WHAT NEXT?!?!?!?!?

It wasn't too long ago that if someone had suggested we might see a pope from any other country than Italy they would have been laughed out of the room. It wasn't too long ago that if someone had suggested we might see an United States president any color other than white they'd receive the same amount of laughter. After all, it's the way things were. Yes, they 'were' - the operative word.

Granted, there were (and still are and always will be) some Roman Catholics who were never happy with the election of Karol Wojtyla as there were (and still are and always will be) some Americans who have identical feelings about the election of Barack Obama. In both cases, people who were or are neither Catholic nor American had mixed feelings as well.

When Karol Wojtyla was chosen by the College of Cardinals to lead the Church in 1978, there were many who rejoiced and many who were disappointed. Those who were happy were so for a myriad of reasons. Do you remember the extreme pride which beamed from the faces of most Poles at that point in history? Remember how, suddenly, anything seemed possible? And, at the same time, there were many people who chose to maintain their negative feelings for the entire situation. References were even made to the popular film "Shoes of the Fisherman" just counting the days before this Polish Cardinal would begin redistributing the wealth of the Vatican as did the pope in the fictional movie. Of course, that never did happen— not that John Paul II could not have done precisely that had he chosen to; but he didn't. That's not was he was about, nor was it what would have served the Church in his estimation. His election was not based on the economy as many say our recent one was.

Now in 2008 we see a similar situation in our country with the election of Barack Obama. There are many who are euphoric and there are many who are disappointed. Rightfully so, many Blacks are jubilant and full of pride! To those from all ethnic groups, races and creeds who rejoiced anything seemed possible. Those who chose to vote for another candidate were less optimistic. Referring to the so-called 're-distribution of wealth' we heard cries of "Socialism" as those earning over $200,000 seemed targeted. ("Shoes of the Fisherman American Style?") We will always have the needy and the greedy - part of the human condition.

As with John Paul II's election, there seems to be quite a reaction around the world to this event. With the election of the pope, as with the election of a president, we know the various factors which fall into play. At this point in the history of the human race, the two men chosen to lead their respective people were simply deemed to be the appropriate choice for a specific point of time. But the similarities between the two men must not be taken too far.

In the case of our president-elect, his mission is to lead the country in a way very different from the mission of any pope. The president may inspire people to work together toward greatness, as that quality will only be accomplished by the sacrifices and serious determination of the people of this great nation (that is what will keep it 'great'). The president is the elected manager of this country as decided by her citizens for an exact period of one or two terms.

The pope, on the other hand, holds the greatness and holiness of God as paramount. With the Cross of Christ as the compass of the universal Church, the pope's allegiance to the God of Mercy and Love as revealed in the person of Jesus Christ under the continuing guidance of His Holy Spirit has no comparison. Every baptized person holds that same allegiance.

We have no choice as to being or not being human. We are all made of the same stuff. By birth or choice we are citizens of the United States of America and we are Roman Catholics. AND we are citizens of the world, God's creation. No matter how we voted we all have the responsibility to make this entire planet a better place. To those to whom much has been given, much is expected.

O, Come, All Ye Faithful ... Come!

When I was a youngster attending SS. Peter and Paul grade school in Garfield Heights, one of the most notable events that took place at the parish was the so-called Forty Hours devotion.

Usually, a priest/missionary of a Religious Order conducted the three-day celebration. The evening service attracted a full church of devout faithful. Children were asked to give up their seat and stand at the side aisle. Standing room only—it was mobbed. So great was the devotion and love of the parishioners.

At the sound of the sacristy bells, the priest entered the sanctuary; the people rose and the marvelous singing led by the wonderful choir began. The relatively, small, wooden church, was vibrating with heartfelt song. The booming voice of the priest/missionary resonated throughout the church during his well-prepared sermon. Words of wisdom and knowledge, words of love and devotion, words of encouragement and hope, words of tremendous gratitude—all uttered in reverence and respect for Jesus, present in the Most Blessed Sacrament of the Altar. The beautiful Monstrance set high atop the altar commanded the singular attention of all attending. The thoughts and words presented pierced not only the listeners' ears, but especially, their minds and hearts. This was Jesus in our midst, being honored and praised by the old as well as the young.

