

MS. KATHY KANE NAMED FOR NATIONAL AWARD

By Mary Mazuk

Principal of Our Lady of Victory School since 2007, Ms. Kathy Kane has earned the Distinguished Principal Award from the National Catholic Educational Association (NCEA). This award is given each year to one principal in each of the United States' geographic regions. The winners must exemplify a clear philosophy of Catholic education with a commitment to excellence; be respected by students, colleagues, parents, and the community; be a leader in civic, religious, or humanitarian activities; and maintain an orderly, purposeful learning environment. Nominated by school parents, staff members, and the Archdiocesan Superintendent of Schools, Dr. Jim Rigg, Ms. Kane will be presented the award in Orlando at the NCEA 2015 Convention and Expo in April. In his nomination letter, Dr. Rigg stated, "Ms. Kane is a deeply respected principal. She has worked hard to ensure that Victory provides the best religious and academic program possible. She is loved by the students and parents, and treats all people with respect and compassion."

Ms. Kane has been dedicated to teaching and learning excellence from the moment she stepped into the role of teacher. She feels it is important to spend her life making a difference in the lives of children. She began her teaching career at Our Lady of Visitation and served as their Assistant Principal/Director of Teaching and Learning for two years before transition to Our Lady of Victory as Principal. She is also an instructor for the Excellence Initiative, a program at Xavier University's Center for Catholic Education, and has been a Mentor Principal for new Archdiocesan administrators, for which she earned the Livitate Dei Award for outstanding mentorship in 2014. She served on the Vision Steering Committee for the Archdiocese from 2010-2012. Yet for all that she does and has done, when asked about what the award means to her, Ms. Kane stated, "While I'm honored about the recognition, it is really about the school. It's about who we are, and what we do. We have exceptional faculty and staff, and we share leadership, dedication, and a desire to provide the best faith-based education we can." She continued, "We have parents and a parish community who really support the school, so this award is about the community of people we have at Victory."

Congratulations, Ms. Kane, on your award, and thank you for representing Victory in a wonderfully positive way!

Our deacon candidate

Fr. Reutter

We are very pleased to have parishioner Mark Machuga continue his preparation to serve the Church and the local parish as a deacon. If all goes well, he will be ordained in April 2016. After that, he will be assigned together with Charley Jenkins to serve at Our Lady of Victory. In the meantime, Mark continues his academic studies and formation at Mt. St. Mary's Seminary in Mt. Washington on weekends. In addition to the class-work, the deacons have practical hands-on training in administering the sacraments and some required projects to assist in the good works of the Church. For one of his projects, Mark coordinated the implementation of the Christ Renews His Parish spiritual renewal weekends.

Recently, Mark took another major step toward his diaconal ordination as he was instituted to the ministry of acolyte in the Church by Covington, Ky., Bishop Roger Foys on February 1st. This rank means that he is given the right and privilege to assist any priest or deacon at the altar at Mass, to distribute Holy Communion when a priest or deacon can not, and to serve in making Eucharistic adoration possible to the people. An additional duty of an acolyte is to assist, instruct, and train altar servers. This is one step beyond extraordinary ministers of Holy Communion (EMHCs) who have a single function: to distribute Communion as delegated by the pastor within their own parish, if there are not enough priests, deacons or acolytes and if the Mass would be unduly prolonged without them.

Once he is a deacon, Mark will have two primary responsibilities in the parish: first, to help with the distribution of Communion to the sick and the homebound, and second to assist the priest (or bishop) at the altar at Mass directly as he stands at his side.

Please pray for Mark and his wife Julie as he prepares to give generously to the Church, conformed to Christ the Servant.

Symbolon at Our Lady of Victory

Jonathan Schaefer

At Victory we have started an effort to strengthen our parish community by evangelizing and re-energizing the community through interactive videos to help explain our Catholic faith. These videos help us to learn more about our faith but also help us see how it relates to our lives. Below is the link to register to watch the videos that the parish has paid to get access to for all of our parishioners. Below the link is the summary of the first session. Dates of upcoming meetings will be found on our parish website, along with summaries of each session. We have two groups at the parish. One group meets every Thursday morning and the other meets every other Wednesday Evening.

Session #1: The Journey of Faith: Trinity, Faith and the God Who Is Love

Symbolon is a unique sounding word that has a deep powerful meaning. When you hear the word symbolon, the first word you may think of is symbol. A symbol is an object that represents or stands for an idea, belief, or action etc. A symbol can take the form of words, sounds, gestures, or visual images and are used to convey ideas and beliefs. In the early Church, Christians described their Creed, their summary statement of faith, as the symbolon, the "seal" or "symbol of the faith." This is the same faith as professed by Jesus Christ. Our faith is our response to the God who created us out of a generous act of love. He longs to have a personal relationship with us, and is constantly seeking us out and revealing Himself to us so that we may have a share in His Life.

