

PURGATORY CALENDAR INSPIRED BY THE MARIAN FATHERS

O God, the Giver of pardon and the Lover of human salvation, have mercy on Your servants who have departed from this world. I pray in hope for my deceased relatives, friends, neighbors, and for all the dead known to You alone. I pray in a special way today for [intention]. In company with Christ Jesus, Who died and now lives, may they rejoice in Your heavenly kingdom and sing Your praise forever and ever. Amen.

St. Francis de Sales, pray for us and the holy souls in purgatory.

February 2024

Sun	Mon	Tue	Wed	Thu	Fri	Sat
Lord our God, have mercy on those who have died and those who mourn them. Be their consolation. Amen. —Rev. Daniel Cambra, MIC				1 those who slandered or libeled others	2 those who disrespected legitimate authority	3 those who led children into sin
4 those who worked as pharmacists or medical researchers	5 those who did not keep their marriage vows	6 those who oppressed others	7 those who dressed immodestly	8 those who behaved disrespectfully in Church	9 those who cheated on their taxes or in business	10 priests and religious who caused scandal
11 those who stole a child's innocence	12 those who neglected to do penance or grieve their sins	13 those who disrespected the Eucharist	14  those who lied constantly	15 those who committed sins against purity	16  those who served the sick as doctors and nurses	17 those who were unable to receive the Anointing of the Sick
18 popes, bishops, priests, and deacons	19 all consecrated religious	20 parents who neglected to teach their children the Faith	21 those who received Holy Communion unworthily	22 those who sinned against their neighbor by deception or calumny	23  those who provoked others to wrath	24 those who were stubborn
25 those who despised others	26 those who did not fear God	27 those who were foolish	28 those who are least remembered	29 leaders who neglected their duties

“With charity toward the dead we practice all works of charity. The Church encourages us to aid the souls in purgatory. They in turn will reward us abundantly when they come into their glory.”

—St. Francis de Sales

To be added to the mailing list, please contact:

Mrs. Anna Maria Dias, O.P.B.
413-530-3198
faithfirst@1791.com