FOOD FOR THOUGHT

As we prepare for Christmas, the General Instruction of the Roman Missal notes some differences to the Mass that should be observed during the season. For instance, the priest wears violet or purple during Advent, except for the Third Sunday of Advent (Gaudete Sunday) when rose may be worn (GIRM, no. 346). Aside from what the priest wears, other aesthetic changes in the Church can be observed.

The final days of Advent, from December 17 to December 24, we focus on our preparation for the celebrations of the Nativity of our Lord at Christmas. In particular, the "O" Antiphons are sung during this period and have been by the Church since at least the eighth century. They are a magnificent theology that uses ancient biblical imagery drawn from the messianic hopes of the Old Testament to proclaim the coming of Christ as the fulfillment not only of Old Testament hopes, but of present ones as well.

The Holy Season of Advent

We are having a tour of nativities scenes at the church on December 9 from 6-9pm. If you would like to participate, please bring your nativity on December 7 or 8 between 4-7pm. Any questions or details needed please call Helene Pallay 770-846-2663 or Erin DesPres 770-312-2605.

Para Reflexionar!

El Adviento es el tiempo con el cual se inicia el año litúrgico cristiano. Consiste en un período de preparación espiritual para la solemnidad de la Natividad, nombre litúrgico de la Navidad, en la cual se celebra el nacimiento de Jesús.

En el catolicismo, el primer domingo de Adviento es aquel que marca el comienzo del año litúrgico, tiene lugar en el domingo siguiente al de la solemnidad de Cristo Rey, último domingo del año litúrgico anterior. La duración del Adviento varía entre veintidós y veintiocho días, dado que abarca los cuatro domingos previos a la solemnidad de la Navidad acompañados por un número variable de días de semana. En consecuencia, el primer domingo de Adviento se ubica entre el 27 de noviembre y el 3 de diciembre.

Si bien el Adviento precede inmediatamente al tiempo de Navidad, desde el punto de vista espiritual tiene por finalidad la preparación del creyente para la segunda venida de Cristo y el encuentro definitivo con Dios. El color litúrgico de estos días es el morado.
