REFLECTION

By Fr. Rich Jasper

Fifth Sunday of Easter - May 16, 2025

Habemus Papam

It might be fair to say that we were all a little stunned with the news last Thursday that our Holy Father – whom the world now knows as Pope Leo XIV – is a Chicagoan by birth and educated at nearby Villanova University. One of our Outreach volunteers said to me in passing: “Father, I never thought I’d live to see the day that an American would be named pope.” Then, after a brief pause, “I guess I can check that off my list!”

If you were able to watch Pope Leo stand on the balcony overlooking St. Peter’s Square (and the world) on the day of his election, you could see in his eyes how visibly moved he was by the responsibility that has been placed upon his shoulders, not unlike the Cross. He is now shepherd for all of us, caring for every soul and making sure we find our way to the Father, both here and in the hereafter.

I was struck, as you were, that the first word our Holy Father offered the Church and the world was the word “peace,” the very same “shalom” that the risen Christ offered to his apostles in their time of fear, doubt and worry. It was as if he was saying to all of us: “I know how your hearts are feeling in this present age; let Christ into that space of fear; He alone can offer light and hope.”

The other moment that moved me deeply was that, toward the end of his first address, he spoke in Spanish to the people of the diocese in Peru where he first became bishop. Ever the shepherd, he said to them: “you are a faithful people that accompanied [me], shared your faith, and gave so, so much to being a Church that is faithful to Jesus Christ.” As I heard this translated, I thought to myself: I could say the very same thing about the good people of Immaculate Conception and St. Jude.

In the days and weeks ahead, no doubt, there will be many “Vatican experts” and “papal pundits” who will be evaluating the Holy Father’s past writings, homilies and social media accounts to see where he stands on a host of issues facing our modern age. Let us never forget in the midst of this that he needs our prayers and our love more than ever. After all, when all is said and done, isn’t that what we do for each other in our best moments as a family, as Catholics, and even as Americans? We pray for each other and stay grounded in the love of God.

May I also suggest this? As Pope Leo ended his speech with a prayer to Our Lady of Pompeii on her feast, may we in this month dedicated to our Lady and worshipping in a parish dedicated to her, offer this prayer for our Holy Father’s faithfulness, courage and protection:

O, Queen of Victories and of the Holy Rosary, we pour out our hearts to you. Have compassion on the sorrows and cares which embitter our lives. Implore for us the Mercy of your Divine Son and conquer with clemency the hearts of sinners. Have pity on us and the whole world so that we may return, repentantly, to your heart and that of your Son’s. May Pope Leo XIV lead us to the holiness we are called to live as faithful disciples of Jesus Christ. Amen.

Readings for Next Week: Sixth Sunday of Easter

First Reading: Acts 15:1-2, 22-29

Some men informed the Gentiles that they must be circumcised if they wished to be saved, because of the Old Laws. Disciples then went forth to tell the Gentiles to honor only those rules which were strictly necessary, such as abstaining from eating meat sacrificed to idols and illicit sexual union.

Second Reading: Revelation 21:10-14, 22-23

John depicts Jerusalem coming out of heaven, sparkling with the radiance of precious jewels. Angels were stationed at each of its twelve gates, and each gate bore the name of one tribe of Israel. The city had no temple, because God was its temple. The glory and light of God and the Lamb also replaced their need for the sun.

Gospel: John 14:23-29

Jesus tells his disciples, "Anyone who loves me will be true to my word." For those who do honor his word, both Jesus and God will love them and stay with them always. He also tells them that God will send the Holy Spirit in his place to give them the instructions they will need. Jesus then tells them that peace is his farewell gift to them.

PARISH INFORMATION

The Parish Office and Outreach will be closed on Monday, May 26th for the Memorial Day Holiday.

We extend a warm welcome to our newly baptized member and her family.....

Ashley Luisa Contreras Davis

Adoration of the Most Blessed Sacrament will be held weekly on Friday evenings from 6:30pm to 7:30pm in the Immaculate Conception Chapel. One of the goals of the National Eucharistic Revival has been to increase devotion to and love for Our Lord present to us in the Eucharist. Outside of Mass, there is no greater way to worship Christ than through Adoration.

From time-to-time, certain first Fridays of Adoration will be offered for specific intentions, such as vocations or pro-life. Worship aids will be provided, and there will also be time for quiet prayer and reflection as well.

Please consider spending some time with Our Lord. As Bishop Sheen once wrote, "The greatest love story of all time is contained in a tiny white Host." How could we not want to be present to that Love?

Thank you for your weekly donation. For anyone using temporary envelopes, please write your name, address, and amount on them, so funds can be recorded for tax purposes. If you need a convenient way to make regular offerings, we encourage you to look into our electronic giving option. Visit iccp parish.weconnect.com to sign up.

We have a service provided by Flocknote as a way of communicating that will make it much simpler for you to get the information you want from us! It is a parish communication tool to send information via emails and text messages all from one easy place. You can quickly sign up by going to: <https://iccp.flocknote.com>, scan the QR Code or go to our website and click on the Flocknote icon.

This is all totally free for you to use; you don't even have to download anything or create a password to participate. You just take a couple minutes to sign up and it lets you receive email or text messages from the groups and ministries that you choose.

MARRIAGE AND FAMILY LIFE

Marriage Moments: "Pay attention to details: Don't buy just any flowers – get her favorites. Make a point of always wrapping his gifts in his favorite color." (Gregory J.P. Godek, 1001 Ways to Be Romantic)

Parenting Pointers: Disciplining your child does not always mean punishment. Sometimes a child learns self-discipline by experiencing the consequences of their actions. If they chose not to study for a test, a poor grade results. Perhaps a hard lesson, but better to learn it as a child when the stakes are low than when losing a job might be the consequence.

SOCIAL CONCERNS

ICC OUTREACH: Outreach is open every Monday, Wednesday, and Friday mornings from 9:30am - 11:30am located in rear of the Parish Center.

If you can donate any of the items below, please drop them off at the Parish Center during business hours or at either church before the Mass. - Thank you.

Food: cereal, jelly, Jello

Toiletries: deodorant, tooth paste, shampoo

Household: dish soap

Please bring in your Redner's receipts for Outreach! Check with Redner's courtesy desk to see how ICC Outreach can get credit for your purchase!

Wellness Tip: Our relationship with the Almighty guides our overall health and life. God's desire is that we experience wholeness. By committing ourselves to prayer, the sacramental life of the Church, we can find healing. In giving ourselves to others through the Corporal and Spiritual Works of Mercy, we are able to become healthy in body, mind, and spirit. Through our relationship with the Lord and his Church, we can find true happiness. The walk with Jesus is a daily one, and in taking each day one at a time, we can become more deeply rooted in faith.

DIOCESAN NEWS

The Diocese of Wilmington joins with Catholics and people of good will throughout the world in gratitude to God for choosing Pope Leo XIV as the next pope to lead the Catholic Church. As a native of the windy City of Chicago, Pope Leo is undoubtedly very familiar with effects of living on the shores of Lake Michigan. Today, as a Church, we have become aware of the even more powerful winds of the Holy Spirit that have guided the Cardinal electors to select the first American Pope.

As a son of St. Augustine, Pope Leo's experiences as a missionary, administrator, canonist and Vatican official combined with his reputation as a prayerful, quiet, humble, holy and kind man, reveal the mind and heart of one who is a worthy successor of St. Peter.
