Sr. Marie Simon Pierre (Part I)

Two weeks ago I addressed the concept of national freedom and the responsibilities which flow from that reality. Last week I focused on the freedom which comes from Christ and the new life which is its consequence and gift. This week I thought I'd address another type of freedom—freedom from a disease, freedom from Parkinson's, the disease from which John Paul II suffered and the same disease which afflicted Sr. Marie Simon Pierre of the Order of the Little Sisters of Catholic Maternities. I'd like to share with you some things about this wonderful woman of God, much of the material which I found in the publication Totus Tuus, a monthly magazine dealing with the postulation of the cause for the beatification and canonization of Servant of God John Paul II.

Her miraculous cure having been attributed to the intercession of John Paul II post mortem (after his death), the case of Sister Marie Simon Pierre was picked for the Process of Beatification of the servant of God John Paul II. The process began on March 17th, 2006 and finished on March 30, 2007 in the diocese of Aix-en-Provence in France. After all the material had been gathered regarding this miraculous cure the documents were handed over to the Congregation for the Causes of Saints. That official transfer of documents occurred at a solemn ceremony in the Basilica of St. John Lateran on April 2, 2007, the second anniversary of the death of John Paul II. (As an aside, I'd like to point out that the beautiful new shrine holding the icon of St. Stanislaus and Servant of God John Paul II derived its main source of inspiration from the high altar in that same basilica in Rome).

When Sr. Marie Simon Pierre landed in Rome for the ceremony of the closing of the diocesan stage of the Process she was swarmed by photographers and all types of reporters. They all wanted a glimpse of the woman who was the recipient of this freedom from Parkinson's disease! They asked her what she thought the true message of her healing was. She responded "The message of life....I was reborn to a new life!" (continued next week)

“Busy about Many Things”

In the well known gospel selection about Martha and Mary, Jesus seems to reprimand Martha and does not order her to help her sister when she complains that Mary is not helping her. He points out to her that she is “busy about many things,” and at the same time he commends Mary, who sat listening at Jesus’ feet, as one who chose the better part. Both sisters were showing hospitality toward the guest: one, by preparing food for the guest; the other, by listening to the guest. Weren’t and aren’t both important in showing hospitality? Martha, however, seems to have implied that her showing of hospitality was the most important part. Jesus clarified that way of thinking.

Undoubtedly, sometimes one person can balance both quite well. However, in this gospel selection, there seems to be more than everyday domestic hospitality involved. Rather, it seems the incident has to do with where Jesus fits into one’s life and how to be hospitable to the person of Jesus,

Some people say that they are busy when asked how they are. “I’m busy” or “I’m keeping myself busy.” they answer. Generally, they are not busy with praying or going to church or visiting the sick or comforting the lonely. Others, when asked why they don’t pray or go to church, give a busy life as an excuse, implying that there are more important things to do than praying or going to Mass. Still others, when asked why they don’t spend more time with their families or neglect being with them, say that they are busy working and providing financially for them. They have no time for sitting around and talking and visiting. In these and similar situations “busy” refers to those things that have a priority in one’s life, e.g., some are “busybodies” who spend prime time gossiping about others and interfering in other people’s lives.

The Martha and Mary story — whatever other messages or lessons the story may have — is about the priority of sitting at the feet of Jesus and listening to him, the beloved Son of the Father, the one who is the way to truth and life. Each and every follower of Jesus needs to make that choice as Mary did, even though “the busy ones” are calling one to help them because they are “busy.”

Concretely, one needs to set aside time during each busy day for prayer — not just saying some prayers, but listening to Jesus and talking with him. Prayer is a means to keeping a relationship going between the disciple and Jesus as well as the Church and the world. For growth every relationship needs a coming together to talk and to listen.

One way of listening to Jesus is by reading the Word of God, the Bible, especially the New Testament. In this way Jesus speaks, reminding and inspiring us with his teaching and his will. Most probably that is what Jesus did in the home of Martha and Mary when he visited them and Mary sat at his feet.

We cannot pray as we ought without the guidance of the Holy Spirit, with whom each of us has been gifted at baptism. It’s a matter of recognizing and acknowledging His presence and asking for his help: “Come, Holy Spirit, come!”

Would that the Lord say to us daily, “N. ... you have chosen the better part” and not reprimand us saying: “N. ... you are busy about many things. One thing is necessary.” fr. Cam

Maria i Marta

Opowiadanie o gościnności, jaka doświadczał Jezus w domu Łazarza, Marii i Marty to wspaniały przykład przyjazni ludzkiej Bożego Syna. Ewangelia dwa razy daje nam relacje o placzu Jezusa. Raz nad grobem Łazarza. Żydzi widząc Go płaczącego, rzekli: „Zobaczcie jak go milował”. Jezus kochał Łazarza i jego dwie siostry. W ich domu odpoczywał po trudach podróży i nauczania. Cieszył się ich przyjaznią i miłością, zwłaszcza wtedy kiedy gdzie indziej spotykał się z odrzuceniem i nienawiścią.

Gościna, jakiej doznaje Syn Boży w domu swoich przyjaciół, o której relacjonuje dzisiejsza Ewangelia wg św. Łukasza, znajduje się „na tle” gościnności, o której czytamy w pierwszym czytaniu. Jest to tajemniczy tekst. Abraham zaprasza w gościnie Pana, tzn. samego Boga. Czytamy tam: „Pan ukazał się Abrahamowi”. Abraham wychodzi naprzeciw i zaprasza: „O Panie, jeśli darzysz mnie życzliwością, racz nie omijać Twego slugi!”

