Step 3: Open the attachment.

The screenshot shows a Google Classroom interface. At the top, there are two browser tabs: "Welcome to Renaissance Place" and "God chose David to lead Israel p...". The address bar shows the URL: classroom.google.com/c/NjQ3NjMwNzUyMTJa/a/NTc4NjUxNjQyNTVa/details. The page title is "06 REL". The main content area displays an assignment titled "God chose David to lead Israel p. 136-137" due tomorrow at 8:00 AM, worth 100 points. The assignment is by Tabatha Rhodes, dated Mar 30. The instructions read: "Read the Lesson and highlight important parts. Since there are no activities in this lesson, you will pick a leader (David or Saul, not Solomon) and complete the activity. You can edit the document directly using DocHub or hand write it out. Due by Wednesday @ 8:00am. Quiz will be open tomorrow." Below the instructions are two image attachments, both labeled "Screenshot 2020-03-30 at 1...". There are 3 class comments: Elyse Bray (Mar 30) asking "how are we suppose to edit it", Tabatha Rhodes (Mar 30) replying with a link to a Google Drive document, and Bella Dean (9:27 AM) asking "what is dochub?". On the right side, a sidebar shows the "Work" section with an "Assigned" tab. It lists the PDF attachment "Elyse Bray - Thre..." and includes buttons for "+ Add or create", "Turn in", and "Private comments". A large red arrow points from the top right towards the PDF attachment in the sidebar.

Step 4: Click the options button (3 dots) on the right, and click “Open in a new window.”

The screenshot shows a Google Classroom interface. At the top, there are two tabs: 'Welcome to Renaissance Place' and 'God chose David to lead Israel'. The main content area displays a PDF document titled 'Elyse Bray - Three Kings of Israel Analysis.pdf'. A red arrow points to the three-dot menu icon in the top right corner of the document viewer. The menu is open, showing options: 'Details' and 'Open in new window'.

The PDF document contains a worksheet titled 'The Three Kings of the Israelite Monarchy'. It includes a 'Story-Teller Teacher CTO' logo and a cartoon illustration of a king. The worksheet has several sections for students to fill out:

- Important People: A section with a grid for 'king of Israel' (First, Second, Third) and a question 'Did he write any of the Bible? If so, what books?'.
- The Three Kings of the Israelite Monarchy: A section with a grid for 'Saul was known as a: (Circle one!) "man after God's own heart" king that died in battle wisest king in Israel' and a question 'What prophet anointed Saul as king of Israel?'.
- Describe this king with 3 adjectives:: A section with a grid for '1.', '2.', and '3.'.
- According to the Bible, Saul was a _____ king. Good Bad: A section with a grid for 'Good' and 'Bad'.
- Which of the 12 tribes is he from?: A section with a grid for '1.', '2.', and '3.'.

The bottom of the screen shows a Chrome browser interface with the address bar displaying 'classroom.google.com/c/NjQ3NjMwNzUyMTJa/a/NTc4NjUxNjQyNTVa/details'. The bottom right corner shows the system tray with 'US', signal strength, and the time '9:33'.

Step 5: Click “Open with” in the top middle. Click “DocHub.”
