Penitential Act
I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters, through my most grievous fault; therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin, all the Angels and Saints, and you, my brothers and sisters, to pray for me to the Lord our God.

Kyrie
Cantor: Amen all

Lord, have mercy. Christ, have mercy. Lord, have mercy.

First Reading
Psalm 122:1-2, 3-4, 4-5, 6-7, 8-9

Let us go rejoicing to the house of the Lord.

Rejoiced when they said to me, “Let us go to the house of the Lord.” And now our feet are standing within your gates, O Jerusalem.

Jerusalem is built as a city, bounded as one together. It is there that the tribes go up, the tribes of the LORD.

For Israel’s witness it is to praise the name of the LORD. There were set the thrones for judgment, the thrones of the house of David.

Second Reading
Romans 13:11-14

For the peace of Jerusalem pray, “May they prosper, those who love you.” May peace abide in your walls, and security be in your towers.

For the sake of my family and friends, let me say, “Peace upon you.” For the sake of the house of the LORD, our God, I will seek good things for you.

Matthew 24:37-44

Profession of Faith
I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, [all bow at these words] and by the Holy Spirit was Incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became Man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Nicene Creed