One of the core beliefs of our faith is that of the Trinity. Our God is the one true God. We should have fidelity to Him. Jesus Christ is God's word made flesh. The Holy Spirit is the bond of love between Father and Son. Our faith can be expressed through both intellect-knowing and learning about God, and will-living out our faith in our lives. It is best when both aspects are present at the same time. One way to live out our faith is through prayer. Jesus taught us the three elements of prayer-praise, asking for our needs to be met, and saying we are sorry for our sins through the Our Father. Prayer also allows us to have a conversation with God, which is a crucial aspect in developing and maintaining a relationship with Him. Just as you can strengthen your marriage by talking to each regularly, you can also strengthen your relationship with God by talking to Him regularly in prayer. Why not try it?

Congratulations to the following students who received high school scholarships: Chad Ostertag, Jacob Wuebbolt, Bob Luebbering, Julia Neumeister, Jarred Kelley, Megan Peterson, Brooke Pohlman, Samantha Riegler, Brady Murphy, Max Trotta, Ryan Duell, Shannon Cavanaugh, Amanda Carrick, Morgan Maloney, and J.P. Eary. We are so happy for YOU!! High schools, community organizations, and parish organizations/foundations/families offer scholarships for students attending high school. Some of the offers will come in January and some we will not know until graduation night. We don't hear from all of the high schools, and we would love to congratulate our students. If your child receives a scholarship offer or admission honors of some type, even if he/she declines the offer to attend a different high school, if you are willing to share his/her good news, please let us know. We are proud of all of our eighth graders and celebrate their successes and accomplishments during their time with us at Our Lady of Victory. We know that they will go onto high school well prepared for their high school journey.

During Catholic Schools Week, we proudly acknowledged faculty and staff who celebrated milestones in their dedicated service to the ministry of Catholic education.

For 10 Years of Dedicated Service to Catholic education, we are proud to congratulate Ms. Niederhausen, Mrs. Hofmann, and Mrs. Freudiger.

For 15 Years of Dedicated Service to Catholic education, we are proud to congratulate Mrs. Ashley.

For 20 Years of Dedicated Service to Catholic education, we are proud to congratulate Mrs. Fetting.

For 25 Years of Dedicated Service to Catholic education, we are proud to congratulate Mrs. Lynn.

For 35 Years of Dedicated Service to Catholic education, we are proud to congratulate Mrs. Mecher.

We thank all of our teachers and staff for their dedication. We are blessed with an exceptional faculty and staff at Our Lady of Victory.

It was wonderful to see so many families at our Open House during Catholic Schools Week. I want to thank our parish organizations who joined together for a Stewardship Fair, our National Junior Honor Society who presented a Cultural Fair, our eighth grade tour guides who led spectacular tours for new families, our NJHS greeters who welcomed all of our Open House visitors to OLV, our Ambassador Board who organized a week of service opportunities, Miss Dafler who hosted and prepared our Art Show, our Student Council who hosted spirit days, our PTO who treated our students to breakfast on Friday and our teachers to lunch, our faculty and staff for their exceptional dedication to our students, and all of our OLV community who generously and compassionately help us to live our mission of providing a faith-filled, well-rounded, exceptional education for all of our OLV children.

Please keep our second graders and our eighth graders in your prayers. Our second graders are preparing for their First Communion in May. Our eighth graders received the sacrament of Confirmation on February 25.

Boys Basketball

Bob Frommeyer

The boys basketball regular season is winding down. The regular season ended on February 15th. The 6, 7, and 8th grade A teams had very nice seasons. The 7th grade A team, coached by Mike Hager has clinched the league championship. The 8th grade A team, coached by Mike Browne looked to finish a close second. The Victory Invitational Basketball tournament was held in the gym. It is widely known as the best tournament in the greater Cincinnati area. While there are brackets for the 5th, 6th, and 7th grades, the emphasis of the tournament is on the 8th grade with 29 teams from the west side, northern Kentucky and the east side of town entering tournament play this year. The champion can truly be called the best Catholic 8th grade team in the greater Cincinnati area. During the tournament, we held our "Blue Wave" Victory night on January 31st, which has the 5,6,7, and 8th grade teams playing consecutively with a large and vocal student cheering section, which helped the Victory teams go 3-2 on the night. Victory also hosted the league championship tournament for C teams and playoff games for the Western Conference Tournament in late February.

Finance Commission Corner

Katie Davis

There usually isn't a day that goes by when we are asked to contribute to an organization that depends solely on generous donations of hard working people. The requests come to us in the mail, through commercials, phone calls, emails, face-to-face and the list goes on. It is hard to decide which ones are the most deserving of our time and of our money. As we write checks to these various benefits, in the back of our minds we hope that our money is being used the best way possible.

Being a part of different volunteer areas for the church and school, I have the privilege to witness firsthand the incredibly generous and wonderful parishioners that we have at OLV. I also get to see the hardworking employees and volunteers that spend countless hours sitting in meetings or working at home in order to make OLV the best that it can possibly be. It is not an easy task to make decisions for all of the parishioners and school families. It is also not an easy task to budget for future contributions that are needed to maintain the parish and school and all of the expenses that come with it, especially in the face of declining enrollment and weekly contributions. Much time and consideration is put into every decision to ensure each dollar gifted is put to its best use.

