Springtime for David

I'm not here this weekend! I'm not singing any songs from 'The Producers' either. I'm taking a little break away from things at the invitation of some friends in a part of the world which is experiencing Spring! Our last Spring and Summer were a little more difficult for me than usual. There's always a lot going on around here, but this last year has been even more busy than usual with events as our pilgrimage to Poland, my mom's death and the additional involvement in programs right here, especially the clustering process.

Each of those aforementioned events has created its own problems and challenges. The pilgrimage was challenging inasmuch as it was something I'd never done before, sharing responsibility for the other pilgrims in a country which now functions as efficiently as other tourist destinations in the world. Krakow of 2007 is nothing like Krakow of 2006, 2005, 2004 etc... It has become a busy city full of activity and life. But the logistics of getting everyone around to everything we wanted them to experience were sometimes difficult. Nonetheless, the end result was fine. We brought back memories and the icon and, eventually, all the pilgrims.

My mother's 'return home' was another challenging event. It was so great that she got to live at home to the very end of her earthly life—the same house for most of her 86 years. I bet she never dreamed she'd die so wealthy! She never had to leave her home. She got to enjoy her children, grandchildren and great grandchildren. In the end her happiness was the type which any amount of money could never buy. She died a very wealthy woman!

The clustering process began a few months ago and continues to place strain on everyone involved. Our sad situation of a shortage of priests accompanied by a diaspora of Catholic population (not to mention the seminary) to the suburbs has caused a current climate that will only become hotter and hotter as tempers flare and losses become imminent. We wonder how the poor and those who remain behind will survive. Will the portable communities be able to keep the remaining churches functioning as communities of faith or simply of culture? Will the mega-churches of our suburban paradises fill the gap? The questions are many, the answers are cold. The harsh reality unfolds before our very eyes as we confront the issue with our mustard seeds of faith and our mulberry trees of challenge. The contemporary query: "What would Jesus do?" rings loud and clear ... What do you think he'd do? HONESTLY!

Well, during the next week or so I can give it all some thought as I take a break with friends in the Springtime currently enjoyed in the southern hemisphere. I'll be able to walk in gardens and dine on mollejos and drink some Malbec, visit museums, attend some concerts and small parties and rest a little. Then it's back to work, planning for Eucharistic Day, Advent, Christmas, Lent, Easter and on and on and on into next Summer, looking forward to taking Hercules for walks in the neighborhood and rides in his car. Life goes on.

THE CRIES OF THE POOR

Congratulations, Cleveland! We've gone from being the poorest city in the country last year, to being only the fourth poorest this year. Have we gotten better? Or have the other three cities just gotten worse?

Our own neighborhood in the city still retains much of its charm and livability. Hundreds of fine young people attend the grade school and high school on our campus, and people have been investing in new homes, choosing to leave other neighborhoods and to come here. We must be doing something right!

Still the sheer number of poor people living in our midst is increasing. In spite of the many social service programs sponsored by government agencies, you would be surprised how many people still fall through the cracks. You would also be surprised how many of our own parishioners find themselves falling behind in meeting basic needs or stuck in emergencies for which they have no recourse.

Four years ago our parish leadership began to discern ways to meet the needs of the poor among us in a more systematic and sustained way. People still come to the priests on a case by case basis, and there are often ways to offer concrete help. But the needs are increasing, and the priests are busier than ever. So the Pastoral Council decided two years ago to cooperate with the other Slavic Village parishes, as well as several suburban parishes, in a combined outreach through the Saint Vincent DePaul Society. Catholics should be very familiar with this organization, which has a fine and long history of compassionate and competent service to the poor.

Specifically, many parishes have worked to create a facility called the "Ozanam Center." Located on the property of Holy Name Parish on Broadway, it offers food, clothing, and household items as well as various forms of vouchers for emergency utility and rent assistance. Although other area parishes have "stepped up to the plate" in contributing, we have been a bit lax.

Under the coordination of Matt Zielenski (and anyone offering to help!) we will regularly distribute two forms of help to the Ozanam Center. Matt reports that there is a great need for anything that will help parents with small children — infant and toddlers' food, clothing, diapers, toys, etc. Therefore, starting next weekend, there will be receptacles in the vestibule of the church every weekend, ready to receive whatever you can give for the care of infants and toddlers. Also, on the last Sunday of every month there will be a second collection (no added envelope in your packets, just passing the basket a second time) for cash donations to the Ozanam Center.

I realize that times are tight for many of our parishioners. Even the parish budget is tightening up. But there are always people who have it harder than we do. An extra dollar, a can of baby formula, a clean used baby blanket — every little thing we give adds up to a great sign of Christian compassion. Starting next week, I strongly urge everyone to give something, no matter how small. Remember Jesus' words: "Whatever you did for the least of mine, you did for me."

