Golgotha

V. Simon of Cyrene Helps Jesus Carry the Cross

8:00 a.m. Read paper. Have coffee. Eat breakfast. The phone rings....a friend is depressed. You talk to him.
 9:00 a.m. You leave for work. When you stop at the gas station to fill up a lady approaches you for money. You take her into the store and buy her something to eat....and still give her some help.
 11:30 a.m. The cafeteria worker serving the mac and cheese is having a bad day with her arthritis. You offer stand in for her for your lunch break.
 2:00 p.m. A simple smile on your face crosses the room and is caught by a co-worker who looks very lost.
 2:01 p.m. You say a short prayer for that co-worker's husband who was recently diagnosed with AIDS.
 3:00 p.m. Mail arrives late, you almost lose your temper. You thank the mailman.
 ...And so the day proceeds. You think you are helping Him carry...the Cross.
 Then, in the loneliness of the night, emptiness becomes unbearable.
 A hand reaches out. A voice says, "Don't cry...let me help you with your cross...I still have room on my shoulder."
 Jesus becomes our Simon in that night of darkness. His mother whispers our pain into his ear...He moves on...In her sorrow, she comforts us.
We adore You, O Christ, and we praise You!...

WELCOME, NEW AND OLD

Part of the proud heritage of Polish culture, indeed for all in our parish community, is the virtue of hospitality and welcome. This week we have some special words of welcome to extend.

In the bulletin last week, Fr. George described a long process that has just been completed for him, the process of incardination into the Diocese of Cleveland. Every priest must belong somewhere. There is no such thing as a free-wheeling priest, detached from proper religious obedience. Fr. Cam, Fr. Howard, and I are Franciscans, and so our attachment is to our Franciscan Province, through obedience to our Provincial Minister. Diocesan priests belong properly to the obedience of a bishop in a given diocese. This is true even when they are serving temporarily in a different diocese. In a sense, they always "belong" to their original bishop, who gives them a release from local responsibilities to serve elsewhere.

This has been the case for Fr. George. When he first came to the United States to minister in Cleveland, he still belonged to his home diocese in Poland. His bishop gave him permission to help here. Bishop Pilla allowed him to serve at St. Stanislaus because at the time, almost seven years ago, we were without a Polish speaking priest. He has been here ever since, faithfully carrying out his responsibilities to the entire parish community.

At some point along the way, Fr. George felt called to ask to be released from his home bishop and to become an official and permanent part of the Diocese of Cleveland. This process is called, in the Canon Law of the church, "incardination." It takes some time, and it involves many steps. But recently Fr. George received word that the process is now complete, and he is officially part of the Diocese of Cleveland, and not just a priest on loan from Poland. Welcome, Fr. George!

In the meantime, we have also been blessed with another priest who has been given permission to be with us for a while. When David Krakowski and I were in Krakow last November, we met the superiors of the Franciscans there and invited them to send Friars who would like to study English, to share our fraternal life, and perhaps to minister here. Last week we were happy to receive into our fraternity Fr. Placyd Kon, OFM. Fr. Placyd will spend three months studying English and joining in the prayer, ministry, and fraternal life of the other Friars here. He is from the Reformed Franciscan Province in Krakow, and actually grew up in the same region as Fr. George. They are only two years apart in age! Recently he has been working at a shrine in Germany. Welcome, Fr. Placyd!

Finally, we are all pleased to receive the news that Pope Benedict has granted the request of Bishop Pilla to grant him a time to rest and retire, and that the holy Father has sent us a new bishop who will take office on May 15. Bishop Richard Lennon has done fine work in his home diocese of Boston, where he worked as an auxiliary bishop to another native of the Cleveland area — Cardinal O'Malley, a Capuchin Franciscan. Although he is not sure he can become an Indians fan, we still want to say to him: Welcome, Bishop Lennon!