I never forget the final evening of this devotion—the many visiting priests, the choir, the procession. The children in the First Communicant class and others were invited to be part of the procession. The organ, the singing, the sweet aroma of the incense all blended together in this genuine act of love and devotion that left the people yearning for more.

Every morning was special for us, the school children. We had the privilege of attending Mass each day. We were packed pretty-tightly into the pews—class by class. We always knelt “straight up” - that was the respectful posture.

During this three-day Forty Hours Devotion we were so fortunate—the missionary priest came to visit each class. He spoke to us about his life in the Religious Order and then he proceeded to speak to us about the Presence of Jesus in the Holy Eucharist, in our lives, in the reception of Holy Communion.

Just like on Holy Thursday, so also on one of the three days of Forty Hours each class was assigned a one-hour period of time to come to church and spend time before the Blessed Sacrament. What a wonderful, memorable experience. We prayed and sang and thanked Jesus for all the many blessings we received at each moment of our lives.

Next week, here at St. Stan's we are being invited to come to church and spend time in the presence of Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament. There will be a well-versed Franciscan missionary priest, a choir, visiting clergy and religious sisters. And guests from neighboring parishes.

What a great feeling of joy and confidence to know that we add to the number of the countless great people who preceded us and offered their thanks and praise to Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament. What a Great Day that will be when we meet with these wonderful people and stand together before Jesus—but this time — Face to Face!! Can't wait!!

Boża sprawiedliwość

Każdemu bowiem, kto ma, będzie dodane, tak że nadmiar mieć będzie.

Temu zaś, kto nie ma, zabiorą nawet to, co ma (Mt 25, 29).

Nawet teologom przychodzi z trudnością wyjaśnić to powiedzenie Pana. Czyż nie sprzeciwia się to z obrazem Jezusa, jaki malują Ewangelie przed oczami czytelnika? Jak ma się to zdanie do faktu, że Jezus zwracał się najpierw i przede wszystkim do tych, którym w społeczeństwie powodziło się najgorzej. Pan występował w obronie słabych, ubogich, uzdrawiał chorych, podnosił złamanych na duchu, szukał samotnych, aby przynieść im pociechę. O co chodzi?

Przeczytajmy jeszcze raz przypowieść o talentach. Pewien człowiek przed udaniem się w podróż, powierza swój majątek sługom. Każdemu według ich zdolności. Ciekawe, nie ma napisane w Ewangelii, co ci słudzy mają z tymi pieniędzmi zrobić. Widać było to oczywiście. Przynajmniej było oczywiste dla dwóch pierwszych. Zaczęli gospodarować nimi i podwoili otrzymany kapitał. Trzeci, jak później możemy się domyślać, również wiedział, że jego pan oczekuje czegoś od niego, ale nie zrobił nic. Czy stracił powierzone mu pieniądze? Nie, oddał z powrotem dokładnie tyle, ile otrzymał. Nie sprzeniewierzył powierzonych mu dóbr. Jednak spotkał się z naganą swego pana, że nie puścił w obieg otrzymanego talentu, aby go pomnożyć.

Co to dla nas oznacza. Oznacza to, że nie wystarczy nikogo nie zamordować, nie okraść, nie popełnić cudzołóstwa. Inaczej mówiąc z dzisiejszej Ewangelii wynika nauka, że nie wystarczy nie zgrzeszyć ciężko, aby być dobrym chrześcijaninem, chociaż to samo w sobie jest już wielkim osiągnięciem. Co to oznacza podam na przykładzie felietonu pod tytułem: „Nie wystarczy nie zamordować”, który znalazłem na stronie internetowej mojego przyjaciela, który jest zawodowym kierowcą ciężarówki, a wolne chwile poświęca na głoszenie Ewangelii piórem, a właściwie używając klawiatury komputera.