Fr. Michael

„Cuda naszego Papieża”

W tym tygodniu (16 października) obchodziliśmy rocznicę wyboru kardynała Karola Wojtyły na papieża. Pamiętamy zapewne, że w Polsce jest to święto poświęcone rozważaniu jego dziedzictwa.

W ostatni zaś czwartek rozpoczęliśmy w naszym sanktuarium specjalne comiesięczne nabożeństwa w intencji o beatyfikację naszego rodaka Jana Pawła II. Z tej okazji myślę, że warto przytoczyć pewne świadectwo na temat cudów dokonanych za przyczyną Sługi Bożego. Osoba, która doznała tego cudu jest powszechnie znana - to aktor Daniel Olbrychski. Jego świadectwo znajduje się w książce pod tytułem „Cuda naszego Papieża”. Oto, co napisał on sam:

Jestem człowiekiem, który wszystko w swoim życiu traktował „na całego” i starał się wykorzystać maksymalnie, optymalnie, aż do przesady. Dotyczyło to wszystkich pozytywnych przejawów aktywności życiowej, ale bywało niebezpieczne, gdy dotyczyło tak zwanych słabości. Papierosy i alkohol też są podobno dla ludzi, ale może niekoniecznie dla takich o moim usposobieniu.

Gdy zauważyłem, szkoda, że nie o wiele wcześniej, iż pale za dużo, ponad dwie paczki dziennie, i pije, wprawdzie z przyjemnością, ale za często, wiedziałem, że muszę coś z tym zrobić. Ale mimo mojej ogromnej dyscypliny zawodowej i miłości do sportu, używki te towarzyszyły mojemu życiu, ba, wygrywały ze mną.

Nadeszły pamiętne dni kwietnia 2005 roku. Towarzyszyliśmy chorobie i śmierci Jana Pawła II. Pamiętam chwilę jego pogrzebu. Siedzę przed telewizorem, a na ekranie Plac św. Piotra. Papieska trumna. Wiatr furkoce kartkami leżącymi na niej Pisma Świętego. Uświadamiam sobie, że – poruszony jak wszyscy – wyrażam to na swój sposób: papieros w jednej ręce, a szklanka wina w drugiej. Powiedziałem sobie: „ostatni” i zgasiłem papierosa, oraz „stop co najmniej na rok” i odstawilem wino.

Jak było w następne dni, tygodnie, miesiące? Rzucic nalogi wielu może. Ja mogę powiedzieć rzecz unikalna – nie było to dla mnie żadnym, ale to żadnym problemem. Nie mogę więc stwierdzić, że dokonałem czegoś heroicznego. Może w sposób zupełnie szczególnie pomógł mi Karol Wojtyła? Ludzie przy mnie palili, pili. Sam im przypalałem i nalewalem. Żadnych problemów, żadnej pokusy.

Kilka miesięcy później miałem pęknięte zebro po upadku z konia. Normalne w tym sporcie. W szpitalu we Wrocławiu zrobiono mi rezonans magnetyczny. Lekarka radiolog rutynowo stwierdza, patrząc na obraz płuc na ekranie: „no tak, widac, że ten człowiek nigdy nie palił. Moja żona, obecna przy tym, mówi: ależ pani doktor, Daniel jeszcze trzy miesiące temu palił dwie paczki dziennie i to od wielu lat. Lekarka: droga pani, ta aparatura się nie myli, to jest obraz płuc niepalącego człowieka.

Cudów nie ma. A może jednak?... Nie pale. Czasem pozwalam sobie wypić coś niecos bez żadnych złych konsekwencji. Oczywiście pilnuje się, bo wiem, że nawet cudom trzeba pomagać.

PARISH R.C.I.A.

If you know an adult who is not baptized, or who is baptized Catholic but has not made First Communion or been Confirmed, or has been baptized in another church and wants to become Catholic, invite them to the School All-Purpose Room Sundays at 10:00 AM.

DIGNITY OF THE HUMAN PERSON

Like Jesus we are called to empower those who find themselves dehumanized by society. Not by giving them charity alone, but by enabling them as well to participate fully in our society. Thus they are empowered to express the life and dignity God has given to all of us. Please consider the difference between giving charitably to someone and working with that person so that she or he can participate fully in society. Ask yourself how you can work with those who are poor, rather than work for them. THANK YOU JOE AND PAT

The Volunteer's Appreciation Dinner last Friday was fun, the food was delicious, reminiscing with fellow workers was great. The only thing that could have made the evening better would have been the news that our Chief cook and bottle washer Joe Calamante and his bride Pat would have stayed on to do the Festival next year! Alas, it is not to be! Joe announced that he is stepping down from the Co-Chair position he holds with Marilyn Mosinski, and will now be a mere human being and no longer our super cook! We love you, and thanks for all your hard work.

