Welcome Fr. Benedict O'Cinnsealaigh!

Being appointed pastor of Our Lady of Victory parish comes as a gift and I am very grateful to God our Father and Archbishop Schnurr for appointing me as your parish priest. Also, many thanks to Fr. Reutter for his outstanding pastoral ministry as pastor. May our prayers and best wishes go with him in his new assignment as pastor of St. Peter, New Richmond and St. Mary's, Bethel.

I'd like to share a magnificent and true story told about a priest and saint, St. Philip Neri (1515-1595). St. Philip was an outstanding priest, preacher, and evangelist who ministered to the people of Rome. With a truly priestly heart he never tired of serving the poor, visiting hospitals, anointing the sick, searching for the lost, celebrating the Mass, and sacraments. While preparing for the celebration of Pentecost in AD 1544, he was praying for an outpouring of the gift of the Holy Spirit so he could more effectively minister as a priest. While he was praying, he had a vision of a globe of fire coming toward him and entering through his mouth and resting in his heart.

The impact of the presence of the fire, God's Divine Love, was so great that he fell to the ground and cried out: "Enough, enough Lord, I can bear no more." Years later, at the time of his death, doctors discovered a heart so enlarged that the ribs around it had broken. His broken ribs had widened and transformed, thus creating additional space for his heart's increased size.

As I begin my priestly ministry at Our Lady of Victory, I pray, God will increase my heart two-fold so I can love Him and you, His people, with a greater love. A heart that grows large enough that it breaks ribs to make room for God's love. As your parish priest, please pray for me as each of you will be in my prayers. Let's face it, we can always do with more love and prayers.

It is a great honor to be your priest. I look forward to getting to know each of you. Thank you for your kindness and for your welcoming hearts.

PRAYER FOR FREEDOM

Dear Lord,

So many today misunderstand freedom believing that it is the ability to do whatever we want. Help us always to remember that freedom, true freedom, Is being able to do what we ought to do. That freedom, true freedom, is not indulging our every want and whim, but instead is the ability to rise above any desires that are wrong, disordered, dangerous or excessive. Give us the grace always to remember that true freedom makes us the people you wish us to be, that true freedom brings us closer to you, and reshapes our world in the likeness of your kingdom.

Summer Youth Program

Faith, Friends. Fellowship, & Fun

Totus Tuus (a Latin phrase meaning "totally yours") was the motto of Pope St. John Paul II. It signifies our desire to give ourselves entirely to Jesus Christ through the hands of our Blessed Mother Mary.

The mission of Totus Tuus is to inspire in young people a true longing for holiness. Seminarians and college students from the Archdiocese of Cincinnati carry this mission to every young person and participant of Totus Tuus.

The youth see that these young adults are joyful and on fire with the Catholic faith, which encourages them to strive for the same thing in their lives.

GOSPEL MEDITATION

ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

July 1, 2018

13th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Today's Gospel offers a rare framework -- a story in a story. Most of the healing miracles are standalone encounters. One person approaches Jesus, demonstrates faith, and is healed. The evangelist tells the next story. This Gospel, however, is different. Jesus is on his way to heal one person, a young girl of twelve, and is interrupted on his journey by "a woman afflicted with hemorrhages." She bravely approaches Jesus in a crowd, despite being ritually unclean from her bleeding, and stretches out to touch his cloak. She is healed! Jesus meets her eye, confirms her faith, and continues on to resurrect the young girl.

Reading this passage, it might be easier to identify with one story -- the long-suffering woman or the young, innocent girl -- and to move past the other. But here they sit side by side. The girl is twelve. The woman has been suffering for twelve years. For the Gospel writers, number parallels have deep symbolic meaning. Between the woman and the young girl, we are not one or the other. We are both. None of us had a perfect childhood, perfect families, or a perfect peer group. As we endure pain, disappointment, or unmet expectations, it can feel like a part of our childhood hopes have died. Our coping mechanisms, social adaptations, and hidden secrets can make us the "walking wounded" in some respects. Jesus wants to do more than simply stop the bleeding. His healing hand makes dead things come alive. He awakens the dreams that are asleep. This process requires prayer, conversations with trusted community and spiritual mentors, and critical looks at difficult areas of our life. However, we can believe the words of our Lord. If we approach Jesus in faith, believing that he wants to heal and save, we, too, will hear his calming words spoken over the hurts of our life. "I say to you, arise!" "Go in peace."

Our bulletins are furnished to the Parish without charge. The advertisements that appear on the back page completely defray all publishing costs with which the church would otherwise be burdened. Please patronize these businesses as a thank you for their kind generosity!

Happening at OLV

Ladies, please join us for Victory's 6th annual CRHP spiritual renewal weekend. It is a wonderful opportunity to share your faith with your OLV sisters, plus explore & strengthen your relationship with the Lord! Lots of inspiring testimonies will be shared. Delicious meals and comfortable overnight accommodations are provided.

Matches begin in November and run through January. There are High School teams this year - no practice, just games! Sign-up on the OLVAA sports registration site - Go to www.olvdelhi.org/athletics and click on "Register Here". If you would like to coach a team, please register on the new website. Questions: contact John Kemper at kemper.john@gmail.com

St. Vincent de Paul

In today's Gospel we see how in faith, Jarius asked Jesus to heal his daughter and how Jesus then answered his prayer. In prayer we also come to know that we are loved by God, and in that trust we ask for healing for ourselves, our loved ones, and all those who are suffering.

Through your gifts, the Society of St. Vincent de Paul brought the love and healing of Jesus to our suffering neighbors. Thank you for your continued support.
