Welcome to the Cathedral of Saint Peter in Chains in the City and Archdiocese of Cincinnati

Twenty-Third Sunday in Ordinary Time September 8, 2019

Christ makes this revelation: “If anyone comes to me without hating...even his own life, he cannot be my disciple.” The Lord wants to give us a love that so exceeds even the highest human loves that we would be a prisoner for Christ Jesus.” The kind of detachment that Jesus calls for in the Gospel today disposes us to carry our own cross, for that cross separates us from anything that “burdens the soul” and “weighs down the mind” so that we can follow

Christ faithfully, for “thus were the paths of those on earth made straight.”

Choral Anthem at the Presentation / Preparation of the Gifts (11:00 Mass)

Come, My Way, My Truth, My Life

Come, my Way, my Truth, my Life?

Come, my Joy, my Love, my Heart?

Come, my Light, my Feast, my Strength?

Come, my Love as none can part,

Such a Light as shows a feast,

Such a Love as none can part,

Such a Joy as none can move,

Such a Life as gives us breath,

Such a Truth as ends all strife,

Such a Heart as joys in love.

And was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.
