Beyond Independence Day

'Freedom' —a word so easily abused, misunderstood, hijacked and diluted. The word was bantered around last week midst fireworks, shootings (in Cleveland as in Iraq as in any society touched by the 'culture of death'), political pontification and editorial constipation. At our liturgical gathering on the 4th of July, those of us present thanked God for our national freedom, a freedom won in the 18th century, secured by brave fighters and made a little more secure by the Atlantic ocean. But, as pointed out in Fr. Michael's homily on that day as well as in the homily of Fr. George (the Vincentian missionary) last weekend, true freedom, i.e., the freedom which alone comes from Christ, is the treasure which we all desire in our innermost selves.

We should glory in the Cross of our Lord, Jesus Christ; for He is our salvation, our life and resurrection. Through Him we are saved and made free.

Jesus hands us this supreme freedom from His Cross. With hands nailed to that Cross His blood created a river of freedom unlike none other, there for all to drink. The freedom won back by that act of selfless love is the freedom which knows no boundaries. It is a freedom which may be had by Clevelanders as by Romans, by prisoners as by royalty, by any and all of God's children—if they are not afraid to accept it.

We should glory in the Cross of our Lord, Jesus Christ; for He is our salvation, our life and resurrection. Through Him we are saved and made free.

Last Sunday Fr. George mentioned a litany of roadblocks to the freedom offered by Jesus: materialism, physiological hedonism, chemical dependence, indifference and other de-humanizing shackles. His message was an appeal to all to accept the liberation offered from the crucified Christ. The things of the world will never liberate, but, rather, create obstacles to the full attainment of the freedom Christ won for us.

We should glory in the Cross of our Lord, Jesus Christ; for He is our salvation, our life and resurrection. Through Him we are saved and made free.

The mystery of faith is celebrated each time we gather as a congregation of believers, whether two or two thousand. We proclaim that by His cross and resurrection 'we are set free!' In that holy hour which began in the Upper Room and ended in the empty tomb we experience the liberation of humankind. We enter that holy hour each time we celebrate the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass. We share in that mystery and plead for its liberating power and glory. It is God's love, His essence, which flows from the sacred pierced heart and alone can satisfy our thirst. Eat His flesh and drink His blood - and lose the shackles which prevent you from being truly free!

GOD DOES NOT WANT (JUST) YOUR SUNDAY

For those who remain faithful to their obligation to honor the Sabbath by coming to Mass with the community, we wonder why so many people skip Sunday Mass for other things. It is not so much frustrating as it is puzzling — God has given us so much, and all God wants is an hour back, so why can't we give it to Him? But there is something lacking in the idea that all God wants is an hour on Sunday.

God wants everything.

If all I have to offer God in return is only an hour, then I am still cheating Him. In the readings this weekend, both the Old Testament and the Gospel remind us of this. From Deuteronomy: "...when you return to the Lord with all your heart and all your soul." And even more emphatically from Jesus in the God does not want an hour on Sunday. He wants everything. But we need that hour on Sunday, and we need each other.

Gospel of Luke: "You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your being, with all your strength, and with all your mind..."

God does not need the hour on Sunday. God wants everything. But what about that hour? Well, we need that hour. I need to be there, and I need to see you there too. During that hour, I need you. All of you. Each of you. And you need me. And you need each other. Everyone.

Remember the last line of the "Love your God" section of today's Gospel? "You shall love your neighbor as yourself." Love of God and love of neighbor go hand in hand. It's not that we do one first, then the other. Nor is it that one is more important than the other. They are one and the same. Talk about tough love!

Years ago, when I was still a young priest, there was a group of our eighth grade girls who attended 11:30 Mass together. Like good Catholics, they sat in the same pew every Sunday. Across the way was an elderly woman, who by now has certainly gone home to the Lord. Like many of our senior citizens, her personal holiness was so clear in its simplicity and concentrated prayer. One day this woman approached me and asked, "Father, who are those girls who sit in that pew every Sunday?" My instant reaction was one of concern and maybe impending anger. I assumed the girls had been disturbing her. What had these girls done to upset this old woman who is so peaceful in her prayer?

I explained that they went to our school and they agreed to meet every Sunday for Mass together. This old woman then said something that I remember to this day. She said, "I'm so glad that there are young people to continue with the faith that has meant so much to me. Father, when they are here, I pray better."