WYPOMINKI

Listopadowe dni to czas szczególnej zadumy nad przemijaniem życia, jego sensem i wiecznością. W tym miesiącu wspominamy tych co odeszli, pamiętamy o bliskich w modlitwie. Jest pięknym, odwiecznym zwyczajem, że naszych zmarłych polecamy wspólnym modlitwom Kościoła zwanych wypominkami. Nie odkładajmy tej sprawy na ostaną chwilę; przez cały listopad nazwiska zmarłych będą czytane w naszym kościele przed każdą Mszą św. Serdeczna prośba: nazwiska naszych zmarłych wypisujemy wyraźnie, najlepiej drukowanymi literami, by można było bezbłędnie wpisać je do Księgi Zmarłych.

PRAYERS FOR THE DEAD.

The month of November is traditionally set aside for the prayerful remembrance of the faithful departed. At Saint Stanislaus Church, we have a special devotion to our loved ones who have been called from this life into eternity. One very special way we bring our beloved deceased to prayer is by sending their names to be inscribed in the Book of Life, from which we pray at the beginning of each Mass in November. The October envelope packet contains a special envelope for sending in names, or you may use your own. People can drop them into the collection basket at Mass, or they may be mailed to the rectory. PLEASE, PLEASE, PLEASE! PRINT YOUR NAMES LEGIBLY. In many cases the names written on the envelopes are almost impossible to read due to poor handwriting! Remember please PRINT.

2008 MASS BOOK IS OPEN

Those who wish to reserve Masses for wedding anniversaries and anniversaries of deaths in 2007 can do so in person on Thursdays and Fridays, from 9:30 AM until 4:30 PM. We ask that you come to the office with your Mass intentions on Thursday and Fridays only. You may also mail your Mass intentions or drop them into the collection basket along with the customary stipend and your requested dates. Please do not phone as we cannot accept phone reservations. We will make every effort to reserve the dates you choose, but if your requested date is not available, we will accommodate your request with the closest date possible. The amount of Masses may be limited per person, so that others may also have an opportunity to reserve dates.

There are still a few weekday dates available in November and December of this year. If a relative has recently passed away consider a Mass in his/her intention for this year!

THE MOST PRECIOUS GIFT

There was a little girl who had a grandfather she loved very much, and she always looked forward to visiting him. Her grandfather had a collection of hourglasses and the little girl always had fun turning them upside down and watching the sand shift through. Once she asked her grandfather why he had all those hourglasses. He said they remind him that time was the most precious thing in the world.

The little girl had not seen her grandfather for weeks. Eventually her mother told her that grandfather was in the hospital because he was very sick and he might die. The little girl wasn't sure what death was. Her mother said that life was like one of grandfather's hourglasses and that grandfather had very little time left. Mom said that they were going to visit grandfather and asked the little girl to make him a special gift.

The girl spent the rest of the morning working on her gift. When they got to the hospital, the little girl gave her grandfather a beautifully wrapped box. Her grandfather slowly unwrapped his present and looked inside and smiled. The little girl had filled the box with sand.

ST. STANS HISTORICAL FACT

by Rob Jagelewski.

In the early 1900's the Warszawa neighborhood was the primary area of Polish settlement in Cleveland. The boundaries of this settlement were Fleet Avenue to Broadway Avenue on the east, East 55 on the west, Lansing Avenue on the south, and Heisley Avenue on the north. The Polish neighborhood around Sacred Heart Church was expanding north towards Warszawa. At the heart of Warszawa was the newly constructed St. Stanislaus Church

DON'T MISS THE EXHIBIT AT MILL CREEK

Have you seen Slavic Village's very own waterfall? Mill Creek Falls is a forty-four foot waterfall, located near the intersection of Broadway and Warner and Turney. Also at the site is the Mill Creek Falls History Center, open for just two more weekends this fall, Saturdays and Sundays from 1:00 pm to 4:00 pm. Of special interest to the Polish community is the exhibit on the Shrine Church of St. Stanislaus, designed by the church's own parishioners. Come and learn more about St. Stan's and about the Polish heritage of Slavic Village.

Directions: The Center and Falls are located at 8404 Webb Terrace, off of Warner Road. To get there, take Broadway to Warner. Stay close to your right and look for the Metroparks sign; before going on Warner, take a sharp right down a small hill. The Falls can't be seen from the road, so be sure to turn right, down the hill.