POKORA OSIOLKA

Zycie Jezusa bylo zmierzaniem do krzyza. Mówil On bardzo czesto o tej własnie godzinie, która jeszcze nie nadeszła i która objawi sie dopiero wtedy, gdy Syn Czlowieczy zostanie wywyższony. On byl, jak pisze ewangelista Lukasz, ciągle w drodze do Jerozolimy i po kazdym wazniejszym wydarzeniu na tej drodze zapowiadał, ze Syn Czlowieczy bedzie odrzucony przez starszych, wydany i ukrzyzowany. Dlatego sw. Lukasz ułożyl swoja Ewangelie jako jedna, dluga podróż Jezusa do Jerozolimy, gdzie musi dopelnic swe dzieło zbawienia. W tygodniu, który bedziemy przezywać, wypelnil sie najbardziej decydujący dramat znany ludzkosci, dramat ludzkiego odkupienia.

Od dzis krzyz Chrystusa wznosi sie nad całym tygodniem, który rozpoczynamy – az po Niedziele Zmartwychwstania. Kosciól pragnie, byśmy patrzyli na oba misteria razem, bo one sa nierozlaczne: dwa etapy tej samej tajemnicy - przez Jego Smierc przyszło do nas zycie; przez Jego Meke dojdziemy do chwaly wiecznej.

Procesja z palmami. Przypomina nam triumfalny wjazd Jezusa do Jerozolimy, który chcial sie w sposób całkowicie wolny oddac smierci „za nas i za wszystkich ludzi, dla zgladzenia naszych grzechów”. Oddanie, któremu towarzyszy ponadto tyle niewypowiedzianych i niekonczacych sie cierpien ciała i duszy: „Maz bolesci” – tak widzial Go prorok Izajasz i tak widziala Go Jerozolima.

Dlatego Jezus chcial oswietlic swoja straszna Meke swiatłem prorockim zapowiadajacym Jego zwyciestwo. Chcial z cala jasnoscia zapowiedziec, ze idzie na smierc pozornie przegrany, lecz w rzeczywistosci bedac zwyciezca. Albowiem po tej smierci, a dokładnie przez nia, zostanie zniszczona smierc i zycie odnowione przez zmartwychwstanie.

Z procesja wchodzimy do kosciola, aby miec udzial w pojednaniu z Ojcem, które dokonuje sie w Eucharystii. Jezus zaprasza nas dzis, byśmy szli śladami Jego upokorzen, by potem isc śladami Jego zwyciestwa w Wigilii Paschalnej. T

Pójdźmy Jego śladami. Kazdy bez wyjatku jest do tego zaproszony. Choc trudna to droga, to jednak trzeba w prawdziwie pozwolic sie nia prowadzic. Czy Jezus obiecal ci, ze idac za Nim bedziesz szedł droga usłana kwiatami? Nie moze byc uczen nad Mistrza... Jesli Mnie przesladowali, to i was przesladowac beda... Jak isc po tej drodze?

Pokora osiolka. Osiolek spelnial bardzo wazna role w procesji, a nikt nie zwracal na niego uwagi. Ale to on jeden w tłumie sluzyl Jezusowi. Jezus zdawal w kierunku miasta swojej smierci. I osiolek byl narazony na niebezpieczenstwo, jednak zawsze cierpliwy – tak, jak jego Pan tego sobie zyczyl.

Wchodzimy w Wielki Tydzien. Wielkie rzeczy bedziemy rozwazac. Starajmy sie byc wtedy jak ten osiolek – pokornie sluzyc Panu, isc tam, gdzie on nam kaze. Lekasz sie, ze Jezus prowadzi Cie na coraz to wieksze trudnosci. Nie, on prowadzi nas na dzien zmartwychwstania.

Kazdy z nas jest takim małym, niepozornym osiolkiem, którego Pan Bóg potrzebuje w swoich wielkich sprawach.

Ks. Janusz Lekan

ST. STAN'S HISTORICAL FACT

One hundred years ago this past week the Franciscans came to St. Stanislaus Parish to care for our ómmunity. This started one hundred consecutive years of a Franciscan presence at our Parish. The first Friars assigned here from the Sacred Heart Province on Palm Sunday, April 7, 1906 were Father Theobald Kalamaja OFM as Pastor, Father Methodius Kielar OFM, and Brothers Zosimus and Basil. Bishop Ignatius Horstmann instructed the Friars to bring back the separate community of the Immaculate Heart of Mary Parish and to reconcile whatever divisions existed in the community of St. Stanislaus.