Imagine, a group of 13 year old girls, who might have bored out of their skin, were able to help a holy old woman to pray better — just by being there.

Dies Domini (2)

Zmartwychwstanie Jezusa „w pierwszym dniu tygodnia” spowodowało, że dla chrześcijan ten „pierwszy dzień” - początek stworzenia - stał się „dniem Panskim”, na który, poprzez wspólnotę stołu z Jezusem, w naturalny sposób przeszły istotne elementy starotestamentalnego szabatu (Benedykt XVI, „Jezus z Nazaretu”). O powstrzymaniu się do pracy i o odpoczynku mówiliśmy w refleksji przed tygodniem. Dzisiaj chcę powiedzieć o samym sercu chrześcijańskiego świętowania niedzieli, a mianowicie o udziale w niedzielnej Mszy św.

Zmartwychwstanie Jezusa jest centralnym faktem, na którym opiera się nasza wiara. Niedziela jest najstarszym chrześcijańskim świętem ustanowionym na cześć zmartwychwstania Pana. Według starotestamentalnego sposobu liczenia dni, jest to „pierwszy dzień tygodnia” - dzień, w którym Pan Bóg rozpoczął dzieła stworzenia. Poprzez ten fakt niedziela nawiązuje do początków świata, czyli do jego stworzenia. Zarazem poprzez świętowanie zmartwychwstania Jezusa, niedziela wskazuje na to, co będzie na koncu czasów, kiedy wszystko zostanie spełnione. Widzimy więc, że niedziela łącząc w sobie „początek” i „koniec” wskazuje na Jezusa, który jest „Alfa i Omega” (Ap 1, 8) i na Boga, który jest „pierwszy i ostatni” (Iz 44, 6).

Przez świętowanie Eucharystii, niedziela staje się centrum życia wierzących. Wyznacza rytm życia ludu Bożego. Czasem słysze od ludzi, co dla nich znaczy udział w niedzielnej Mszy św. Gdy z jakiegos powodu nie uczestniczą w Eucharystii, czegoes im brakuje w niedzielnym świętowaniu. To doswiadczenie ludzi wierzących wyraża prawdę: Bez Mszy św. niedziela traci sens jako dzień święty poświęcony Panu.

Niedziela jest zatem prawdziwie „Dies Domini” (dniem Panskim). Świętowanie niedzieli wyznacza rytm naszego życia i uswieca je. Istotnym elementem tego świętowania jest uczestnictwo w Eucharystii. Eucharystia oznacza „dziekczynienie”. Jest to dziekczynienie składane Panu Bogu za to wszystko, co dla nas uczynił. Dziękujemy za stworzenie świata i nasze. Dziękujemy za odkupienie dokonane w Jezusie. Dziękujemy za historię naszego życia. W Eucharystii jest zawarta cała historia zbawienia. Kiedy w niej bierzemy udział, to wtedy dzieje się coś wspaniałego i wyjątkowego: wpłatamy historię nasze życia w historię zbawienia. Uczestnicząc z wiarą w niedzielnej Mszy św. stajemy się uczestnikami zbawienia; odkupienie staje się naszym udziałem.

Pełne uczestnictwo w Eucharystii to uczestnictwo połączone z przyjęciem Komunii św., bowiem Msza św. to uczta, na którą zaprasza sam Pan.

Eucharystia to także Ofiara. Tu przynosimy to wszystko, co trudne i bolesne dla nas, to co się w naszym życiu nie udało. Składamy to na ołtarzu, a wtedy dzięki Jezusowi zostaje to przemienione i nabiera sensu i nowej wartości. Dlatego ma sens uczestnictwo we Mszy św. i wtedy, kiedy chcemy z radości śpiewać, i kiedy przygniatają nas troski i smutki. Nasza radość staje się radością w Panu. W smutku znajdujemy umocnienie i pociechę.

VINCENTIAN MISSIONARIES THANK YOU!

