First Sunday of Advent

As you all know, I am an impatient priest and I hate waiting for anything. I've always been that way. Some years ago, it was popular to say that Advent was a time of waiting. We are waiting for the coming of the Lord at Christmas, we are waiting for Christ to come at the end of time, and, of course, we are waiting for the Lord to come to each of us at the end of our life. You would think that Advent, the season of waiting, would be my least favorite time of the Church's year. But I love Advent. Why?

Because Advent is not a time of waiting at all, it is rather, a time of preparation. That's why the expectant Virgin Mary, Our Lady, is the image and model of Advent. I'm the oldest of my siblings, so I can remember my mother being pregnant with my twin sisters who are five years younger than me. I can certainly recall my sisters being pregnant, not to mention cousins and friends. Now while they were expecting they weren't passively sitting by "waiting." Advent is like the time when we are waiting for a baby to arrive – how about that – and that's just what we are doing in waiting for the baby Jesus at Christmas.

When my sisters were expecting they didn't sit by passively waiting for the stork to turn up. They were very actively preparing for the arrival of their child (between them seven children actually). As well as constant doctors' visits, prenatal checks, and ultrasound photos, rooms must be made ready, cots bought, prams, bedding, feeding utensils, food, diapers, clothes, and on, and on. Names must be considered; some people already enroll their children in the schools they hope they will attend. My sisters had to make small pointy hats and brooms, and buy small cauldrons and black cats in preparation for their daughters.

Interestingly, family and friends get together and hold "showers" and provide presents in preparation for the arrival of the new child. We get ready for the coming of a child, we prepare, we are "expectant," hopeful, we are full of energy, and we are actively waiting. This is what Advent is supposed to be like for all of us. It is a time of spiritual preparation as we wait to receive Jesus. We prepare to meet Jesus in three ways: First at Christmas when we remember He came to save us, and we receive Him into our hearts. Secondly, we turn our minds to the end of time and we remember He will come again, not as a child, but as the judge so we need to get ready. And finally, we remind ourselves to prepare for Him, because soon we will face Him as our days on earth come to an end. Advent reminds us to be ready, to prepare, because Jesus is coming to us.

The Virgin Mary was prepared to receive the Lord into her body because she had already prepared her heart to receive Him. That's what "Hail Mary, full of grace" means. If grace is God's life in us and Mary was already full of grace, she could have no room for anyone but Jesus. She had no room for sin. And He came to her. She was waiting for Him by preparing for Him. She gave herself to Him completely so that even His flesh is made from Her body, her blood flows through His heart. We are called to do the same. To wait for Jesus by preparing for Him.

fr. Ben

Each October, just like each parish in the Archdiocese, we complete a report on our Sunday Mass attendance.

We are happy to report that our Mass attendance is up 26% from last October! Please see the chart for our Mass attendance numbers.

We are to proclaim good news to the poor and give liberty to captives, sight to the blind, food for the hungry, shelter for the homeless, and freedom for those who are oppressed and abused. What would the Advent season look like if this, rather than materialism, was the main focus of our joyful anticipation and expectation? Try it and see what results.

“Cry-Room” Renovation

I want to thank all those who were involved in the renovation of the “cry room.” In particular I want to thank Amy Finke, Erin Rink, Melanie Pace, Mandi Bennett, and John Roebel.

Thank you for sharing your outstanding creative and artistic talents with us for the service of our children and families. The work is incredible, and the room looks so much more inviting, bright, joyful, and comfortable. You made an absolutely beautiful work of art. Thank you for sharing your talents for the good of the parish and the Kingdom of God. Who I’m sure is very happy with you all. God Bless You.

If you have not seen the “cry room” please take a moment to go in and take a look at their outstanding work.

- Fr. Ben

For the first time in Giving Tree history, we ran out of names the first weekend. We can't thank our parishioners enough for their generosity. If you didn't get an ornament and are still interested, we were able to get a few more names from the West End community. We will also increase our giving to Healthy Moms and Babes and Community Land Co-Op.

Gifts may be returned the next two weekends Dec 1/2 and Dec 8/9. It is very important that all gifts are returned by Sunday, December 9! Please attach the original ornament tag to your packages as they are sorted by the color of the tag.

Emergency shoppers will be needed to shop on Dec 11 & 12.

Please call Katie Davis (662-5265 or katie@cdavisfamily.com) or Angela Aull (451-4970 or angaul@gmail.com) if you would like to help.

Thank you for your help and support with this wonderful tradition!

St. Vincent de Paul

As we begin Advent, we are called to "wait" in joyful anticipation for the grace of Christmas to once again bless our lives. Wherever you live in our parish, there are poor families within walking distance of your home. When in need, they ring the rectory doorbell. They are, in effect, ringing your doorbell.

Your gift in the St. Vincent de Paul poor box will help the poor celebrate the grace of God's love this Christmas.