Oto ten tekst. „Ktoś kiedyś zapytał i bardzo mi się to pytanie podoba: "Jeżeli chrześcijaństwo nagle stałoby się nielegalne, to czy sąd byłby w stanie udowodnić, że jesteś chrześcijaninem?" Obawiam się, że wielu oskarżonych miałoby bardzo prostą sprawę z wybroniem się w sądzie. [...]

Problem polega na tym, że gdy nasza katecheza kończy się na maturze, a wcześniej też nie była na żadnym poziomie, to nie mamy szans na przejście próby. Ilu katechetów uczy o miłości Bożej? O potrzebie osobistego kontaktu z Jezusem? Ilu rodziców rozmawia o wierze z dziećmi? I nie mówię tu o poleceniu pójścia na Mszę, czy nawet majówkę lub nakazie zostania ministrantem. To jest potrzebne, pożyteczne, ale jak nie pochodzi z serca, syn się zbuntuje jak tylko będzie miał -naście lat.

Słuchałem wczoraj audycji Radia Józef, nomen-omen, "Bądź zimny, bądź gorący". Prowadzący opowiadał, że ulubią zabawą jego kilkuletniego synka jest zabawa w Dawida i Goliata. I jak ten czteroletni brzdąc atakuje tatę z okrzykiem "Mam Boga żywego!" to tata sam zaczyna wierzyć, oczami dziecka, jak dziecko. Ale skąd mały zna tę historię i dlaczego potrafi cytować księgę Samuela? Tylko dlatego, że tata zamiast głupich bajek czyta mu Słowo Boże. ANNUAL EUCHARISTIC DAY

On Sunday Nov 23rd. We will celebrate the Solemnity of Christ the King and the last Sunday of the Church Year. St. Stanislaus Parish will have an opportunity to thank God for all the blessings of the year. In the spirit of Vibrant Parish Life, we will be joined by the parish communities of Saint Hyacinth, Our Lady of Lourdes and Saint Casimir.

We will have a public adoration of the Blessed Sacrament throughout the afternoon. Silent adoration will follow the 11:30 Mass until 2:00. St. Hyacinth parishioners will lead prayers starting at 2:00; the rosary and hymns in English will begin at 2:30; in Polish at 3:00; and in Spanish at 3:30. .

Parishioners are encouraged to bring the family and set aside at least one half hour of prayer before the Blessed Sacrament in the course of the afternoon. The Procession and closing liturgy will take place during the 4:00 PM Holy Hour. A number of priests and sisters from the area will join us in prayer and thanksgiving.

MASSES —2009 DATES AVAILABLE

The Mass Book for next year (2009) has been open. It is a wonderful gesture to the living, as well as a remembrance of the deceased, to have people remembered at Mass. If you haven't reserved your special dates, now is the time to do so. If you would like to reserve a Mass intention for a loved one that has passed or a special intention for someone that is ill and needs prayers, you may drop by the rectory during normal business hours or drop your request in the collection basket.

CLUSTER REPORT SUBMITTED

On Monday, November 10th, our cluster committee signed the final draft to be submitted to Bishop Richard Lennon for his consideration. The following day it was delivered to the office of the Bishop. Now it will be reviewed by another committee before being forwarded to the Presbyteral Council and the Bishop for their final review and decision. That decision is due in March of 2009. In the meantime, please pray for those people making the decisions as well as the many parishioners who will be experiencing the loss of their communities. Nobody is happy about the way things developed but, ultimately, those determinations were the result of our very own feet (moving from the neighborhoods), hands (not pitching in to keep the parishes vital) and lips (not praying for vocations to help replace the priests and nuns who have gone to their eternal rest).

NEW PARISHIONER REGISTRATION

Have you been attending Saint Stanislaus for a while but haven't yet registered in your own name? Have you been looking for a parish to call your own but haven't made the commitment yet? If you are an adult Catholic (18 or older) and you are not registered at any parish at all, or if you are registered at another parish but you attend regularly here as well, please consider formally registering as a St. Stanislaus parishioner.

The process is easy – simply fill out a registration form and turn it in to the parish office. The form is printed in both Polish and English. To make it even easier, members of the Parish Pastoral Council will have registration forms available at all Masses the weekend of November 15-16. Just fill one out and we will take care of the rest!