At the end of the day, it is nice to know that there are so many people working for the same outcome. Thank you to all of the families that decide on a daily basis, that OLV is most deserving of your time and money.

Tender Mercies:

Teresa Humphries

As I step down as coordinator of Tender Mercies, I want to thank all those in the parish who have prepared and served meals over the past 23 years.

Jackie Birri and friends have graciously agreed to take over as coordinators. Please support them as you have supported me.

The women and men at Tender Mercies are poor and needy. Yet they smile and endlessly say "thank you" for the meals we serve. It has been my privilege to be part of this important ministry over the years.

If you have any questions or would like to join this effort, please call Jackie Birri at 922-8436.

Thank you Teresa

Ann Weber

Teresa has been the coordinator of Our Lady of Victory's outreach to Tender Mercies for 23 years. Tender Mercies serves homeless mentally ill adults. They provide many services including housing and the hot meal program. She has led a vast group of OLV volunteers in the preparation, delivery, and serving of hot meals twice a month. Her dedication has been unmatched. Although Teresa is stepping down as the coordinator of Tender Mercies, she will continue to coordinate our food pantry, which also provides to the needy in our area.

Thank you Teresa for your dedication and hard work to all those in need.

Eagle Scout - Evan Morgan

Becca Sontag

Evan Morgan recently joined an elite group of individuals as he was promoted to the rank of Eagle Scout. Evan, a life-long parish member and graduate of Victory and Elder, entered the Scouts with a brief stint as a Cub before moving on to the Boy Scouts proper in 7th grade. It was here that he met Mr. Tom Zimmerman and later Mr. Greg Lundy who would provide the guidance and expertise necessary for the challenges ahead.

Evan's love of the outdoors and personal interest in developing his leadership skills while serving his community made him an excellent fit for Scouting which fosters and nurtures all of these traits. Through his experiences, he was able to volunteer locally, help lead younger Scouts through their own journeys, and develop and test qualities of his own character preparing him for the challenges of adulthood that undoubtedly shall arise.

As a mere freshman in high school, he and his pack went on a week long camping trip to a virtually deserted island in Florida where they survived on packed rations, a specialized skill-set, and teamwork as yet another opportunity for Evan and his fellow pack-mates to prove to themselves what they are capable of. He was also given the opportunity to act as Senior Patrol Leader where he was able to share his knowledge, expertise, and leadership skills with younger Scouts.

After rising through the ranks, earning badges through service work and learning new skills, the culmination of Evan's perseverance and dedication was in sight. Only around 5% of Boy Scouts go on to become Eagle Scouts and this must be completed by the age of 18. After taking a two year break from Scouting to focus on the academic demands of high school, being a member of the Elder wrestling team, and an after school job, Evan was ready to crown his time in Scouts with the rank of Eagle just before his 18th birthday.

With all of the other requirements met, there was but one remaining obstacle to conquer before he reached that goal. In order to be promoted in rank, Evan needed to complete a project that would both exhibit and test the qualities that Scouting had developed and matured in Evan in addition to benefitting the community as a whole.

In cooperation with the Western Wildlife Corridor organization and guidance from his mentor, Mr. Lundy, Evan organized the construction of a hiking path. This required the very labor intensive activities of clearing honey suckle and other plant growth along with placing stones to make for easier walking. Not only did Evan have to do this work himself, but had to manage the efforts of others to turn this from a plan into a reality. And all of this had to be completed before Evan's 18th birthday while still having to maintain the other commitments in his life. It was a true test.

It was, however, a test that Evan was prepared for. He overcame each challenge as it arose and with guidance and wisdom from Mr. Lundy and the support of his family, Evan completed this difficult task that many will benefit from. This hiking trail will provide enjoyment to the community, this is sure.

And Evan will carry the skills, lessons, and love of Scouting developed through the years with him for the rest of his life.

Congratulations Evan!

Please help support the #1 biggest fundraiser for the parish For the past several years OLVA has written the parish a $60,000 check to help the OLV budget and minimize rise in tuition.

There are many ways to show your support. To name a few:

- ⇒ Volunteer your time—chairing a booth (open positions for 2015)
- ⇒ Get your company to be a sponsor—GOLD $400, BLUE $300 and WHITE $200
- ⇒ Festival setup, nightly cleanup, Monday tear down/clean up.
- ⇒ Help is needed only through May 13th-18th and is a HUGE giveback to the OLV Community and it's fun too!

Please don't assume that we do not need your help.

Please email or call Brian Weber to get involved.

Our Lady of Victory Parish is a part of the Roman Catholic Church, which we believe is the institutional continuation of the church founded by our Lord Jesus Christ when he sent out his apostles after his resurrection with these instructions: "Go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to carry out all that I have commanded of you, and know that I am with you always, until the end of the world." By the sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation, and the Eucharist, members of the church are promised eternal life and are equipped to serve God and their neighbor, according to the gifts and talents which each of them have received. In this way, we worship God in Spirit and Truth and welcome his Kingdom into our hearts and into the world.
