SOME NOTES FROM FR. JOE:

1) What is “MINDFULNESS”? Mindfulness is a way of living that helps us find inner peace. Mindfulness can help us physically, emotionally, and spiritually. Fr. Joe will teach two classes on how to practice mindfulness in your lives. The classes are FREE.

Classes will take place at the Swoboda Center. You can attend either class at NOON-2pm, or 7-9pm. Classes will be in voice/sign-language. Only fifteen people allowed for each class.

The classes are on TUES, 10/20 and TUES, 11/10. You MUST attend class on both days.

Sign up by contacting the Catholic Office of the Deaf, cathdeafch@archchicago.org, 312-534-7899v, 312-957-4766 vp.

2) Would you allow your child to swallow poison? Of course not! Yet, many people allow POISON into their homes and their children are exposed to it. What is the “poison”? PORNOGRAPHY! Many adults watch pornography on their computers or tv. The adults think, “the children will never see it.” WRONG! Children are very skilled at using computers, and they watch the XXX movies and sites the adults watch. There should be NO pornography in our homes, on our computers. NONE.

PARENTS: if your child admits he/she watched pornography at the home of another child OR an adult showed your child XXX movies, computer sites, call 9-1-1 immediately and report this to the police!

3) Less than a month till HAWTHORNE! Remember: the Hawthorne supports the CATHOLIC OFFICE OF THE DEAF. Without your support, the Catholic Office of the Deaf will not have enough funds for the year. The Archdiocese expects all its Offices/Agencies to raise some of their support. HAWTHORNE gives us the support we need. COME and join us on 10/24, NOON-6pm, Hawthorne Race Track.

REMEMBER: Cash raffle GUARANTEES payment of $18,000 cash prizes for all winners.

4) SUNDAY, OCTOBER 11: Fr. Joe and Deacon Pat Graybill are giving a weekend retreat in KANSAS CITY, KANSAS. Mass, 10:30am will be INTERPRETED in the large church. (Come and see the brand new floor!) Coffee & rolls after Mass in the deaf center.

Oct.11, 4pm Mass, St. Julie Billiart is cancelled. There will be Mass on 10/18.
