On sam. I tylko On może je w pełni zaspokoić.

Bardziej niż zrozumienie wewnętrznych relacji pomiędzy trzema Osobami Trójcy, ważniejsze jest, abyśmy naszym życiem mówili: Chwała Ojcu i Synowi, i Duchowi Świętemu, jak była na początku, teraz i zawsze, i na wieki wieków. Amen. o. Placyd

IN MEMORIAM — MONICA KRAKOWSKI

Please remember in your prayers the mother of David, our Music Director. Monica Krakowski passed away last Sunday, after a short illness. No finer tribute can we write than what is written by David on the previous page. David, we extend to you our sincere condolences for your loss, yet we are comforted by knowing that our loving Father has embraced his daughter who will now live for ever in His perfect love.

HELLO, GOOD BYE!

Brother Jason

This week we welcome to our Franciscan fraternity Br. Jason Welle, OFM. Br. Jason is in initial formation into the Order, preparing for the priesthood with studies in Chicago. He will live with us this summer while completing a chaplaincy internship in the Cleveland Clinic.

We also say a kind of farewell to Rev. Br. Jerome Wolbert, OFM. Br. Jerome was recently ordained a deacon in the Byzantine Catholic Church. He has just completed his Master of Divinity degree at Saints Cyril & Methodius Seminary in Pittsburgh, and he will spend the summer and fall finishing a Master of Arts degree. During his studies for the last four years, although he has spent most of his time at the seminary, he has been assigned officially to the friary at Saint Stanislaus. He would typically come for weekends once or twice a month, and most summers he was around as well. When he first moved in with us, we were still living in the convent! Many parishioners are accustomed to praying with him at morning prayer and Mass during the week, while Sunday liturgies were with his own Byzantine community.

Br. Jerome's diaconate ministry will be in the Pittsburgh area, so he will now reside at a friary there. Best wishes, Br. Jerome! Thank you for sharing the gift of your fraternal presence with us.

Brother Jerome

AND ANOTHER GOOD BYE...

This Wednesday our school community will gather to bid farewell and congratulations to Mrs. Alice Torrence, who will retire from the ministry of Catholic education after 35 years, 12 of them spent with us at Saint Stanislaus. She has been tireless in her commitment to the children entrusted to our care. Although she is an Irish west-sider, she quickly came to love us here on the east side! In addition to the daily running of the school, Mrs. Torrence shepherded our school through two very difficult periods. One was the shaking out of school closings that affected many parts of the diocese — even our own neighborhood. The other was the tragedy of Fr. Willy's murder. Our school rests on a solid foundation for a secure future. Thank you, Mrs. Torrence, and God bless you on your retirement!

DADS CLUB FATHERS DAY MASS AND BREAKFAST

Remember, Sunday June 17 we will have our annual Dads Club Mass @ 8:30 AM followed by a delicious breakfast prepared by Charles Janowski Jr. and his staff of volunteers. Also remember the $10 cost per family is just to help cover some of the expenses. Do not forget to get your name and money to Charlie ASAP. Wives and families of former members are always welcome to attend.

LOLLY THE TROLLEY AND CORPUS CHRISTI

Lolly the Trolley will be available for anyone unable to walk the entire route of our annual Corpus Christi Procession on June 10th. Please reserve your seat in advance by calling Chris Luboski at (216) 407-1144 as soon as possible, as seating is limited to 38 people. A name tag will be mailed to you for you to wear as you board the trolley, which will arrive in front of the church at 11:00 AM. The procession should begin around 11:30 AM.