REJESTRACJA NOWYCH PARAFIAN

Czy uczęszczasz do Kościoła Świętego Stanisława, ale nie jesteś jeszcze zarejestrowany? Czy nie podjąłeś jeszcze decyzji, do której parafii chciałbyś przynależać? Jeżeli jesteś katolikiem (masz 18 lat lub powyżej), nie jesteś zarejestrowany w żadnej parafii, ale regularnie uczęszczasz do naszego kościoła - prosimy o formalną rejestrację w naszej kancelarii. Proces przystąpienia do naszej parafii jest bardzo prosty – wypełnienie formularza rejestracyjnego i złożenie go w kancelarii kościelnej. Formularze dostępne są zarówno w języku angielskim jak i polskim. Aby uprościć procedurę rejestracji, członkowie Parish Pastoral Council będą rozdawali w/w formularze w dniu 15 i 16 Listopada (sobota i niedziela). Prosimy o zwrot wypełnionych formularzy, które umożliwią rejestrację bez osobistej wizyty w kancelarii parafialnej

R.C.I.A Class on Sundays

Adults who have never been baptized, Catholics who have not completed their Sacraments of Communion or Confirmation, and adults who are converting to the Catholic Church are meeting every Sunday morning at 10:00 in the school all-purpose room. All are invited to this opportunity for adult education in the faith!

THE MEMORIAL BRICKS

We are now taking Peace Brick orders for the next summers installation. Consider donating a brick for a lasting memorial for a deceased relative or friend. Order forms can be picked up at the rectory or downloaded from the St. Stanislaus Web Site www.ststanislaus.org

ST. STAN'S HISTORICAL FACT

by Rob Jagelewski

The first basketball game played in the Social Center gym occurred during the 1960–61 season for the St. Stanislaus High School Panthers. A capacity crowd filled every seat in the new gymnasium. They came to watch the defending champion Panthers play the Chanel Firebirds in a North Central Conference contest. Two players, one on each team, went on to play in the National Football League. Rich Badar from St. Stan's went on to star as quarterback for Indiana University. From there he went on to play for the Pittsburgh Steelers and the Washington Redskins. Ernie Kellerman from Chanel went on to star for the Cleveland Browns. In this photo, Father Agnellus Sobolewski OFM, Pastor, throws the ball up for the opening tip-off in the opening game at the Social Center.

FOR WHOM THE BELL TOLLS

It is hard to believe it's already been ten years since the rededication of our newly renovated and restored church. Some of the things worked on then have needed further attention. For example, many of the lights in the ceiling need more than just new bulbs — they need the fixtures to be replaced. We have been working on that for over a month now, and hopefully the work will be finished by Christmas. We will report on that expense when it is finished, but it will be well over a thousand dollars.

Our church bells have also not been checked out for ten years, and they've been acting strangely lately. Last week a technician from the Verdin Bell Company in Cincinnati inspected the bell system and made a few repairs. Also he was able to add a new element to the programming, giving us the chance to toll the hours. The hours will be tolled from 7:00 AM until 8:00 PM — except for the Angelus bells which will ring at the usual 6:00 AM, 12:00 noon, and 6:00 PM times. And of course, we will still peal happy events like a World Series or Super Bowl title, but don't hold your breath...

SLAVIC VILLAGE MARKET STOP HOLIDAY HARVEST

Slavic Village will have a "Holiday Harvest Food Fest" on the two Friday's prior to this year's Thanksgiving and Christmas holidays, held November 21st and December 19th, from 3 to 6 pm at the Americana Café Coffee Shop community room, 3664 E. 65th Street across from the church.

There will also be other available 'a la carte' purchases & orders from among the following current early list of invited local vendors: herbs and vegetables from Blue Pike Farm and Eco Village Market Garden, honey, jam, relish, & Salve products from Karin's Apiary, farm Fresh organic beef & pork products from Rose Ridge Farm, Matzah Ball Soup & bakery from Sandy's Baked Goods, and specialty baked goods from Real Man's Cheesecake.