Ale zarazem czytamy tam: „Abraham spojrzawszy dostrzegł trzech ludzi naprzeciw siebie.” W jednym miejscu zwraca się on do Gościa w liczbie pojedynczej, a dalej w tym samym zdaniu w liczbie mnogiej. Jak to wytłumaczyć? Wydaje się, że jest to jeszcze niewyraźne, ledwie zarysowane to, co zostanie objawione dopiero w Nowym Testamencie przez samego Jezusa: Trójca Święta. Bóg jest jeden, ale w trzech Osobach Boskich.

Wróćmy jednak do sióstr, o których czytamy w dzisiejszej Ewangelii. Historia z Maria i Marta to kolejny fragment Ewangelii, którego nie rozumiemy i przeciw któremu się buntujemy. Czy Jezus tym razem nie przesadził? Czy nie okazał się niesprawiedliwy? Czy nie skrzywdził uczynnej i pracowitej Marty? I czy nie działał niejako przeciwko sobie, bo przecież to Marta była ta, która była czynnie zatroskana o dobro Gościa? Na pierwszy rzut oka wygląda to tak, jakby Jezus chciał zniechęcić Martę do dawania gościnności. Ale to tylko pozór. Chodzi o coś innego.

Jezus nie był egoistycznie zatroskany o własne dobro. Nie zamienił kamieni w chleb, aby zaspokoić swój głód. Przychodził do gościnnych sióstr, aby się posilić i odpocząć. Nie to jednak było Jego pierwszym celem. A więc co?

Jezus nigdy nie pogardził niczyją pracą, nikomu nie okazał lekceważenia, nie przeoczył żadnego gestu miłości i szacunku dla swojej osoby. Nie chciał też pomniejszać znaczenia gościnności. Wręcz przeciwnie: docenił trud Marty i jej poświęcenie, zauważył troskę i potrafił wyrazić uznanie. I w dowód tego uznania chciał ją wprowadzić wyżej, bliżej Boga. A tym, co zbliża do Boga, jest wiara, która rodzi się ze słuchania Słowa. Właśnie to czyniła Maria.

Jezus chciał pokazać hierarchie wartości. W pierwszym rzędzie powinniśmy bowiem „starac się o Królestwo niebieskie, a wszystko inne będzie nam dodane”.

Uczmy się więc od Marii wybierać i kochać to, co najważniejsze, a od Marty pracować. Reszta pozostawmy Jezusowi.

ST. STANS HISTORICAL FACT

by Rob Jagelewski.

Father Benedict Rosinski succeeded Father Anton Kolaszewski (who built our church) as pastor in 1892. Father W.J. Horak was his assistant. In the 14 years of the Rosinski Pastorate at St. Stanislaus there were 5,894 baptisms, 918 marriages, and 2,072 burials of which 1,660 were children. Father Rosinski was the last diocesan pastor to serve the people of St. Stanislaus. The Franciscans arrived in 1906.

PRAY FOR OUR MILITARY the following parishioners are serving our country and ask for your prayers. David Sklodowski is with the Army and is serving in Baghdad at this time. Tom Lechner USN is serving in Iraq.

STEADY AND SECURE

Parishioner John Heyink, a member of the Dads Club and Chair of the Building and Grounds Committee, assists in repairing and securing the church pews. It's been almost ten years since our renovation and some of our pews have become loose and damaged.

Dads Club President John Sklodowski is asking for volunteers to help on Wednesday evenings from 6-8 PM to help with minor repairs to get our pews ship-shape. Please call 216-225-5705 if you can help. Or, just show up on Wednesday evening!

ST. STANISLAUS POLISH FESTIVAL NEWS!

Preparations have begun for the St. Stanislaus Polish Festival, which is October 5th, 6th and 7th Cooking Continues!

Last week our helpful crew turned their "pinchers" into "stuffers," preparing 3,000 stuffed cabbages. Thanks for all your help! This week, they will change their "stuffers" into "rollers," preparing our wonderful and popular beef roll-ups (zrazy). This week Thursday and Friday, July 26 and 27 at 10:00 AM, meet in the social center for fellowship, work, and a valued contribution of time and talent to our parish.

During the first week of August, parishioners will be receiving their raffle tickets in the mail. Please try to sell them out to friends and relatives, and ask for more if you need them! This is an important part of our fund-raising, and it is something that everyone can do, even if they cannot come to the kitchen and help cook.

If you have any questions or would like to get your name on a call list please contact Joe Calamante at 216/271-0832.

Your help DOES make this year's festival another success!

Games of Chance and Basket Booth

Our parishioners and friends of St. Stanislaus are always very generous with donations to help defray the cost of the festival. We are asking everyone as they start out on bargain shopping to start thinking prizes for our duck pond booth, games of chance booths and items to fill baskets for our basket booth.

All of these booths are great moneymakers for the festival. People enjoy taking a chance on our games because they know they are getting a great selection to choose from. So start thinking, creating, purchasing those items to fill our booths and your baskets. We will need all donated prizes and filled baskets to the rectory by Monday October 1st so we can use them for this festival. If you have any further questions regarding the festival please feel free to call either of the co-chairpersons of the festival: Marilyn Mosinski at 216-441-1533 or Joe Calamante at 216-271-0832.