MANNA PROGRAM

Polega on na tym, ze nasza parafia Sw. Stanislawia wspolpracuje z wieloma instytucjami handlowymi typu sklepy, restauracje czy stacje paliwowe itp.. Wspolpraca ta jest bardzo korzystna dla parafii, poniewaz od kazdego zakupu dokonanego w tych jednostkach handlowych do parafii trafia procent od wydanej sumy pieniedzy. Jednak, aby tak by^o, konieczny jest jeden warunek: przy dokonywaniu zakupu musimy poslugiwac sie specjalna karta, zakupiona w naszej parafii. Taka karte mozemy nabyt w kazda niedziele po Mszy sw. przy wyjsci u z kosciola lub w tygodniu w kancelarii parafialnej. Czyli krótko: wystarczy czek lub gotówke przeznaczona na zakupy zamienic na karte oferowana w naszej parafii, a przyniesie to wymierna korzysc dla parafialnego budzetu.

GET YOUR MANNA CARDS . . .

Now that we are officially into Summer, we can think of many instances for USING your MANA CARDS and helping the Parish during the summer months. There are grocery stores, restaurants, retail outlets, home improvement stores, and gasoline cards—your establishment is bound to be on the list. Study the order form, place your order, and pick up your cards one week later. That's how easy it is.

LAST CHANCE FOR RECTORY GARDEN
MEMORIAL BRICKS

We are about to install the bricks that have been ordered this past winter. You MUST HAVE YOUR ORDER IN BY June 11 to be included in this installation. THE INSCRIPTION CAN BE ANYTHING YOU WANT that will fit on 3 lines with a maximum of 15 characters per line. You may order them for a donation of $100.00 each by contacting the rectory office. You can also print order forms from our Web site www.ststanislaus.org or call the rectory at 216-341-9091 during business hours Monday thru Friday.

PRAY FOR OUR MILITARY The following parishioners are serving our country and ask for your prayers. David Sklodowski is with the Army and is serving in Baghdad at this time. Navy First Class Petty Officer Tom Lechner is serving in Iraq. May God watch over you until you are safely back with us.

CONVENT TREASURES SALE!!! As we had announced back in the winter, the convent will be demolished due to the need of excessive repairs and high costs that the parish can no longer afford to maintain. Therefore, in preparation of the demolition, all of the non-sacred items within the convent are up for sale to defray the cost of the demolition. We will have a sale of these treasures on Saturday, June 23rd from 3-7 PM and on Sunday, June 24th from 9:30 AM-1:30 PM. Many items will be up for sale such as chairs, decorations, books, dishes and kitchen utensils, and even larger items such as dressers, desks, and beds. If you believe that you would like to purchase larger items such as beds, please bring friends with you to help you move them, as our volunteers will not be able to do so. Payments in cash or checks only. There will be a different sale announced at a later date for anyone wishing to purchase the construction materials of the convent such as tiles, molding, and doors.

THE POOR IN SLAVIC VILLAGE

The John Paul II Ozanam Center continues to provide needed food, clothing and limited utility assistance to the people of Slavic Village. In March, the center served 329 households, comprising 286 children and 517 adults. In April, the John Paul II Ozanam Center served 275 households, encompassing 309 children and 468 adults. While the center is able to provide people with many necessities, other items are welcome. The John Paul II Ozanam Center can always use infant formula, soap and personal care items, canned meats, cereal, soup, canned fruits and vegetables, and such staples as rice, jello and pudding. Other donations are always welcomed. Please be generous throughout the summer months, so that we may continue to assist members of our parish and neighborhood in need. Thank you.

ST. STANS HISTORICAL FACT by Rob Jagelewski. During the sixties long before Cedar Point would become the high level amusement park that it is today, the Grade School students closed out every school year in June with a picnic at Euclid Beach Park, situated right on the shores of Lake Erie near the Cleveland/ Euclid border.. This was a high point of the school year as the entire school was bused out to the Park. Many Parishioners have fond memories of Euclid Beach. These included the rides such as the Thriller, the Racing Coaster, Over the Falls, the Bug, "Laughing Sal," in front of the Fun House, the Scrambler, the Flying Turns, the silver Rocket Ships, and the Laff-In- The Dark. The food was great as well, particularly the frozen custard and the popcorn balls. It was a great way to end the school year.