Fr. George Varghese, V.C., departed our friary on Friday grateful for his visit with our community and for the fine support our people have shown for the mission work of his congregation. Even though we have pressing needs of our own, we still remember that there are others whose needs are much greater. Fr. George told us that his community is blessed with many vocations and is challenged with providing for them — 448 seminarians! Also during his visit he enjoyed a cookout, a Polish meal, and Fr. Mike's attempt at Indian cooking! To stay in touch with the work of the Vincentians, check out their website: www.drcm.org

CYO CAR WASH

Dusty summer days (and bugs flying at 60 mph!) can mess up your car in a hurry. Why not let our young athletes give you a hand? The St. Stanislaus CYO will hold a car wash at on Saturday, July 21 from 9:00AM to 2:00PM at the Advance Auto Parts Store located on Broadway, across from South High School. The cost for the wash $6.00 for a car - $8.00 for a van.

ST. STANS HISTORICAL FACT by Rob Jagelewski.

In looking through various books that have been published to document Parish history through the years such as programs, anniversary books, big ticket books like 1973 Centennial and the 1998 125th Anniversary Books, it is always interesting to look at the ads and the businesses they advertised. In the 1961 book which commemorated the dedication of the Social Center some of the businesses which advertised were Grabski Ford, Pontiac, and Dodge on Broadway, Don's Super Market on Fleet, Krusinski's Meat Market (still at the same location on Heisley), Smoron's Market on East 65, Monarch Dry Cleaners on Broadway, Knights of Columbus Southeast Council 3222 (which still exists), Jay's Rexall Drugs on Harvard, Chamber's Bakery, Buckeye Bottling Company on Union, Southeast Chevrolet on Broadway, and J. and M. Beverage on Aetna Road.

ST. STANISLAUS POLISH FESTIVAL NEWS!

Our July cooking dates are reserved for the Stuffed Cabbage. We anticipate making over 3000 stuffed cabbage rolls. So we need your help to roll those cabbage rolls! Mark the dates of this week, Thursday July 19th and Friday July 20th starting at 10:00am to come on down and help out! Again we can always use a clean up crew to show up around 3:00pm to help mop floors, put pans away and clean up the work area.

If you have any questions or would like to get your name on a call list please contact Joe Calamante at 216/271-0832.

Your help DOES make this year's festival another success!

Games of Chance and Basket Booth

Our parishioners and friends of St. Stanislaus are always very generous with donations to help defray the cost of the festival. We are asking everyone as they start out on bargain shopping to start thinking prizes for our duck pond booth, games of chance booths and items to fill baskets for our basket booth.

All of these booths are great moneymakers for the festival. People enjoy taking a chance on our games because they know they are getting a great selection to choose from. So start thinking, creating, purchasing those items to fill our booths and your baskets. We will need all donated prizes and filled baskets to the rectory by Monday October 1st so we can use them for this festival. If you have any further questions regarding the festival please feel free to call either of the co-chairpersons of the festival: Marilyn Mosinski at 216-441-1533 or Joe Calamante at 216-271-0832.

JENNINGS HALL CARD PARTY

Though it's not high-stakes Texas Hold-em, it will still be a lot of fun to join the Card Party sponsored by the Holy Spirit Guild. This benefit to assist the Sisters of the Holy Spirit will be held Sunday, July 22 at 1:30 PM at Jennings hall Auditorium, 10204 Granger Road in Garfield Heights. Call 440-232-2254.

FEWER CREAKS AND GROANS!

It's been almost ten years since our renovation, and some of our pews have become loose and damaged. John Sklodowski and members of the Dads Club are working hard on repairing the wear and tear. Many of the front pews were fixed already last week. Notice the difference? Stop by if you can lend a hand and help "secure our bottoms!" John is asking for volunteers on Wednesday evenings from 6-8 PM. Please call 216-225-5705.

I'VE HEARD SO MANY WONDERFUL THINGS ABOUT YOUR SCHOOL! I'M SO BLESSED I'M ABLE TO SEND MY CHILDREN HERE!

Even though things slow down a bit at the rectory during the summer, one regular occurrence is the registration of new students for the next school year. The comments above are the kinds of things we hear so frequently when parents bring new students in to register. If you know of someone who is "shopping around" for an excellent Catholic school, send them our way! Also, even if a family does not receive the voucher, there are still other forms of financial aid available — nobody should be turned away because of finances!

Registration Monday thru Friday
8:00AM - 4:30 PM, Rectory Office
