Pentecost

Acts 2:1-4

When the time for Pentecost was fulfilled, they were all in one place together. And suddenly there came from the sky a noise like a strong driving wind, and it filled the entire house in which they were. Then there appeared to them tongues as of fire, which parted and came to rest on each one of them. And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in different tongues, as the Spirit enabled them to proclaim.

In honor of our Veterans on Memorial Day, OLV Cub Scout Pack 909 will place flags

To honor the veterans on Memorial Day weekend, we invite all families and parishioners to join with OLV Cub Scout Pack 909 to place American Flags on the graves of our veterans buried in the OLV Cemetery. Next Sunday May 27th, immediately after the 11:00AM Mass, OLV Cub Scout Pack 909 will do so. As the Cub Scouts have done for several years, they will meet behind church at the entrance to the cemetery where they will place American flags on each of the graves of veterans to remember their sacrifice and dedication.

Questions? Call Ron Lewis, Cubmaster 276-8542.

Pentecost

I have always been interested in how our tradition of great religious art compliments and completes our understanding from the Scriptures. This great feast of Pentecost, when the Holy Spirit fanned the flames of faith into the Church after Jesus ascended into Heaven, is a great example. As important as this feast day is to the life of the Church, there is not much about it in the Bible. The Book of Acts just tells the story of how the Apostles had to choose the 12th Apostle, to replace Judas Iscariot who betrayed Jesus. They prayed until it became clear that God wanted Matthias to be the 12th and last. Immediately after that, the author records that they were gathered together in an upper room for prayer when the Holy Spirit filled them – and gave them a very dramatic sign. The sounds of rushing wind, and what appeared to be tongues of fire splitting apart and resting upon each one of them, empowering them to speak a special language that foreigners of every stripe could understand.

There is a lot packed into this. The tradition of art tells us more. The Bible doesn't mention her at all, but we assume that Mary was with the Apostles as they received the Holy Spirit. In fact, she is almost always depicted as front and center, sometimes almost enthroned, with the Apostles gathering around her. In some of the art, she is depicted as calmly and demurely looking down, joyful but unsurprised, as if she were expecting this to happen. By contrast, the Apostles are often depicted as astounded, with their eyes raised to Heaven in wonder, sometimes in a gesture of praise or adoration with their hands raised high in the air. This shouldn't surprise us, because this is not the first time that the Blessed Virgin Mary was filled with the Holy Spirit. He overshadowed her at the Annunciation, when she first said Yes to God's proposal to become the Mother of God. To the Apostles, however, this is a brand new encounter with the awesome power, warmth, love, and fiery presence of God Himself.

One of the things the artwork of the Pentecost reminds us of is that the same Holy Spirit works in many different ways in our lives. He is the spirit of unity of course (that's why the Biblical account tells us the One Fire was divided among the Apostles). But He gives us the gifts we need to love and serve God according to our temperament and our state in our spiritual life. To some, He gives a sense of profound calm and strength even in the midst of extraordinarily trying circumstances; to others He gives a bold and jealous joy to “fire them up” to proclaim the Lord; to others He gives them the wisdom to say just the right thing that will help people know and believe that God Our Father loves us with a love beyond all telling and that our whole lives center around the saving sacrifice of Jesus' death on the Cross.

We sometimes use the idiomatic phrase, “it was like a light bulb switched on” to describe a sudden flash of insight to see something we just weren't able to see before. That is what the Holy Spirit can do – if we pray to Him and ask Him to. We may have been halfheartedly or mechanically practicing our faith for years – even decades – when the Holy Spirit rushes in and reveals to us that what was just “background noise” to us before suddenly becomes the very center and core of the meaning of our lives.

The thing to remember is that the Holy Spirit is powerful! He can do all that and more. On this Pentecost Sunday let's pray that we truly open our hearts to the power of the Holy Spirit.

Feast of Corpus Christi

Please join us on Sunday, June 3rd at 12pm for our Corpus Christi procession at Our Lady of Victory.

What is Corpus Christi?

The Feast of Corpus Christi (Latin for "Body of Christ") is the liturgical celebration of the real presence of the body and blood of Jesus Christ, the Son of God, in the Eucharist—known as transubstantiation. Corpus Christi emphasizes the joy of the Eucharist being the body and blood of Jesus Christ.

The feast is liturgically celebrated on the Thursday after Trinity Sunday or, in a place where the Solemnity of The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ is not a holy day of obligation, it is assigned to the Sunday after the Most Holy Trinity as its proper day.

At the end of Mass, there is often a procession of the Blessed Sacrament, generally displayed in a monstrance. The procession is followed by Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament.

May 21: Mary, Mother of the Church

On March 3, Pope Francis declared that the Monday after Pentecost Sunday will now annually be celebrated as the Memorial of the Blessed Virgin Mary, Mother of the Church. The Memorial has been added to the General Roman Calendar, the Roman Missal, and the Liturgy of the Hours. The Holy Father's wishes for this new feast day is that it will foster Marian piety and the maternal sense of the Church.

CONGRATULATIONS TO EAGLE SCOUT TOMMY RAY

On Sunday, April 15th, parishioner Tommy Ray became the 47th Eagle Scout from Our Lady of Victory's Troop 909. The ceremony included current scouts, leaders and former Troop 909 Eagle Scouts. The celebration was attended by family and friends.

Only 2% of all Scouts attain the rank of Eagle. To attain the rank of Eagle, the scout must be a leader. The scout must plan, develop, and give leadership to others in a project of help to any religious group or community. The project must require the help of others. Tommy's project was to build a portion of the trail at the Kirby Nature Preserve. The work involved building stone steps and a path up a hillside. Thanks to the generous time donated by fellow scouts and classmates, the path was completed in May of 2017. This path provides a clear trail for hikers to safely walk, while allowing the habitat used by local wildlife to remain undisturbed.

Scouting has been one of the most rewarding experiences of my life. It taught me so many things, such as discipline, teamwork, and the importance of serving others, just to name a few. There are no limits to the opportunities that scouting provides. We worked hard, and we played hard. We celebrated our successes, and learned from our failures. I learned how to be a leader from some of the best leaders that Boys Scouts has to offer. I met so many great people through scouts, and I have gained so many friends during my years in scouting. The scouting program has allowed me to challenge myself, realize my potential, and reach the goal of becoming an Eagle Scout. The lasting impact of my Boy Scout experience will remain with me always. – Tommy Ray
