FINANCE

Amy Webber reports that 11 months in to the budget, we are on track. She reports the surplus on the income side is due to the payback from the Annual Diocesan Appeal.

ALTAR AND ROSARY

Shirley reports there wasn't a meeting this month but next month they will be setting assignments for the bazaar.

OLD BUSINESS

Mike Adrian states he contacted Bret Greiner for a clearer estimate.

- Estimate 1 is for replacing the severely damaged brick at $2,200.00. Bret indicated this is 200-300 brick. This includes caulking, replacing the brick, and water repellent.
- Estimate 2 is $5,600.00 including 500-600 brick, caulking, replacing the bricks, and water repellent.

Mike did ask Bret if he would be able to complete the work yet this year and he indicated that he could, but it would be later in the year. Mike also reports Jeff Ledger contacted the other masonry site where we had brick. Jeff reported this is the case and we have approximately 1,700 bricks. The masonry is agreeable to have us pick up and take the brick that we own. Shirley indicates we will have to have a corporate resolution and the building committee from the diocese will need to come out.

Paul Fritz states that Arlene Fritz called him this week in regards to Jim Bennett, who is a retired brick layer. Jim is not interested in completing the work but can be reached to answer questions.

Mike Adrian reports LL Pelling is the only company in Southeast Iowa that completes chip and seal. He indicates the church's portion of the cost is $10,600.06 and the county's portion of the cost is $4,757.45. Mike reports on Reed Avenue, the county portion is 22 feet wide. Their portion on 117th Street is 18 feet wide. Mike also indicates that LL Pelling has been in the area and will be back in the area later this year.

Shirley reports also planning to have a Riverside item and then asks about donating money to the raffle. Mike Adrian indicates that we will need to think about getting items for the auction.

Shirley reports she has been asked by the Ministerial from Brighton about donating money to the Vacation Bible School. They are not asking for a specific amount and Shirley reports other churches have donated $300. She indicates having thought about donating $100.

Shirley reports we are hosting the Ecumenical Service in Brighton this Sunday. She requests volunteers to help pass out doughnuts as well as bulletins.

Shirley presents some of the notes she had taken at the 20/20 convocation this past week in Davenport.

Shirley presents a Thank You she received from the Pekin Prom Committee for the donation to the after-prom event.
