The mission of St. Bartholomew Catholic Church is to reflect God’s love to all whom we meet, to strengthen our faith community through worship, education, fellowship, stewardship, and acts of love and charity, so that we may lead people from all backgrounds to our Lord Jesus Christ.

Thanksgiving Food Drive

The St. Vincent de Paul Society is conducting its annual Thanksgiving food drive. Every year, through the generosity of St. Bartholomew parishioners we are able to provide Thanksgiving baskets for the needy in our area.

Turkeys: Frozen turkeys or gift cards to purchase turkeys are also appreciated. Monetary contributions may be made through the use of the weekly parish envelope or deposited in the ushers’ baskets after Mass.

Other items: As you prepare your holiday shopping list, please consider donating some of the following items: Pies, canned ham and other meats, mixed vegetables, canned sweet potatoes, yams, instant potatoes, bread stuffing, jello, pudding, canned fruit, gravy mix.

Please have all donations in by Friday, November 20, 2015. The baskets will be distributed on Saturday, November 21, 2015 between 10:00 and 11:30 a.m.

One of the many charisms of St. Bartholomew parish is the concern the community has for the needy. Here at St. Bart’s we feed the homeless, provide food every week from the pantry, and bring joy to the needy at holiday time.

Thank you and May God continue to bless you.

The St. Vincent de Paul Society.

GETTING THROUGH THE TOUGH TIMES

“It’s going to get worse before it gets better” is a phrase that prepares us to buckle up for a rough ride. We know that enduring a difficult time will require some strenuous physical or emotional energy on our part before we experience the calm of normality. Our past experience tells us that we can endure the difficult pressure better when we know how long it will last and if we know that something better awaits us. Getting through the tough times while holding to the promise that awaits us is the message of this weekend’s readings. They point toward the promises of God’s kingdom that will come after the maelstroms and chaos of this world.

TODAY’S READINGS

First Reading — Those who lead the many to justice shall be like the stars forever (Daniel 12:1-3).

Psalm — You are my inheritance, O Lord! (Psalm 16).

Second Reading — Where there is forgiveness, there is no longer offering for sin (Hebrews 10:11-14, 18).

Gospel — Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away (Mark 13:24-32).

Jubilee Year of Mercy

November 29, 2015

Besides a new liturgical year, this Advent features an additional “beginning”—the opening of the Jubilee Year of Mercy, a graced opportunity to contemplate more profoundly and live more concretely the mystery of God’s unconditional love. Pope Francis says that mercy, as the bridge connecting God and the human family, opens our hearts to welcome God’s love for us sinners and our eyes to recognize others, especially society’s least loved and most vulnerable, as brothers and sisters entrusted to our care. The scriptures for the First Sunday of Advent provide a perfect Jubilee preparation. Jeremiah comforts us with the promise of God’s justice; Paul challenges us to abound in love for all; Luke bids us anticipate Jesus’ future coming as the joyful advent of our redemption. But in a unique way, this Jubilee Year’s Advent reminds us that Jesus, whose coming we await, is already present among us, in those for whom we need to become instruments of God’s mercy.

Courage, j’ai vaincu le monde

Le Christ avertit : une terrible détresse précédera son retour, “telle qu’il n’y en a jamais eu depuis le commencement de la création” (Mc 13, 19). Et pourtant la détresse remplit notre histoire! À de reprendre les mots du psalmiste et d’en vivre : “Mon Dieu, j’ai fait de toi mon refuge”. “Au coeur de nos détresses, le Christ est l’espérance des pauvres”.

Tous ces textes ont un point commun : ils ne sont pas faits pour inquiéter, au contraire, puisqu’ils annoncent la victoire du Dieu d’amour. Le chamboulement cosmique qu’ils décrivent complaisamment n’est qu’une image du renversement complet de la situation ; le message, c’est « Dieu aura le dernier mot ». Le mal sera définitivement détruit. “Voici mon Dieu sauveur, j’ai confiance et je ne tremble plus, car ma force et mon chant, c’est le SEIGNEUR ! Il a été pour moi le salut.” (Is 12, 1-2).

Et vous avez entendu Joël : « Quiconque invoquera le nom du Seigneur sera sauvé… le SEIGNEUR est un abri pour son peuple ». Dieu est le maître de l’histoire et le jour vient où le mal disparaîtra. Il ne faut pas parler de « fin du monde » mais de « transformation du monde », de « renouvellement du monde ».

Les paroles du Pape François annonçant l’Année Sainte

Chers frères et sœurs, j’ai souvent pensé à la façon dont l’Église pourrait rendre plus évidente sa mission d’être témoin de la miséricorde. C’est un chemin qui commence par une conversion spirituelle ; nous devons faire ce chemin. C’est pour cela que j’ai décidé l’indiction d’un Jubilé extraordinaire qui ait à son centre la miséricorde de Dieu. Ce sera une Année Sainte de la Miséricorde. Nous voulons la vivre à la lumière de la parole du Seigneur: « Soyez miséricordieux comme votre Père » (cf. Luc 6,36). Et ceci spécialement pour les confesseurs! Tant de miséricorde !

Cette Année Sainte commencera à la prochaine solennité de l’Immaculée Conception le 8 Décembre et se conclura le 20 Novembre 2016, le Dimanche de Notre Seigneur Jésus Christ Roi de l’univers et visage vivant de la miséricorde du Père.

PARA SOBREVIVIR LOS TIEMPOS DIFÍCILES

“Las cosas van a empeorar antes de que se mejoren” es una frase que nos prepara para un camino difícil. Sabemos que al atravesar por tiempos difíciles necesitamos tener suficiente energía física o emocional antes de poder vivir la calma de la normalidad. Nuestra experiencia pasada nos dice que podemos sobrevivir mejor las presiones si sabemos cuanto tiempo van a durar y si sabemos que nos espera algo mejor. Cómo atravesar los tiempos difíciles y al mismo tiempo creer en la promesa que nos espera es el mensaje de las lecturas de este fin de semana. Nos guían hacia las promesas del Reino de Dios que vendrá después de los malestares y el caos de este mundo.
