

Ordination of Deacons

conferred by
The Most Reverend Dennis M. Schnurr
Archbishop of Cincinnati

Saturday in the Octave of Easter
April 27, 2019 • 11:00 AM
The Cathedral of Saint Peter in Chains
In the City and Archdiocese of Cincinnati

Welcome to the Cathedral of Saint Peter in Chains

Et Petrus Quidem Servabatur in Carcere Vincetus Catenis translates And Peter was kept in prison, bound in chains. Acts 12:5

Out of respect for the solemn nature of the church's liturgy and those gathered in prayer and worship, kindly turn off all mobile telephones, pagers and watch alarms while in the cathedral. Please refrain from taking photographs during the liturgy.

Guidelines for the Reception of Communion

For Catholics

As Catholics, we fully participate in the celebration of the Eucharist when we receive Holy Communion. We are encouraged to receive Communion devoutly and frequently. In order to be properly disposed to receive Communion, participants should not be conscious of grave sin and normally should have fasted for one hour. A person who is conscious of grave sin is not to receive the Body and Blood of the Lord without prior sacramental confession except for a grave reason where there is no opportunity for confession. In this case, the person is to be mindful of the obligation to make an act of perfect contrition, including the intention of confessing as soon as possible (canon 916). A frequent reception of the Sacrament of Penance is encouraged for all.

For our fellow Christians

We welcome our fellow Christians to this celebration of the Eucharist as our brothers and sisters. We pray that our common baptism and the action of the Holy Spirit in this Eucharist will draw us closer to one another and begin to dispel the sad divisions which separate us. We pray that these will lessen and finally disappear, in keeping with Christ's prayer for us "that they may all be one" (Jn 17:21).

Because Catholics believe that the celebration of the Eucharist is a sign of the reality of the oneness of faith, life, and worship, members of those churches with whom we are not yet fully united are ordinarily not admitted to Holy Communion. Eucharistic sharing in exceptional circumstances by other Christians requires permission according to the directives of the diocesan bishop and the provisions of canon law (canon 844 § 4). Members of the Orthodox Churches, the Assyrian Church of the East, and the Polish National Catholic Church are urged to respect the discipline of their own Churches. According to Roman Catholic discipline, the Code of Canon Law does not object to the reception of communion by Christians of these Churches (canon 844 § 3).

For those not receiving Holy Communion

All who are not receiving Holy Communion are encouraged to express in their hearts a prayerful desire for unity with the Lord Jesus and with one another. Those not receiving Holy Communion are asked to remain in the pews.

For non-Christians

We also welcome to this celebration those who do not share our faith in Jesus Christ. While we cannot admit them to Holy Communion, we ask them to offer their prayers for the peace and the unity of the human family.

Lo, the fair beauty of earth,
from the death of the winter arising,
every good gift of the year
now with its Master returns. Refrain

Jesus, the health of the world,
enlighten our minds great Redeemer.
Son of the Father supreme,
only begotten of God. Refrain

Rise from the grave, O Lord,
the author of life and creation.
Treading the pathway of death,
new life you give to us all. Refrain

Spirit of life and of power,
now flow in us, fount of our being,
Light that enlightens us all,
life that in all may abide. Refrain

God the Almighty, the Lord,
the ruler of earth and the heavens,
Guard us from harm without;
cleanse us from evil within. Refrain

Praise to the giver of good!
O Lover and Author of concord,
Pour out your balm on our days;
order our ways in your peace. Refrain

Liturgy of the Word

First Reading

Numbers 3:5-9

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 118:1, 14-15, 16-18, 19-21

I will give thanks to you, for you have answered me.

Give thanks to the Lord for he is good,
for his love endures for ever.
The Lord is my strength and my song;
he was my savior.
There are shouts of joy and victory in the tents of the just.

Open to me the gates of holiness:
I will enter and give thanks.
This is the Lord's own gate
where the just may enter.
I will thank you for you have answered
and you are my savior.

The Lord's right hand has triumphed;
his right hand raised me.
The Lord's right hand has triumphed;
I shall not die, I shall live
and recount his deeds.
I was punished, I was punished by the Lord,
but not doomed to die.

Refrain by Anthony J. DiCello; Chant by Joseph Gelineau, 1920-2008.

Prayer for Vocations

Almighty Father, You have created us for some definite purpose. Grant us the grace to know the path You have planned for us in this life and to respond with a generous "Yes." Make our archdiocese, parishes, homes and hearts fruitful ground for Your gift of vocations. May our young people respond to Your call with courage and zeal. Stir among our men a desire and the strength to be good and holy priests. Bless us with consecrated religious and those called to a chaste single life, permanent deacons, and faithful husbands and wives, who are a sign of Christ's love for His Church. We commend our prayer for vocations to You, Father, through the intercession of Mary our Mother, in the Holy Spirit, through Christ our Lord. Amen.
