 - i. Some questions for possible discussion
 - 1. Did you know that in order for an adult to receive the sacrament of Baptism fully that there are several prerequisites or stages in spiritual development that need to be fulfilled. Anyone who fills these prerequisites and lives the messages of Jesus is a disciple. Are you a true disciple? Are you conscious of being a disciple in your classroom?
 - 2. How would you describe the Catholic doctrine to others? How do you explain this doctrine to your students in your school classroom or FF class?
 - 3. What does the idea of "cooperating with grace" mean to you?
 - 4. Have you ever taught a student who, even after sacramental preparation, is not ready for the sacrament? What did you do?
 - 5. Do you use the "discipleship model of preparation" that Weddell discusses in your religion classroom or in sacramental preparation even you prepare students for a sacrament?
