Golgotha XII. Jesus Dies on the Cross

The tree now lives in glory.
 The roots reach into the depths of the universe which had been asleep.
 Creation is able to breathe again as intended.
 The Word has spoken Truth...Love.

Such beauty in suffering has never before graced the earth.
 The silent flow of life from the body on the cross is baptizing time.
 The blood of the Lamb flows like a river past the stars throughout heaven, purgatory, hell...
 The Word has spoken Truth...Love.

Angels tremble at this display.
 The heartbeat of 'being' is 'becoming.'
 Alpha and Omega.
 The Word has spoken Truth...Love.

Lucifer rises in rebellion again.
 Mankind will forever have that tree as its sword.
 Eden's tree fades.
 The Word has spoken Truth...Love.

CYTRYNÓWKA

“Vitamins” we call it — it’s filled with vitamin C! Sometimes we fake a slight cough in order to justify taking an extra one. “Na Zdrowie!” Then down goes the burning/frozen, sweet/sour elixir. “Whaaa!” Another one?

Whenever we walk into the rectory and our noses are greeted with the sweet aroma of lemons and limes, we know that something is cooking in the kitchen. Fr. George is at it again, preparing more of the wonderful treat that he dispenses generously to guests from near and far. Using a recipe brought from his homeland and done with his own special touch, his famous “Spirit-Juice” has chilled many a glass!

Now, whenever I smell lemons, I’ll think of Fr. George.

This weekend we say good-bye and thank-you to a good friend, a holy priest, a faithful servant of the People of God. After almost seven years of ministry at Saint Stanislaus, Fr. George is to be transferred to Saint Mary of the Falls parish, where he will continue his priestly ministry to the good people there beginning June 6.

I am a priest for the people. Olmsted Falls is receiving a wonderful new priest, a man who is deeply committed to God and the mission of the Church. He is prayerful, caring, hardworking, and delightful to have around. Our loss is their gain.

My first meeting with Fr. George was seven years ago at a restaurant on Rockside, when Fr. Willy and I met him to see what kind of priest was interested in coming to St. Stan’s. After the death of Fr. Alcuin, Fr. Willy knew we needed some help with Polish ministry. At that time, still we were waiting for word about whether a Franciscan would be available. In the meantime, Bishop Pilla agreed to invite Fr. George to help out. As Fr. Willy described to Fr. George our style ministry and living together, his simple answer was, “I am a priest for the people.” That was exactly the right answer for Fr. Willy!

He has been with us in so many ways, in so many places. Preaching the Gospel; anointing the sick; teaching our children; kicking the soccer ball around with friends; dancing at festivals and weddings; enjoying dinner with friends; mourning with the grief-stricken. He has brought an enthusiasm for Polish culture that has deepened our connection with the larger Polish community, both here in our parish and in the larger community.

Plus, he is a lot of fun to live with!

On a personal note, I am deeply grateful to Fr. George in helping me to know better my own Polish heritage, which had not been a large part of my upbringing. His perspectives on church, ministry, devotion, and culture have expanded my own vision as well. But perhaps the memory that resides most deeply is that intense week of grief shared when our friend and mentor, Fr. Willy, was murdered in our home and sent to his rest by a dazed and heartbroken community. Fr. George was a good friend in the midst of sadness, a dedicated servant in the midst of rebuilding, and a hope-filled priest in the midst of beginning again.

Fr. George, on behalf of a grateful parish, thank you for your dedication and service. We remain close in prayer. And if there is a sale on lemons...

Fr. Michael

ROZSTANIA

Czterdzieci dni po swoim zmartwychwstaniu Jezus Chrystus wstępuje do nieba. Konczy w ten sposób okres ukazywania się apostołom i innym bliskim Mu ludziom. Uczniom wydawało się, że rozstają się na zawsze, że kończy się wszystko, co było takie niezwykle, że już nie zaznają radości przebywania ze swoim Mistrzem. Ale w rzeczywistości okazało się to, tylko czysto ludzkimi sentymentami. Obietnica Chrystusa, że nie pozostana sami szybko została zrealizowana. Życie pokazało, że napelnieni „Moca z wysoka” i zakorzenieni w modlitewnej łączności z Mistrzem, uczniowie kontynuowali Jego dzieło dając podwaliny Kościołowi, którego my - wierzący - jesteśmy członkami do dziś. Każdy z nas jest w tę społeczność włączony i każdy ma określone zadania do wypełnienia. Sztuka jest rozpoznać te powinności; w tym chce nam pomóc Duch Święty.

Rozważając treść dzisiejszej uroczystości i obserwując wydarzenia wokół nas chciało by się przywołać słowa piosenki: „Nic nie może wiecznie trwać...”. Każdy czas, każda sytuacja kiedyś się kończy, najczęściej po to, by mogła rozpocząć się nowa. Jezus rozstał się z apostołami, aby historia zbawienia mogła iść dalej i dlatego zesłał im Ducha Świętego, aby ich umacniał w głoszeniu światu Jego Ewangelii. Obiecał im również, że przyjdzie do nich powtórnie, (z każdym spotka się przy końcu świata).

Kościół w swojej strukturze jest instytucją dynamiczną, rozwijającą się, będącą w nieustannym ruchu. Potwierdzają to wydarzenia wokół nas. Poczynając od góry - w naszej diecezji Cleveland - zmiany biskupów, święcenia nowych księży i przenoszenie ich do nowych parafii. Tymi procesami „dotknięta” została również parafia św. Stanisława. Kiedyś w tej parafii musiało to nastąpić, a za to przynajmniej dwa powody: brak księży oraz zakonny charakter wspólnoty. Takie są wymogi w tej diecezji. W poprzednich latach kadencja wikariusza trwała pięć lat, obecnie już po czterech latach powinien zmienić parafię. W tym miejscu należy zaznaczyć, że i tak parafia św. Stanisława cieszy się przywilejami, gdyż w żadnej innej nie ma trzech księży na pełnych etatach, a tu dzieje się tak tylko ze względu na obecność wspólnoty zakonnej, która nie do końca podlega wszystkim prawom diecezjalnym. Z chronicznego braku księży powoduje, że diecezja jest w trakcie budowania wspólnot międzyparafialnych, gdzie w przyszłości jeden lub dwóch księży będzie posługiwał w kilku parafiach złączonych w jedną wspólnotę.

Na zakończenie kilka słów osobistej refleksji. Istotne znaczenie w moim życiu kapłanskim ma zakończony niedawno proces inkardynacji czyli przejście do pełnej przynależności do tej diecezji; wcześniej jeszcze - „zielona karta” dzięki pozytywnym decyzjom władz kościelnych. Proces zmian nabrał tempa i naturalną konsekwencją tego są także moje przenosiny do innej parafii. Jest to kolejny etap ku dalszym zmianom (mam nadzieję kiedyś ku mojemu probostwu).

Wygląda na to, że to moje ostatnie pisanie w tym miejscu; więc do spotykania się na innych lamach, w innych miejscach i innych sytuacjach. Niech wszystkim błogosławi Bóg Wszechmogący, a najlepsza z Matek ma w swojej opiece.

ks. Jerzy

ST. STANS HISTORICAL FACT

The two plaques on the Sacred Heart side altar in the sanctuary contain the names of 72 servicemen from our Parish who lost their lives in World War II. The Honor Rolls are inscribed on the top in Polish, "Ku Wieczniej Pamieci," (In Eternal Memory). They contain the names ranging alphabetically from Apanasewicz to Zub. Although there were more than 72 Parishioners who lost their lives in World War II, some families, hoping for the return of their loved ones, preferred not to have them listed on this memorial.
